PROVIDER-PATIENT VOLUNTARY ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

In the event of any dispute or controversy arising out of the diagnosis, treatment, or care of the patient by the healthcare provider, the dispute or controversy shall be submitted to binding arbitration.

Within fifteen days after a party to this agreement has given written notice to the other of demand for arbitration of said dispute or controversy, the parties to the dispute or controversy shall each appoint an arbitrator and give notice of such appointment to the other. Within a reasonable time after such notices have been given the two arbitrators so selected shall select a neutral arbitrator and give notice of the selection thereof to the parties. The arbitrators shall hold a hearing within a reasonable time from the date of notice of selection of the neutral arbitrator.

Expenses of the arbitration shall be shared equally by the parties to this agreement.

The patient, by signing this agreement, also acknowledges that the patient has been informed that:

- (1) Care, diagnosis, or treatment will be provided whether or not the patient signs the agreement to arbitrate;
- (2) The agreement may not even be submitted to a patient for approval when the patient's condition prevents the patient from making a rational decision whether or not to agree;
- (3) The decision whether or not to sign the agreement is solely a matter for the patient's determination without any influence;
- (4) The agreement waives the patient's right to a trial in court for any future malpractice claim the patient may have against the healthcare provider;
- (5) The patient must be furnished with two copies of this agreement.

PATIENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL AGREEMENT TO ARBITRATE

The patient, or the patient's spouse or the personal representative of the patient's estate in the event of the patient's death or incapacity, has the right to cancel this agreement to arbitrate by notifying the healthcare provider in writing within thirty days after the patient's signing of the agreement. The patient, or the patient's spouse or representative, as appropriate, may cancel this agreement by merely writing "cancelled" on the face of one of the patient's copies of the agreement, signing the patient's name under such word, and mailing, by certified mail, return receipt requested, the copy to the healthcare provider within the thirty-day period.

Filing of a medical claim in a court within the thirty days provided for cancellation of the arbitration agreement by the patient will cancel the agreement without any further action by the patient.

A signed copy of this document is to be given to the Patient. Original is to be filled in Patient's medical records.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

We understand the importance of privacy and are committed to maintaining the confidentiality of your medical information. We make a record of the medical care we provide and may receive such records from others. We use these records to provide or enable other health care providers to provide quality medical care, to obtain payment for services provided to you as allowed by your health plan and to enable us to meet our professional and legal obligations to operate Columbus Kidney Care properly. We are required by law to maintain the privacy of protected health information and to provide individuals with notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information. This notice describes how we may use and disclose your medical information. It also describes your rights and our legal obligations with respect to your medical information. If you have any questions about this Notice, please contact our Office Manager.

A. How Columbus Kidney Care (Practice) May Use or Disclose Your Health Information

Practice collects health information about you and stores it in a chart and/or on a computer. The medical record is the property of Practice, but the information in the medical record belongs to you. The law permits us to use or disclose your health information for the following purposes:

1. Treatment. We use medical information about you to provide your medical care. We disclose medical information to our employees and others who are involved in providing the care you need. For example, we may share your medical information with other physicians or other health care providers who will provide services that we do not provide such as a pharmacist.
2. Payment. We use and disclose medical information about you to obtain payment for the services we provide. For example, we give your health plan the information it requires before it will pay us. We may also disclose information to other health care providers to assist them in obtaining payment for services they have provided to you.
3. Health Care Operations. We may use and disclose medical information about you to operate Practice. For example, we may use and disclose this information to review and improve the quality of care we provide, or to train our professional staff, or we may use and disclose this information to get your health plan to authorize services or referrals. We may also use and disclose this information as necessary for medical reviews, legal services and audits, including fraud and abuse detection and compliance programs and business planning and management. We may also share your medical information with our business associates who may perform administrative services for us. We have a written contract with each of these business associates that contains terms requiring them to protect the confidentiality of your medical information. Although federal law does not protect health information which is disclosed to someone other than another healthcare provider, health plan or healthcare clearinghouse, under Ohio law all recipients of health care information are prohibited from re-disclosing it except as specifically required or permitted by law. We may also share your information with other health care providers, health care clearinghouses or health plans that have a relationship with you, when they request this information to help them with their quality assessment and improvement activities, their efforts to improve health or reduce health care costs, their review of competence, qualifications and performance of health care professionals, their training programs, their accreditation, certification or licensing activities, or their health care fraud and abuse detection and compliance efforts

4. Appointment reminders. We may use and disclose medical information to contact and remind you about appointments. If you are not home, we may leave this information on your answering machine or in a message left with the person answering the phone or we may send you a postcard.

5. Sign in sheet. We may use and disclose medical information about you by having you sign in when you arrive at our office. We may also call out your name when we are ready to see you.

6. Notification and communication with family. We may disclose your health information to notify or assist in notifying a family member, your personal representative or another person responsible for your care, about your location, your general condition or in the event of your death. In the event of a disaster, we may disclose information to a relief organization so that they may coordinate these notification efforts.

7. Marketing. We may contact you to give you information about products or services related to your treatment, case management or care coordination, or to direct or recommend other treatments or health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you, or to provide you with small gifts. We may also encourage you to purchase a product or service when we see you. We will not use or disclose your medical information without your written authorization.

8. Required by law. As required by law, we will use and disclose your health information, but we will limit our use or disclosure to the relevant requirements of the law. When the law requires us to report abuse, neglect or domestic violence, or respond to judicial or administrative proceedings, or to law enforcement officials, we will further comply with the requirement set forth below concerning those activities.

9. Public health. We may, and are sometimes required by law to disclose your health information to public health authorities for purposes related to: preventing or controlling disease, injury or disability; reporting child, elder or dependent adult abuse or neglect; reporting domestic violence; reporting to the Food and Drug Administration problems with products and reactions to medications; and reporting disease or infection exposure. When we report suspected elder or dependent adult abuse or domestic violence, we will inform you or your personal representative promptly unless in our best professional judgment, we believe the notification would place you at risk of serious harm or would require informing a personal representative we believe is responsible for the abuse or harm.

10. Health oversight activities. We may, and are sometimes required by law to disclose your health information to health oversight agencies during the course of audits, investigations, inspections, licensure and other proceedings, subject to the limitations imposed by federal and Ohio law.

11. Judicial and administrative proceedings. We may, and are sometimes required by law, to disclose your health information in the course of any administrative or judicial proceeding to the extent expressly authorized by a court or administrative order. We may also disclose information about you in response to a subpoena, discovery request or other lawful process if reasonable efforts have been made to notify you of the request and you have not objected, or if your objections have been resolved by a court or administrative order.

12. Law enforcement. We may, and are sometimes required by law, to disclose your health information to a law enforcement official for purposes such as identifying or locating a suspect, fugitive, material witness or missing person, complying with a court order, warrant, grand jury subpoena and other law enforcement purposes.

13. Coroners. We may, and are often required by law, to disclose your health information to coroners in connection with their investigations of deaths.

14. Organ or tissue donation. We may disclose your health information to organizations involved in procuring, banking or transplanting organs and tissues.

15. Public safety. We may, and are sometimes required by law, to disclose your health information to appropriate persons in order to prevent or lessen a serious and imminent threat to the health or safety of a particular person or the general public.

16. Specialized government functions. We may disclose your health information for military or national security purposes or to correctional institutions or law enforcement officers that have you in their lawful custody.

17. Worker's compensation. We may disclose your health information as necessary to comply with worker's compensation laws. For example, to the extent your care is covered by workers' compensation, we will make periodic reports to your employer about your condition. We are also required by law to report cases of occupational injury or occupational illness to the employer or workers' compensation insurer.

18. Change of Ownership. In the event that Practice is sold or merged with another organization, your health information/record will become the property of the new owner, although you will maintain the right to request that copies of your health information be transferred to another physician or medical group.

19. Research. We may disclose your health information to researchers conducting research with respect to which your written authorization is not required as approved by an Institutional Review Board or privacy board, in compliance with governing law.

B. When Practice May Not Use or Disclose Your Health Information

Except as described in this Notice of Privacy Practices, Practice will not use or disclose health information which identifies you without your written authorization. If you do authorize Practice to use or disclose your health information for another purpose, you may revoke your authorization in writing at any time.

C. Your Health Information Rights

1. Right to Request Special Privacy Protections. You have the right to request restrictions on certain uses and disclosures of your health information, by a written request specifying what information you want to limit and what limitations on our use or disclosure of that information you wish to have imposed. We reserve the right to accept or reject your request, and will notify you of our decision.

2. Right to Request Confidential Communications. You have the right to request that you receive your health information in a specific way or at a specific location. For example, you may ask that we send information to a particular email account or to your work address. We will comply with all reasonable requests submitted in writing which specify how or where you wish to receive these communications.

Fax: 614-839-1531

Westerville Office: 60 Westerview Dr, westerville, OH 43081.

REV 06/20

3. Right to Inspect and Copy. You have the right to inspect and copy your health information, with limited exceptions. To access your medical information, you must submit a written request detailing what information you want access to and whether you want to inspect it or get a copy of it. We will charge a reasonable fee, as allowed by Ohio law. We may deny your request under limited circumstances. If we deny your request to access your child's records because we believe allowing access would be reasonably likely to cause substantial harm to your child, you will have a right to appeal our decision.

4. Right to Amend or Supplement. You have a right to request that we amend your health information that you believe is incorrect or incomplete. You must make a request to amend in writing, and include the reasons you believe the information is inaccurate or incomplete. We are not required to change your health information, and will provide you with information about Practice's denial and how you can disagree with the denial. We may deny your request if we do not have the information, if we did not create the information (unless the person or entity that created the information is no longer available to make the amendment), if you would not be permitted to inspect or copy the information at issue, or if the information is accurate and complete as is. You also have the right to request that we add to your record a statement of up to 250 words concerning any statement or item you believe to be incomplete or incorrect.

5. Right to an Accounting of Disclosures. You have a right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your health information made by Practice, except that Practice does not have to account for the disclosures provided to you or pursuant to your written authorization, or as described in paragraphs 1 (treatment), 2 (payment), 3 (health care operations), 6 (notification and communication with family) and 16 (specialized government functions) of Section A of this Notice of Privacy Practices or disclosures for purposes of research or public health which exclude direct patient identifiers, or which are incident to a use or disclosure otherwise permitted or authorized by law, or the disclosures to a health oversight agency or law enforcement official to the extent Practice has received notice from that agency or official that providing this accounting would be reasonably likely to impede their activities.

6. You have a right to a paper copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices. If you would like to have a more detailed explanation of these rights or if you would like to exercise one or more of these rights, contact the Office Manager.

D. Changes to this Notice of Privacy Practices

We reserve the right to amend this Notice of Privacy Practices at any time in the future. Until such amendment is made, we are required by law to comply with this Notice. After an amendment is made, the revised Notice of Privacy Protections will apply to all protected health information that we maintain, regardless of when it was created or received. We will keep a copy of the current notice posted in our reception area, and will offer you a copy at each appointment.

E. Complaints

Complaints about this Notice of Privacy Practices or how Practice handles your health information should be directed to the Office Manager. If you are not satisfied with the manner in which this office handles a complaint, you may submit a formal complaint to:

Financial Policy

Our commitment is to provide the very best care to our patients, providing appropriate treatment while avoiding unnecessary services. To meet this commitment, we recognize the need for a definite understanding and agreement concerning your health care and financial arrangements for that medical care. Your clear understanding of our financial policies is important to our professional relationship.

Professional fees: Our fees for medical services are comparable to other similarly trained physicians in the community and reflect the complexity of your specific needs, the physician time dedicated to your care, the specialized nature of the doctor's training and education, supplies, and support costs associated with providing and coordinating your care.

Patient Payments: Co-payment, deductibles, payment for services not covered by your insurance plan, and outstanding balances are due at the time of your appointment. Payment may be made by: cash, check, or credit card.

Insurance Payments: We participate in assignment of payment with specific insurance plans in the area. When the correct insurance information is provided, we will submit your claims for you. Your insurance coverage is a contract between you and your insurance plan. You are responsible for unpaid balances left on your account regardless of the amount your insurance coverage.

Self-Pay: If you are not billing a third party or health insurance, payment is required at the time of service. If the patient has no insurance, they must bring a minimum of half (1/2) of the standard new patient consult fee. (Example, if the average new patient consult fee is $300, then the patient must bring $150 to pay at the time of service). Once that transaction is complete, the patient must see the billing financial counselor or the Front Desk lead to set up an appropriate payment plan.

Bad Checks: Checks not honored by your financial institution will be subject to a $30.00 charge, or your account may be placed immediately with a third party collection agency for collection.

Collection Agencies: If it becomes necessary to place your account with a third party collection agency because of non-payment, your account will be turned over to collections, and you will be dismissed from our practice.

We thank you for coming to Columbus Kidney Care. Please feel free to contact our billing office regarding any questions about our fees, financial policies, or your insurance coverage and your responsibilities.

Appointment Cancellation Policy

Columbus Kidney Care requires a notification of at least 24 hours prior to your appointment for any cancellations. We request this in order to allow adequate time to be able to offer your appointment slot to another patient. If you miss an appointment without providing the required advance notice, a rescheduled appointment cannot be guaranteed.
