"How To Combat ~~The~~ The Satanic Illuminati ²⁰¹⁷"

Dear loyal Christian patriots, FisherOfMen here,

In this letter I want to talk about what it means to be an active member of the body of Christ. In Matthew 25:15, 1611 KJV of course, it speaks of a man going away on a journey, and giving his servants talents.

"Unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his (several) ability." Each man invested the talents given to them which resulted in an increase of money from wise investments. The man with one talent, however, did nothing with what was entrusted to him. In fact, he buried his talent in the ground. This was a parable for the kingdom of God, and ~~the~~ the man who did nothing was cast into hell. We are all born with talents, and I'm not talking about money. Each of us is equipped by God with some kind of ability, a forte, a talent, something we're good at. It could be writing books, making videos, art work, making music, or something as simple as having a generous spirit who helps the poor, or even donating time to help people around you. Romans Chapter 12:4-6 says "For as we have many members in one body, so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and everyone members one of another." It ^{goes} goes on to list different gifts God gives us, and says in verse 11 "not slothful (lazy) in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord." Your body is made up of different organs. ~~Each body organ~~ Each body organ has a special role, doing its part for the good of the whole body while also depending on the other members (organs) of the body. If one body part is not functioning properly, or at all, then the whole body suffers. Likewise we Christians are members of the Body of Christ each equipped with talents and gifts to be ^{used} ~~used~~ to do your part for the kingdom of God. The body of Christ in America is very ill, because Christians have taken their talents, and buried them in the ground like the servant in the parable. They have become inactive members that will be ~~am~~ amputated from the body, and "Cut off from the vine." Jesus said you don't light a candle just to hide it under a basket. We put it on a high place to shine light in the darkness →

When you bury your "talent" instead of using it to expand God's kingdom you are hiding your light under a basket. We are to be the salt of the earth. Salt preserves, and irritates. It preserves those who accept the truth, and irritates those who hate it. The name of the game is winning souls, and exposing evil. In Mark 10:51 Jesus asked a blind man "what do you want me to do for you" ~~because~~ ^{because} as it says in Mark 10:45, Jesus came to serve, not to be served. The Bible says we ARE ALL called to be ministers, and the word "minister" means "to serve". During the last 10 years of my life I had only one mission, one agenda, one motivation, one care, one passion in life. It was to win as many souls over to God as possible doing the only ~~thing~~ thing I knew how... making videos. That was my talent, and I put ~~everything~~ everything else last on my ~~priority list~~ priority list. My dad died in 2009 on October 13 at the age of 44, and a month later on November 13 I turned 18, and was homeless. The year 2009 was around the time the economy went downhill due to America's disobedience to God. So due to multiple factors, one being Las Vegas, NV was number one for most unemployment in the U.S. (sin city, go figure), and due to poor family ~~structure~~ structure, I was shown how it was to be homeless, sleeping in abandoned homes, ~~and~~ on concrete slabs behind grocery stores, and at parks. This ~~went~~ ^{continued} on off, and on for about 4 years. It wasn't due to a ~~big~~ ~~habit~~ drug habit, a gambling habit, or anything like ~~that~~ that. I was a young kid who didn't always have a steady stream of income. God carried me through those years, and it was a humbling process I had to go through which drew me closer to God, and taught me through experience that God will always provide. It taught me to have a heart for the homeless, and to have compassion on people in that position who think they're forgotten. They may be forgotten by man, but not by God. It's the meek, and the lowly who will inherit the earth, and salvation →

Remember, in the book of Luke it's the poor man Lazarus who dies, and is carried by angels to paradise. The rich man dies and goes to hell. The rich man had no pity, or compassion on the poor man. Some homeless people put themselves there and don't care to leave that life, but the ones I'm talking about are those who had no choice, like in my case. ~~while~~ I started my first YouTube channel when I was 16. I felt a moral obligation to get the truth out. There was never any money involved. When I became homeless, I would still upload videos religiously everyday by using my cell phone & WIFI. No matter what was going on in my life, my primary focus was expanding what I considered my ministry, at all cost. People would tell me I was obsessed with it. Yep, I'm a fool for Christ, and willingly sacrificed a lot for this channel. I knew I needed an ~~income~~ income to continue investing as much time as I was, so, reluctantly I began putting ads on my videos. It was either that or ask ~~people~~ people for money, which ~~is~~ ^{in some} cases was my only option, because the ad income ^{was not} ~~was~~ always reliable for many reasons. I hated asking for money. That's the ultimate pride crusher, but a lot of your pride dies when you've been homeless. Pride is your enemy. Pride will stand ~~between~~ between you, and God. Pride is why Satan rebelled. I humbled myself, and accepted help from YouTube supporters. But that's what the body of Christ is all about. As years went by, God blessed my efforts enormously. Sometimes when I had no wifi, I would go through hell, and back just to find wifi, then sit in the freezing cold ~~for~~ for two hours just to upload a 10 minute video on a slow wifi connection. Many times I wanted to give up out of frustration. I announced the end of my channel multiple times, but at the end of the day, giving up was simply not an option. I persevered, and didn't give up. I wasn't satisfied with reaching only a few thousand people. I wanted the whole world to know the truth. When I was 19 years old I wrote out a contract to God, and told him I would → willingly give my life for him if he used me to win souls, even if it meant being murdered, imprisoned, or persecuted. It would be an honor. I signed the contract. When someone sends me an email, or letter telling me how my videos got their whole family going back to church, or how it changed their life, strengthened their faith, or led them to Christ, it makes me cry sometimes. It makes me cry because I know exactly how it feels to become free from a life of psychological slavery after coming to the knowledge of the truth, and accepting Jesus Christ. To be able to share that with someone is PRICELESS. Money can't buy the feeling you get when you lead a soul to Christ. In the book of Ezekiel ~~we're~~ suppose it says we're suppose to be a watchman on the wall, and warn people to turn from their wicked ways when possible, and if we don't, then we will be held accountable. Many people don't want to step outside their comfort zone, and publicly represent Jesus Christ, because they care more about what their worldly friends think than they do about God. They are ashamed of being identified with Christ, and more concerned with being who the world wants them to be. Jesus will deny, and disown ~~the~~ you before God if you deny, and disown Jesus before the world. Jesus said "If the world hates you, understand that it hated me first. If you were of the world it would love you as its own. Instead, the world hates you, because you are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world" - John 15:18 If you cared about your unsaved friends, you will minister to them. Proverbs says "better a wound from a friend than a kiss from an enemy." Better to wound your friend with the truth, because the truth hurts, and tell him or her what they need to hear than to tell them what they want to hear. If they reject Jesus, and can't be won over, they will, as the Bible says, be handed over to the devil, and you are to cut them off. The Bible says "come out from among them, and be separate." →

The Bible says "what do the righteous have in common with the unrighteous", and "a friend of the world is an enemy of God" and "if you're not for God, you're against him", and "you can't serve two masters." Bad company corrupts good people. Birds of a feather flock together. Be in the world but not of it. Darkness, and light can't dwell together. Don't surround yourself with Bible rejecting, God hating sodomites, fornicators, ~~thieves~~ thieves, liars, and people who's lives are centered around getting drunk, and doing ~~drugs~~ drugs. Your personal battles are hard enough as it is. They will only ~~drag~~ drag you down. Be on your guard not to become like the people you're suppose to be ministering to. Lead by example. Christians today hide their light under a basket when they could be ~~using~~ ^{using} their God given talents to help those who are spiritually bankrupt come to Christ. Satans plans depend on Christians not mobilizing. Martin Luther king Jr said "not to do anything to stop evil makes you an accomplice to it." You can help stop the cancer of the anti Christ spirit in America by leading people to Christ. That's what life is about. That's all that matters. Granted some people are limited by what they can do, but what matters is you do ~~what~~ what you can with what God gave you. Being an inactive Christian puts you in a state of neutrality with the Devil. Neutrality is submission, and submission is compliance, and compliance is cooperation. That makes you an accomplice to Satan. Your lack of resistance means his expansion. It says in the Bible not to participate in evil, but to expose it. Exposing evil is my method of winning souls over^R to God. Asking someone up front if they know Jesus Christ as their person savior will often immediately turn them off. In this day and age, the world requires a different approach. When I'm ministering to someone here in prison I start off telling them about corruption in government, the illuminati, and then creationism I learned from Dr. Kent Hovind. Five hours later, they're prepared to willingly hear about Jesus Christ, and Salvation. →

Here's how it works. Lets say I'm going door to door, house to house offering people a FREE security system for their home. People, however, think they're perfectly safe, and have no idea that there's an enemy living inside their house seeking to kill, steal, and destroy, so they reject the home security system even though its free. Therefore I try a different approach. Instead of mentioning the home security system first, I make my first ~~strategy~~ strategy to expose, and uncover the enemy lurking about their property. Now they are informed, and aware that there's an enemy seeking their destruction. Now they ~~aren't~~ realize how vulnerable, and unsafe they really are, and are ~~much~~ much more willing to accept the free home security system. The enemy is Satan, the illuminati, corruption in government, but it's a spiritual war, and Jesus Christ is the home security system that protects you from the enemy. My YouTube videos expose the enemy, and shows people why they need God. This is why a majority of my videos are dedicated to exposing the illuminati. It proves to people that Satan is real, and that's enough for people to seek Christ without me even having to mention the Bible. When ~~people~~ people watch my videos about how our country is controlled by Luciferians, it causes droves of people to seek God, and strengthens the faith of others. In fact, 99% of the testimonies I get from people who say my videos changed their life, and led them to Christ, are due to videos that exposes Satan, the illuminati Free masons, and New World Order. One well placed, well timed, powerful Bible scripture inserted into a 60 minute video exposing evil in government is enough for someone on the fence to accept Jesus Christ. The world we live in, from my experience, responds better to the message of salvation AFTER you tear down the world of lies that Satan built up around them.

An hour long video exposing corruption in government is an hour wasted if the video doesn't expose the culprits. Emphasis needs to be put on the fact that the culprit is the illuminati that is a Luciferian mafia. You need to channel peoples emotions towards the right direction or else all you have is a video that angers, and scares people, and they don't know what to do. Place blame on the people responsible, the illuminati/satan so people know where to direct their anger, and by natural instinct people will go to Jesus for protection, and to calm their fears. Jesus in Hebrew is "Yeshua" which means "safety." Jesus said he came not to destroy lives but to save lives. What's interesting is Satan uses the psychology of fear as a weapon of control, because it makes people seek safety. The fear that drives people to Christ wasn't created by Christ, but was a result of coming to a knowledge of the truth, and the truth can be scary. That fear leads people to Christ, and is meant to save them. God does not, as it says in the Bible, give us the spirit of fear, but the spirit of sound mind. Satan promotes fear through state sponsored, CIA manufactured terrorism. The fear created by Satan is used to create an artificial need of protection from the government, resulting in loss of freedom, and meant to destroy, not save. God doesn't manufacture fear to get people on his side, but Satan does. The truth is what leads people to God. Some people call me a fear mongerer. Does a watchman on the wall become a fear mongerer just because he saw an enemy army approaching, and sounded the alarm to warn the people? Of course not! Fear mongering is what the monopoly controlled news media does!! →

Here's my version of the boy who cried wolf. The wolf staged an attack one day while holding an AR 15. Nobody actually saw the attack, but the boy swore up and down he saw it happen, and the boy hired false witnesses from a different village. The boy, without fail, everyday repeated his story until eventually the whole village was convinced. The boy therefore also convinced the village, after 5 more wolf attacks with an AR-15 that no one saw except for hired "witnesses", that the entire village should ban all guns so that the wolf can no longer legally own an AR 15. And then one day a pack of wolves invaded the village with fully auto M16's, but no one in the village had a gun to fight back. The village women were raped, the men were executed, and the homes were plundered. The boy is the main stream news media & Press, and the wolf is the CIA/CFR & FBI/NSA/DHS. The village is the USA. The News & government thrive on fear mongering. I'll be exposing these satanic sodomite, pedophile parasites until the day I die. I know they're watching this video. Here's a message to them, the enemy. I've been at this for 10 years now. It's all I know, and I'm not about to stop now. The die has been cast. When all is said and done, I'll have the last laugh. I've been ambushed by the FBI, Homeland security, and around March 2017 secret service came to my house. They thought they were going to intimidate me. They thought wrong. Getting a visit from the S.S. was a milestone, a pat on the back, and it let me know ~~I~~ did a mighty fine job exposing evil. I hope to one day receive a visit from the CIA. →

A visit from the CIA would make an excellent youtube video. Fox 5 news, and other monopoly news media outlets labeled me a "Christian Terrorist." I made American history by being, as far as I know, the first man in the U.S. to be labeled a Christian terrorist by the fake news... another milestone. It doesn't offend me because I could care less what the world thinks about me, and it lets me know I'm doing a good job being the salt of the earth. Many people in government hate me, and that's a milestone. The day people stop taking shots at you is the day you're not on top anymore. None of these things phase me. There was no fine print when I signed that contract with God. I knew the risks. God is in 100% complete control of my life, not the enemy. Ask God today for the courage to serve him. Ask God to show you how he wants you to serve him. Ask ~~him~~ him to use you for his purposes, and if you really mean it, if you really want him to put you to work, he will do it according to the strengths, and abilities he's equipped you with. Every person has talents. Don't bury your talents in the ground like the unprofitable servant in Matthew 25:15. Put your talents to work. Let God show you your full potential. The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Become an active member of the body of Christ. Put others before yourself. You reap what you sow. If you don't sow good seed, you won't reap a harvest. You have to give to get. You have to sow to reap. Invest your time here for greater things in eternity. God Bless - Fisher Of Men Read Luke 6:38
