Dear Rudy,

I got the book "Animal Farm." Thanks for getting that sent in. It had been a long time since I'd read it. And it took on a whole new meaning after having lived through it.

The way the pigs would write the rules, then modify the rules, then get rid of the rules all together is a classic example of how the Feds work today.

The other thing that the pigs on the farm and the Feds in America both do is to write "the record" however they want it, deny reality, then tell everyone that the record is all that matters and if you remember facts that contradict the record, you must be misremembering.

We see this trick where the pigs try to over rule reality in everything from the Trump/Russia collusion delusion supported by "The Dossier," to the fairytale affidavits in support of a search warrant in my case written by FBI agent Westerhouse. Westerhouse is such a reckless fabricator of lies that he wrote a so-called "Affidavit" - describing the events of February 19th, on February 17th and 18th BEFORE his fairytale narrative of the 19th could even have taken place!

The cockey bozo wrote a first person, past tense, sworn statement that said on 2-19-2011 Schaeffer Cox said this, agreed to that, and took the following actions, and I, Special Agent Patrick Westerhouse have first hand knowledge of these things. Then he went down to the State Court house and filed it on February 18th, 2011.

There is no way around it. If someone gives you a sworn statement today about what everyone did tomorrow, you know EVERYTHING in that statement is a made-up lie.

You guys out there need to go on the Alaska court documents website (called Court View) and print off that impossible affidavit. Then you need to show it to the whole wide world and point out how it can't be anything other than a lie.

Skrocki, Westerhouse, and the rest of the pigs will respond by claiming that "all animals are equal, but that some animals (Pigs) are more equal than others." Then they will put on a confident front and tell you to doubt yourself and trust them.

This is when you look them in their pig face and tell them that their tricks aren't working on you anymore!

Ha ha. Let's get to it.
