"How To Make The Trash Take Its' Self Out"

Description Box: Ever wonder why Jesus called His mother "woman"? Here's why. (Also, how to win debates)

2018

by FisherOfMen

In the Holy Scriptures Yeshua (Jesus Christ) always called His mom "woman". He never addressed her as "mother." Mary was always, and without exception called "woman" by Jesus Christ. In fact, all women were never called by their names when Jesus spoke to them, but right now we're focusing ^{on} His mom. Jesus Christ called His mother "woman" to show His authority over her so people would not deify Mary, and make a false god out of her. Be that as it may a fool is born every minute, and Mary was still turned into a false idol. In Luke 11:27 a woman interrupted a speech Jesus was giving in order to praise Mary by saying "Blessed is the womb that bore thee," and Jesus corrected the rude lady who interrupted His seminar by saying "Yea, rather, blessed are they that hear the Word of God, and keep it" - Luke 11:28. Your prayers fall on deaf ears if your counterfeit religion teaches you to pray to dead sinners and dead saints instead of praying to Jesus Christ. Yes, I'm talking about Roman Catholics who pray to dead sinners or anyone for that matter. Yeshua went on to go as far as publicly ignoring, and disregarding Mary as well as His brothers in Matthew 12:46-50. There are 3 reasons for this. ① To make it know His immediate family is not better than everyone else just because they were related. ② To make the point that only those who do the will of God are His brothers, sisters, and mothers. ③ His mother Mary, and His blood brothers were not there to support His ministry, but to pull Him away to tell Him He was out of His mind, and embarrassing the family. Here's scriptural proof.

"And they were offended in Him, but Jesus said unto them, a prophet is not without honor except in his own country, and in his own house, and among his own kin" - Mark 6:1.
Can you believe that? Even His own family didn't believe in Him.
"For neither did His brethren believe in Him" - John 7:5. This also just goes to show that our family will be among the first to doubt, and oppose God's plan for our lives in many cases, and even if our families are believers in God. Jesus' immediate family eventually had a change of heart, but were against Him at first, even His mother.

People who don't think for themselves and don't read the Bible will rely on other people who claim to understand the Bible to think for them thus being deceiving into praying to a dead ~~sinner~~ ^{Sinner} such as Mary or Saint Peter. "There's one mediator between God, and man" - 1 Timothy 2:5
"Jesus (is) the mediator of the new covenant" - Hebrews 12:24.
Mary, Saint Peter, the satanic Pope, and Santa Claws do NOT hear our prayers nor do they go to God on our behalf, because they CAN'T. There are 3 basic types of people in this world. ① A man who thinks for himself. ② A man who is told what to think, and thinks he thinks for himself. ③ A man who has rejected Jesus Christ, and is therefore hopelessly void of all reason and logic. Man #2 represents people who don't read the Bible and/or believe in a counterfeit religion with counterfeit scripture such as the book of Mormon, Mormonism, Roman Catholics and their extra books.

I love witnessing to Mormon street cult recruiters. It begins with them trying to convert me, and ends two hours later with them trying really hard not to punch me in the face as they get blood red with violent rage and fury after I use their own doctrine to destroy its self in a way they can't defend against. No outside argument is needed. They can't defend their own faith as well as they can promote it. I make the trash take its self out by asking questions designed to force the truth out of their own mouth resulting in them debating with themselves while in a mental state of confusion and chaos as they try to pick up the pieces to salvage what's left of their religion while coping with what just happened eventually realizing their only choices are to admit they believe a lie or walk away humiliated. It's the most beautiful thing I've ever seen... almost brings a tear to my eye. Some cherish the moments their baby took his first steps. I cherish the moments I bring someones entire world of lies crashing down by using their own arguments to do it. Priceless. One of my previous cellmates is an atheist evolution fairytale believer. During a tense 8 hour all night debate between me and this arrogant closeted homosexual, I had to switch up my tactic after exhausting all my Kent Howard rebuttals. This atheist just didn't get it. I learned a lesson I learned a million times before. You can't reason with a man who has rejected reason and logic by rejecting Jesus Christ. ~~They see reason and logic as unreasonable and reject simply and solely because it points to Jesus Christ.~~

They see reason, and logic as unreasonable, and illogical simply, and solely because it points to Jesus Christ. You have to use their own belief against them. I switched to my more effective tactic to bring this pride demon down from his castle of arrogance, and force the truth from his own mouth. "The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not (is absent from) in all his thoughts" - Psalms 10:4. I stopped citing facts and started asking questions about the information he used to support his side of the debate. My questions exposed the stupidity of his own arguments, and forced him to give answers that supported my side of the debate. His so called "scientific evidence" turned out not to be so scientific. It was "science falsely so called" - ^{1 Timothy} 6:20

By this time he knew his end was near. Nonetheless he did his best to stall the inevitable like a child trying to avoid taking responsibility, or like a wounded gazelle limping away in vain from the hungry lion about to finish it off. I had to yank the words from his mouth one word at a time as he slowly admitted "there's no evidence" and "we didn't see it" and "we can't test it" and "we can't observe it" and "it's pure theory" and "it's not a proven scientific fact, it's not science." By this time he was dying inside. His whole world of make believe was just exposed for what it was... imagination. I went in for the kill blow with one last question.

I asked him "so you admit that you really don't believe in anything since you just admitted that everything you believe is pure theory based on zero established facts whereas I have plenty of facts establishing my belief?"

I can't even begin to describe the look on his face. He looked like he wanted to run away, a look of pure desperation & confusion. Priceless. His answer was to not answer, because like the mormons, it's easier to run away than to admit you believe lies. Only he had nowhere to run. He was stuck in a cell with me. He chose a silent defeat to minimize the damage done to his pride. Ask the right questions and the lies expose themselves. Lies will cave in on their own weight, and self destruct. Don't take the trash out by debating with a fool. Let the trash take its self out by making the fool debate with himself. It's more entertaining and requires no effort. Remember to think for yourself, or better yet, let God think for you, but never let men think for you. Be man #1. Don't be man #2 or #3. "The Holy Ghost whom the Father will send in My name... He shall teach you all things" - John 14:26. Later that day after my all night debate with a fool, my neighbor told me "you totally won that debate. I was up all night listening to it, Everyone heard it. You guys were practically yelling all night." I went back to my cell and starting laughing. This wasn't the last time an all night rant about God was heard by 100 ~~inmates~~ inmates. No one ever told me everyone could hear me, because everyone was listening. →

There were 3 or 4 times people would hear my all night conversations with my cell mate, and I ~~mean~~ mean everyone would hear. I talk loud. It wouldn't be until days later that someone would comment on it and I would be embarrassed. The fact that no one I called me out on it meant that people enjoyed the conversations. Anyways, please pay Rudy & Ern a visit at YouTube channel Lone Star 1776 ~~for~~ and thank them for taking the time to read my letters for you guys. This wouldn't be possible without them. Please keep them in your prayers.

Sincerely,

Fisher Of Men
