dear brother Will,

Greetings! The Lord bless and keep. I pray as the new season unfolds The Lord is your strength and your guide, that the water flows for another beautiful crop season. In Him it is all in good hands. Jesus is always with us, every step.

This is me on my Grandpa's new car.

Believe it or not there are many written conversations as so many of us in Christ are blessed for doing so. This, of necessity, causes delays, as we might see it, but in the Lord's sight it is all for the good of those who love the Lord. (Romans 8:28) — Amen. ☺

As the snows melt the grass greens, the Blue Belts adorn the area and no doubt more snow and green will follow. With your special work the water will flow for more green and bounty. Praise God from Whom all blessings flow."

In the background you see above my father's 1941 Chevrolet. Due to WWII shortages, that had cost him more than the 1951 he and my mother got later. One had to be on a list with a dealer to get a car when one came in. Quite a different time. Two years later I would begin school in a one-room school. Mrs. Merfield would read from the Bible and pray with us — then we would learn reading, writing and arithmetic. ☺

2 This bright, beautiful bird is no doubt like those near your home. I've enjoyed many of them on the table in years past. Typically I would have 50 or more each year. They give the chickens a break. Where I spent my early years in NE Iowa they were plentiful. I hope the Roundup and such does not destroy them. The last time I went out to harvest for our table with my sons, my father and my nephews, I harvested 9 in less than two hours. Many memories. (I don't hunt; I forage for food.)

Is it true? We're at a time when you will have calves, lambs and kids? Do you have setting hens which means chicks? How about your Guinea Hens will they soon have a new flock?

I pray you and your grandparents are renewed and refreshed with first light of spring; a special time of year. We turn all over to Jesus and He then takes care for us. His yoke is light.

Here I'm seeing a couple of hearts moved to Christ. That is a good work vested in The Word (Jn 1:1, 14). Hallelu Yah!

I very much want to connect with Jerry Rose. But I'm having trouble getting this system to take the snail mail address. Without that, it will not allow me to enter his e-mail address. We will get there one way or another. It is my intent to post by e-mail should we need some help.

I'll keep you posted.

Word received here shows many things are convulsing in "the world system". The whole house of cards is coming under the Lord's judgment. We have been watching Kent Horvath's series on DVD done quite some time ago, before they falsely imprisoned him for about 8
years and David Barton's American Heritage series on DVD (2002) and how far from God our 21st century people have drifted. Many are calling on the name of the Lord and the wicked are stumbling. We are in a time not often, if ever had been before in His story. ☺

As I write, I'm touching on Abraham and Sarah, Gen. 18, and how God promise them a son. With God, the impossible is possible.
What better example could we have? Eventually from His miracle would spring forth our Lord Jesus Christ. The Lord's way from the foundation of the world. Proverbs 3:5, 6. ...

Sodom and Gomorrah had to go — what will
the Lord do with these generations, of so many reprobates? His will the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. So, via The Word (Jn 1:1, 14) we do know.
A ch. of Proverbs every day keeps the devil check
via Jesus, the Christ, Amen! ☺

I know this is a busy time for you, so I will not be so wordy as to consume these precious hours. Know, bro, you are always in my heart ^{and my} prayers. In the hands of Him who first loved Us, all is sure, all shall be well. ^{am}

There are efforts for righteous liberation for myself and certain others. The God knows what day and time all things will be fulfilled, blessed be The God. Thankfully, He will guide us and direct us, Hallelu^{yah}!

We are admonished by The Word, "Let not your heart be troubled." How? Keep our eyes, our heart, our spirit focused on The God Jesus, the Christ. ^{am}

"The more corrupt the state,
the more numerous ^{are} its laws."
- Tacitus, c. 110

Let us pray without ceasing - It ^{is} will be done. We shall see things no man has seen before. Jesus is "the Light" unto the world, His Kingdom come.

Bless you this day and every day now and unto all eternity. Anviled to serve with you.

In the love of Christ,
yours,
