GROUND ONE: IMPROPER CHARGE AS CONTINUING OFFENSE

(a) Supporting facts (Do not argue or cite law. Just state the specific facts that support your claim.):

The state erroneously charged me with Grand Theft of A House and stated the theft occurred between January 1, 2015 through September 2016 and gave no specific date the house was stolen and the house was never moved from its foundation nor was it taken by me to constitute theft of any kind. When the State Attorneys found out what I was going to ask him on the witness stand and expose what he had done criminally, they refused to call him to the witness stand so that I could cross examine him. I orally moved for Judgment of Acquittal because none of the other witnesses accused me of a crime the owner of the house and the bank both testified they never made a complaint against me and that the case was a foreclosure and not criminal.

13. Please answer these additional questions about the petition you are filing:

- (a) Have all grounds for relief that you have raised in this petition been presented to the highest state court having jurisdiction? Yes No

If your answer is "No," state which grounds have not been so presented and give your reason(s) for not presenting them:

The Florida Supreme Court stated they had no jurisdiction over a case that the appeals court didn't issue an opinion.

- (b) Is there any ground in this petition that has not been presented in some state or federal court? If so, which ground or grounds have not been presented, and state your reasons for not presenting them:

14. Have you previously filed any type of petition, application, or motion in a federal court regarding the conviction that you challenge in this petition? Yes No

If "Yes," state the name and location of the court, the docket or case number, the type of proceeding, the issues raised, the date of the court's decision, and the result for each petition, application, or motion filed. Attach a copy of any court opinion or order, if available.

15. Do you have any petition or appeal now pending (filed and not decided yet) in any court, either state or federal, for the judgment you are challenging? Yes No

If "Yes," state the name and location of the court, the docket or case number, the type of proceeding, and the issues raised.

16. Give the name and address, if you know, of each attorney who represented you in the following stages of the judgment you are challenging:

(a) At preliminary hearing: Pro se

(b) At arraignment and plea: Pro se

(c) At trial: Pro se

(d) At sentencing: Pro se

(e) On appeal: Jeffrey Anderson

(f) In any post-conviction proceeding: Pro se

(g) On appeal from any ruling against you in a post-conviction proceeding: Pro se

U.S. District Court, State of Hawaii

(b) Give the date the other sentence was imposed: October 26, 2020

(c) Give the length of the other sentence: 20 years to run consecutive to 15 years

(d) Have you filed, or do you plan to file, any petition that challenges the judgment or sentence to be served in the future? Yes No

18. TIMELINESS OF PETITION: If your judgment of conviction became final over one year ago, you must explain why the one-year statute of limitations as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) does not bar your petition.*

GROUND FIVE: ORIGINAL INITIAL BRIEF FILED PRO SE WAS FILED
INCORRECTLY BY CLERK AND DISREGARDED BY FOURTH DISTRICT COURT OF APPEAL

I timely filed my Initial Brief and it was incorrectly filed by the clerk as a regular document and delayed the appeal over a year and never answered by the State. I was then assigned an appeal attorney who refiled a brief without the pertinent grounds I had in my original Initial Brief which I advised to be placed in the appeal. The Initial Brief I filed was never answered by the State and therefore, the conviction should have been vacated because the State failed to file an answer in the allotted time mandated by the appellate rules.

* The Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996 ("AEDPA") as contained in 28 U.S.C. § 2244(d) provides in part that:

- (1) A one-year period of limitation shall apply to an application for a writ of habeas corpus by a person in custody pursuant to the judgment of a State court. The limitation period shall run from the latest of -
 - (A) the date on which the judgment became final by the conclusion of direct review or the expiration of the time for seeking such review;
 - (B) the date on which the impediment to filing an application created by State action in violation of the Constitution or laws of the United States is removed, if the applicant was prevented from filing by such state action;
 - (C) the date on which the constitutional right asserted was initially recognized by the Supreme Court, if the right has been newly recognized by the Supreme Court and made retroactively applicable to cases on collateral review; or
 - (D) the date on which the factual predicate of the claim or claims presented could have been discovered through the exercise of due diligence.

- (2) The time during which a properly filed application for State post-conviction or other collateral review with respect to the pertinent judgment or claim is pending shall not be counted toward any period of limitation under this subsection.

Therefore, petitioner asks that the Court grant the following relief: vacate and set aside conviction, Expunge Felony Charges from petitioner's record and release petitioner from Custody of the Florida Dept. of Corrections immediately.
 or any other relief to which petitioner may be entitled.

 Signature of Attorney (if any)

I declare (or certify, verify, or state) under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct and that this Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus was placed in the prison mailing system on 5-20-21 (month, date, year).

Executed (signed) on 5-20-21 (date).

EXHIBIT "1"

4. Even though Hatchett did not own the home, as all others who are in foreclosure, he still had a constitutional right to a trial by jury, before he could be evicted and this is what the undersigned was fighting for to get Hatchett time to have a trial by jury, before he could be evicted.
5. None of the documents filed constituted grand theft of a house, nor did the documents delay the bank from being issued the Certificate of Title because the Certificate of Title was already issued BEFORE the undersigned got involved and filed the documents to fight the foreclosure.
6. Even though the documents were filed by Hatchett and Hickenbottom, BOA evicted Hatchett and obtained physical possession of the property in October 2016, while the undersigned was incarcerated for a traffic ticket and there was no justifiable reason to file bogus grand theft charges THREE (3) MONTHS AFTER Bank of America already had physical possession of the house.
7. At no time was the property ever grand theft, neither was the title at any time transferred from BOA to Hatchett or MEI.
8. At no time after BOA obtained physical possession of the property did they file a civil or criminal complaint against Hatchett nor the undersigned.
9. At trial, the BOA's representative and the attorney, both stated that there never was a complaint filed by BOA against Hatchett nor the undersigned for grand theft or unlawful filing of documents. (See Trial Transcripts)
10. On December 29, 2016, THREE MONTHS AFTER Hatchett was evicted from the property, he and the undersigned were charged and arrested for grand theft of the house by Detective John Calabro (hereinafter "Calabro") with no complaint filed by BOA.
11. Calabro had a personal vendetta against the undersigned and had these false charges filed against the undersigned before the undersigned was due to be released in two (2) weeks from the previous incarceration of unlicensed practice of law.
12. None of the other clients whom the undersigned filed the same documents in Broward County to fight their foreclosure were charged with grand theft or unlawful filing of documents like Hatchett and the undersigned were.
13. If the undersigned had truly committed grand theft of BOA's property, then the undersigned would have been charged for grand theft of all the other properties owned by numerous other banks that the undersigned was fighting for, on behalf of other clients from foreclosure.

II. THE UNDERSIGNED WAS DENIED HIS SIXTH AMENDMENT RIGHT TO FACE HIS ACCUSER

14. No one from BOA filed a complaint against Hatchett nor the undersigned before the charges were filed nor did they accuse the undersigned nor Hatchett for grand theft or unlawful filing of documents at trial.

15. Calabro on his own, without a complaint from BOA or Your Angel, filed these false charges of grand theft and unlawful filing of documents.

16. Calabro was the ONLY PERSON who had accused the undersigned and Hatchett of grand theft and unlawful filing of documents.

17. Calabro was listed as a witness by the prosecutors that would be called to testify against the undersigned, to prove that the undersigned had committed these crimes.

18. The prosecutors rested their case without calling Calabro to the witness stand to testify against the undersigned.

19. The prosecutors were unlawfully given the questions that the undersigned intended to ask Calabro on the witness stand, by then, standby counsel Kristie Cohen, prompted the prosecutors to refuse to call Calabro to testify at trial.

20. The reason the prosecutors did not want Calabro to testify on the witness stand was because they knew the undersigned would have proven that Calabro had a personal vendetta against the undersigned by presenting to the jury approximately 15 to 20 felony charges that Calabro had previously charged the undersigned with that the undersigned got dropped or dismissed.

21. By failing to call Calabro to the witness stand, the prosecutors deprived the undersigned of his constitutional right to face his accuser.

22. Calabro was the ONLY PERSON that filed the complaint against the undersigned and therefore, the undersigned had the right to face Calabro at trial and was deprived of that right by the prosecution of not calling him to the witness stand and the court allowing the prosecutors to not call Calabro who filed the complaint against the undersigned.

III. THE SENTENCE OF 15 YEARS IN PRISON FOLLOWED BY 15 YEARS PROBATION WAS EXCESSIVE AND ILLEGAL

23. The prosecution by the use of intimidation, coerced the undersigned's co-defendant Hatchett, who was the tenant and possessor of the property from 2008 to 2016, agree to testify that he did not know about any of the documents that the undersigned drafted which he and Hickenbottom filed.

24. Hatchett was promised by his attorney and the prosecution that if he testified that he knew nothing of the documents filed and that he did not authorize them, that he would get little to no time or even with no probation.

25. Approximately 2 weeks before trial, the undersigned was notified that his co-defendant Hatchett, was now a witness for the state, even though he had been charged with the same charges that the undersigned was charged with, plus NINE (9) other felony charges.

26. After the unlawful conviction at trial, the undersigned's co-defendant Hatchett got probation and went home unscathed and a free man, even though he had a prior criminal records and he was the reason the prosecution targeted because they knew they could coerce him because of his record.

27. The undersigned did not have a criminal record, with the exception of the recent unlawful conviction for unlicensed practice of law, which is not a criminal charge on the Florida Criminal Punishment Code, but a civil charge.

28. The conviction, in essence, was the first felony conviction that the undersigned had been convicted of, in the State of Florida.

29. The sentence given to the undersigned was practically a life sentence of thirty (30) years for a crime that never transpired and that was never committed.

30. Murders, rapist and armed robbers have received shorter sentences than the sentence that was given to the undersigned. (Example: A child molester that was convicted in Florida got a five year probation sentence and a female cop who murdered an African American man in his home in another state, got only a 10 year prison sentence.)

31. There was no victim in this case as evidence by BOA never filing a complaint and BOA having possession of the property, THREE (3) MONTHS BEFORE the undersigned was charged by Calabro.

32. The undersigned's sentence was retaliatory against the undersigned for exposing the corruption of many judges in Florida, who were and still are facilitating the unlawful and illegal foreclosures in the State of Florida.

33. As of the date of this motion, the undersigned has spent three (3) years in prison for a crime of grand theft and unlawful filing of documents that never occurred.

34. The undersigned is now facing federal charges in Hawaii for the same business conduct of fighting illegal foreclosures and if convicted could be sentenced to an additional twenty (20) years in federal prison.

35. The Federal sentence would not be run concurrent to the present state charges but would be ran consecutive.

36. This would constitute 35 years in prison for simply fighting foreclosures on behalf of clients who were never defrauded, harmed or made a complaint against the undersigned.

37. In any of the state or federal charges, there were no complaints by any clients, consumers or businesses but all complaints were filed by law enforcement officers, who had a personal vendetta against the undersigned for his activism against corruption in the law enforcement agencies and the judicial system.

38. The undersigned's co-defendant Hatchett, who had a total of eleven (11) felony charges in contrast to the two (2) felony charges the undersigned was charged with, was given probation and has not done any time in prison for his convictions.

39. The undersigned has been subjected to a thirty (30) year prison sentence only because members of the judicial system and law enforcement agencies feelings have been hurt and some have been exposed and embarrassed on some of the you tube videos posted by the undersigned and therefore the excessive sentence was malicious and retaliatory.

40. The thirty (30) year sentences (15 years prison, and 15 years probation) is excessive, illegal, unwarranted and retaliatory and should be vacated.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing facts, the thirty (30) year sentence should be vacated and the conviction overturned or in the alternative the three (3) years that the undersigned has done, should be time served in light of the fact that no crime of grand theft or unlawful filings of documents were ever committed by the undersigned. The fact that the undersigned's co-defendant did not spend one day in prison, as a result of his conviction, is a factual evidence that the undersigned has not committed any crime.
