CASE NO. 17000074CF10A

vs.

ANTHONY WILLIAMS

MOTION FOR POST-CONVICTION RELIEF

COMES NOW, the defendant by the undersigned common law counsel, who is a servant of the Most High Yahweh Elohim Yahshua and files this Motion For Post-Conviction Relief pursuant to Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure Rule 3.850. In support of this motion the undersigned states the following facts:

I. THERE WAS NO GRAND THEFT OR UNLAWFUL FILING OF DOCUMENTS COMMITTED

1. The instant case was a foreclosure case that the undersigned was hired by William Hatchett (hereinafter "Hatchett") to fight the foreclosure and prevent him and his family from being evicted.
2. The documents filed on Hatchett's behalf were the same documents that the undersigned had filed for Ms. Donna Hickenbottom and many other clients in Broward county and none of those clients were charged with Grand Theft and Unlawful Filing of documents like the undersigned and Hatchett was.
3. Bank of America (hereinafter "BOA") who had an interest in the property never filed a complaint against the undersigned nor Hatchett because the documents filed were only filed to stop the foreclosure to afford the homeowner the requisite trial by jury, as mandated by the Seventh Amendment before they can be evicted from their home.

4. Even though Hatchett did not own the home, as all others who are in foreclosure, he still had a constitutional right to a trial by jury, before he could be evicted and this is what the undersigned was fighting for to get Hatchett time to have a trial by jury, before he could be evicted.

5. None of the documents filed constituted grand theft of a house, nor did the documents delay the bank from being issued the Certificate of Title because the Certificate of Title was already issued BEFORE the undersigned got involved and filed the documents to fight the foreclosure.

6. Even though the documents were filed by Hatchett and Hickenbottom, BOA evicted Hatchett and obtained physical possession of the property in October 2016, while the undersigned was incarcerated for a traffic ticket and there was no justifiable reason to file bogus grand theft charges THREE (3) MONTHS AFTER Bank of America already had physical possession of the house.

7. At no time was the property ever grand theft, neither was the title at any time transferred from BOA to Hatchett or MEI.

8. At no time after BOA obtained physical possession of the property did they file a civil or criminal complaint against Hatchett nor the undersigned.

9. At trial, the BOA's representative and the attorney, both stated that there never was a complaint filed by BOA against Hatchett nor the undersigned for grand theft or unlawful filing of documents. (See Trial Transcripts)

10. On December 29, 2016, THREE MONTHS AFTER Hatchett was evicted from the property, he and the undersigned were charged and arrested for grand theft of the house by Detective John Calabro (hereinafter "Calabro") with no complaint filed by BOA.

11. Calabro had a personal vendetta against the undersigned and had these false charges filed against the undersigned before the undersigned was due to be released in two (2) weeks from the previous incarceration of unlicensed practice of law.

12. None of the other clients whom the undersigned filed the same documents in Broward County to fight their foreclosure were charged with grand theft or unlawful filing of documents like Hatchett and the undersigned were.

13. If the undersigned had truly committed grand theft of BOA's property, then the undersigned would have been charged for grand theft of all the other properties owned by numerous other banks that the undersigned was fighting for, on behalf of other clients from foreclosure.

II. THE UNDERSIGNED WAS DENIED HIS SIXTH AMENDMENT RIGHT TO FACE HIS ACCUSER

14. No one from BOA filed a complaint against Hatchett nor the undersigned before the charges were filed nor did they accuse the undersigned nor Hatchett for grand theft or unlawful filing of documents at trial.

15. Calabro on his own, without a complaint from BOA or Your Angel, filed these false charges of grand theft and unlawful filing of documents.

16. Calabro was the ONLY PERSON who had accused the undersigned and Hatchett of grand theft and unlawful filing of documents.

17. Calabro was listed as a witness by the prosecutors that would be called to testify against the undersigned, to prove that the undersigned had committed these crimes.

18. The prosecutors rested their case without calling Calabro to the witness stand to testify against the undersigned.

19. The prosecutors were unlawfully given the questions that the undersigned intended to ask Calabro on the witness stand, by then, standby counsel Kristie Cohen, prompted the prosecutors to refuse to call Calabro to testify at trial.

20. The reason the prosecutors did not want Calabro to testify on the witness stand was because they knew the undersigned would have proven that Calabro had a personal vendetta against the undersigned by presenting to the jury approximately 15 to 20 felony charges that Calabro had previously charged the undersigned with that the undersigned got dropped or dismissed.

21. By failing to call Calabro to the witness stand, the prosecutors deprived the undersigned of his constitutional right to face his accuser.

22. Calabro was the ONLY PERSON that filed the complaint against the undersigned and therefore, the undersigned had the right to face Calabro at trial and was deprived of that right by the prosecution of not calling him to the witness stand and the court allowing the prosecutors to not call Calabro who filed the complaint against the undersigned.

III. THE SENTENCE OF 15 YEARS IN PRISON FOLLOWED BY 15 YEARS PROBATION WAS EXCESSIVE AND ILLEGAL

23. The prosecution by the use of intimidation, coerced the undersigned's co-defendant Hatchett, who was the tenant and possessor of the property from 2008 to 2016, agree to testify that he did not know about any of the documents that the undersigned drafted which he and Hickenbottom filed.

24. Hatchett was promised by his attorney and the prosecution that if he testified that he knew nothing of the documents filed and that he did not authorize them, that he would get little to no time or even with no probation.
25. Approximately 2 weeks before trial, the undersigned was notified that his co-defendant Hatchett, was now a witness for the state, even though he had been charged with the same charges that the undersigned was charged with, plus NINE (9) other felony charges.
26. After the unlawful conviction at trial, the undersigned's co-defendant Hatchett got probation and went home unscathed and a free man, even though he had a prior criminal records and he was the reason the prosecution targeted because they knew they could coerce him because of his record.
27. The undersigned did not have a criminal record, with the exception of the recent unlawful conviction for unlicensed practice of law, which is not a criminal charge on the Florida Criminal Punishment Code, but a civil charge.
28. The conviction, in essence, was the first felony conviction that the undersigned had been convicted of, in the State of Florida.
29. The sentence given to the undersigned was practically a life sentence of thirty (30) years for a crime that never transpired and that was never committed.
30. Murders, rapist and armed robbers have received shorter sentences than the sentence that was given to the undersigned. (Example: A child molester that was convicted in Florida got a five year probation sentence and a female cop who murdered an African American man in his home in another state, got only a 10 year prison sentence.)
31. There was no victim in this case as evidence by BOA never filing a complaint and BOA having possession of the property, THREE (3) MONTHS BEFORE the undersigned was charged by Calabro.
32. The undersigned's sentence was retaliatory against the undersigned for exposing the corruption of many judges in Florida, who were and still are facilitating the unlawful and illegal foreclosures in the State of Florida.
33. As of the date of this motion, the undersigned has spent three (3) years in prison for a crime of grand theft and unlawful filing of documents that never occurred.
34. The undersigned is now facing federal charges in Hawaii for the same business conduct of fighting illegal foreclosures and if convicted could be sentenced to an additional twenty (20) years in federal prison.

35. The Federal sentence would not be run concurrent to the present state charges but would be ran consecutive.

36. This would constitute 35 years in prison for simply fighting foreclosures on behalf of clients who were never defrauded, harmed or made a complaint against the undersigned.

37. In any of the state or federal charges, there were no complaints by any clients, consumers or businesses but all complaints were filed by law enforcement officers, who had a personal vendetta against the undersigned for his activism against corruption in the law enforcement agencies and the judicial system.

38. The undersigned's co-defendant Hatchett, who had a total of eleven (11) felony charges in contrast to the two (2) felony charges the undersigned was charged with, was given probation and has not done any time in prison for his convictions.

39. The undersigned has been subjected to a thirty (30) year prison sentence only because members of the judicial system and law enforcement agencies feelings have been hurt and some have been exposed and embarrassed on some of the you tube videos posted by the undersigned and therefore the excessive sentence was malicious and retaliatory.

40. The thirty (30) year sentences (15 years prison, and 15 years probation) is excessive, illegal, unwarranted and retaliatory and should be vacated.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing facts, the thirty (30) year sentence should be vacated and the conviction overturned or in the alternative the three (3) years that the undersigned has done, should be time served in light of the fact that no crime of grand theft or unlawful filings of documents were ever committed by the undersigned. The fact that the undersigned's co-defendant did not spend one day in prison, as a result of his conviction, is a factual evidence that the undersigned has not committed any crime.
