Subject: CALL TONIGHT

Hi Rudy & Erin,

Thank you so much for the call yesterday and today...

I wanted to send you the issues that I was covering in case they didn't come through on the phone calls.

As Part of the stalking statute ,one of the elements that the government had to prove was "REASONABLE FEAR."

Fear is contagious, just like joy is contagious. For example...If you are in a room and someone is joyous and happy, subconsciously, you feel that joy and happiness wash over you. It is the same concept with fear. It's human nature. Especially when you have someone diagnosed with panic attacks, their anxiety and fear turns on your feelings of anxiety and fear. It flows from them into you.

My husband, Juan, was diagnosed with panic attacks because of this tragedy and I don't even have to be in the same room with him. I feel it in his phone calls and emails and it stirs the anxiety and feelings of fear and doom in me.

Christine was diagnosed with panic attacks since childhood, as we've learned during our trial.

People that didn't even know us , who have never even met us expressed fear of us during the trial. WHY? Kimberly Lawson, the Guardian Ad Lidem for the girls, was supposed to come to Texas to depose us for the Termination of Parental Rights (2011), said she was scared to come speak with us alone. WHY? She had only talked to us over the phone for interviews at this point..WHO AND WHAT MADE HER FEARFUL?

Laura went from a child that LOVED her father and wanted answers why he would take them to another country and all of a sudden turned into someone that supposedly FEARED him? Christine's letter in November 2011 to Dave even after the Termination of Parental Rights in August 2011 said, "know that when the children speak of you, they express love for you."

IS IT ACCORDING TO THE AUDIENCE THAT IS LISTENING WHETHER YOU ARE FEARFUL OF SOMEONE OR NOT?

For example...In the Protection From Abuse in 2006, Christine basically said that she was afraid David would harm her, then in the recorded, transcribed telephone call she says that she was NEVER afraid of him. I'm sending that call along with the custody order from 2007 where Christine admits, "well I wasn't really afraid of him."

EITHER YOU ARE OR YOU AREN'T..

If Christine would have been charged with kidnapping in 2006 when she ran with the kids, this would have turned out completely different, but David, only wanting to reconcile his marriage and find out what was going on with his wife's mental health, did not go to DYFS when there were suspicions of abuse and neglect, such as throwing food on the floor for Leigh to eat and Leigh's broken collar bone with Christine telling 2 different stories. He wanted to work with her to make her a better mother because she did not have that role model as a guide. (Nothing against her mom). If David wasn't trying to save his marriage, his wife, and protect his kids, Christine would have been the one in prison and not us.

I am also going to send part of Christine's recorded therapy session that the government used against us...The government or the defense didn't include this part that shows CHRISTINE FOLLOWING DAVID ONLINE...

Here is part of it:

Rudy Davis

Christine: And I crept on his Face book page, right, because I wanted to see., He like--it was so bizarre because I did it that day because I try to keep an eye to see if I can see what he's doing.

Therapist: Is that your way of keeping an eye out on him or being a little hypervigilant, you think about what he's doing?

Christine: I think it's sick and okay at the same time. I think it's a bad thing and I think it's a good thing because it reminds me of, like, there are times where I go back and look at all the headlines again. And I go back and, you know, I have to revisit it and I have to revisit it and I have to --- and I go through those cycles. So I don't know,. Part of me tries to justify it to myself that I'm doing it to try to just stay proactive and kind of keep an eye on him. But I know it's not good and I should probably stay away from it because how much information could I get from Face book? I'm not a friend, so there's only so much that's public.

And I think it's not worth it. I think I need to knock it off, honestly. And I can't now because I don't even have an account. Now, I could open it up-I already know. I can turn it back on, go check, turn it back off, or Katie could STALK him through--and Katie's already blocked him on hers.

Because I don't want her to have to--her blogs are different. I mean, you know, it's all about her baby, and she's in high school.

And you know, so I think for my health I need to stay away from it. I can't-- I can't --I can't do it. Because what the hell's it going to do? I mean he's not going to say I'm on my way out to go kidnap the kids. I'll see you later. He's not going to put anything on there like that.

Therapist: I mean, just one of the things when you came in here a while ago, the first thing you said is when you saw the other therapist that you were diagnosed with PTSD, post traumatic stress disorder, which I, from, seeing you all this time, I tend to agree that that is the diagnose you have. And one of the things in the DSM, which is one--

Christine: I know what it is.

Therapist: Right. So one of the things inside the DSM that helps to---therapists to categorize patients, you know, or clients with PTSD is the hypervigilance part, which is what you're doing. So don't beat yourself up that you're doing it..It's just kind of one of those things that go along with it.

THE POINT THAT I WANTED TO MAKE IS THAT FOR CHRISTINE: THE THERAPIST CALLS IT BEING HYPERVIGILANT DUE TO THE DIAGNOSIS OF PTSD, BUT FOR US, THE GOVERNMENT CALLS IT STALKING...REALLY?

ALSO ANOTHER POINT THAT I WANTED TO BRING UP IS THIS IS WHAT CHRISTINE'S PURPORTED FEAR HAS BEEN ALL ABOUT...NOT THE PRESENT, BUT THE PAST...FEAR OF THE KIDNAPPING AND IT HAPPENING AGAIN..

I just wanted to share that with you guys in case it didn't come through.

I also have a Devotional Reading that I want to share, but I will have to come back and type that due to the long line that is growling at me..LOL

GOD BLESS YOU BOTH & THANK YOU SO VERY MUCH FOR YOUR LOVE, SUPPORT AND HELP
PEACE AND BLESSINGS
