Summer 2023

Alpha Phi Sigma extends our gratitude to all our conference speakers and presenters. Unfortunately our Keynote speaker, U.S. Department of Justice Senior Counsel in the Civil Rights Division, Rob Weiner, could not join us in person. However with some preparation, he presented virtually. Members were very thankful for his commitment and informative presentation.

Sheriff Everette Sesker from the Anne Arundel County Office of the Sheriff welcomed APS to Maryland and later presided over the panel showcasing two of his deputies, Golden Alumni and past National President, Sgt. Saadia Feliciano and Lt. Adrian Mewshaw. The panel was informative and thought provoking. The insight shared by them about their trials and tribulations pertaining to police work was eye opening.

The president of ACJS Dr. Denise Boots also said a few words during our opening ceremony. Honorary Member, Cathy Barth, sang the National Anthem and the Alpha Phi Sigma member Honor Guard presented the colors.

Guest Speaker, Dr. Jason Williams, professor at Montclair State University, spoke about Understanding Police Reform Through Lived Experiences.

We also heard how Police Reform works through Accountability, Supervision, and Technology from an expert in the field, Attorney Rodney E. Hill. His dynamic tone and at times controversial questions encouraged members to view policing from a different perspective while understanding Police Reform from the internal investigations viewpoint.

The conference went by too quickly! Now we start preparing for the 2024 conference in Chicago, Illinois, where conference speakers will cover our 2023-24 Theme of the Year, Wrongful Conviction.

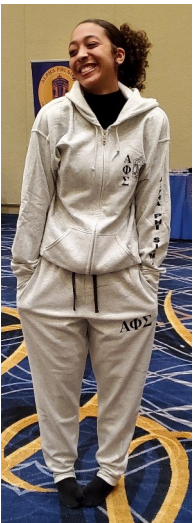

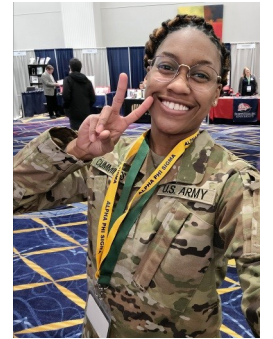

We extend our heartfelt thanks to all our speakers and presenters!!

KE KENNETH E. JERNIGAN & ASSOCIATES

Honoring 40 years of commitment to Alpha Phi Sigma.

Forty years ago, Dr. Regina Shearn, Alpha Phi Sigma's Executive Director met Ken Jernigan on a flight to attend the Association of College Honor Societies (ACHS) conference. They struck up a conversation and found they were both headed to the ACHS conference. Ken is a vendor that supplies honor regalia, pins, and other honor society merchandise to many honor societies. At the time, Dr. Shearn, starting as the Alpha Phi Sigma Executive Director, was looking for a reputable company to handle the needs of Alpha Phi Sigma. Ken Jernigan a great salesman was ready to bend over backwards to obtain new business from another Honor Society. All was great until Dr. Shearn said that in order to do business with APS, Ken must warehouse all the items purchased until needed because at that time APS had no means of storing so much. Ken was shocked but quickly learned that Dr. Shearn does not take NO for an answer. And this was the beginning of a wonderful and mutually respectful business relationship that grew into an honest and healthy friendship.

Today, Ken Jernigan, continues to supply APS with stoles, cords, medallions, membership and tapping pins, anniversary coins, challenge coins, podium banners and much more. Ken even created an APS jewelry line. He attends many of the APS conferences and Dr. Shearn and Adriana Jansen see him annually at the ACHS conferences. Ken's company is located in Pensacola Florida where he lives with his wife Carole.

Thank you Ken for being such a special friend and part of the Alpha Phi Sigma family.

The Alpha Phi Sigma Honor Guard Members

This year at the Conference in National Harbor, MD, Alpha Phi Sigma members and guest speakers were treated to, what we hope continues, an all Alpha Phi Sigma member Honor Guard. Our Executive Student Treasurer, Sierra Sankey (Missouri State University) wanted to have an all Alpha Phi Sigma members Honor Guard. Sierra communicated with Sgt. William McLaughlin, an Army veteran who presently works for the National Gallery of Art in the Protective Staff department, and arranged for him to join her presenting the colors at the 2023 Alpha Phi Sigma opening ceremony. The word spread and Bill Nay, an APS Golden Alumnus, Marine Corps Veteran, and Honor Guard member, was quick to sign up and invite North Carolina Central University chapter member and active National Guard, Brenda Cummings.

The four presented the colors at the opening ceremony and made all of us proud as service men and women and as Alpha Phi Sigma members.

Bill Nay was impressed and thankful for their service both to our country and APS and presented each member with a $250 scholarship. Thank you all for making this such a memorable opening!!

The opening Ceremony would not have been the same without a very special guest, Honorary member Cathy Barth, to sing our National Anthem. Cathy Barth, who resides in Maryland, joined us during the opening ceremony and graced us with her booming voice to sing the National Anthem. Cathy was accompanied by her husband, Randy. It was wonderful to see them.

WELCOME COUNCIL MEMBER DR. GIACOMAZZI

Please join us in congratulating Dr. Giacomazzi who was re-elected to serve the Alpha Phi Sigma Council for the term starting May 1, 2023 to April 30, 2028.

Andrew Giacomazzi, Ph.D.

Boise State University
Alpha Kappa Chapter

Dr. Andrew L. Giacomazzi is Associate Dean in the School of Public Service and Professor of Criminal Justice at Boise State University. He was also Chair of the Department of Criminal Justice after serving a six year term as the department's M.A. Coordinator. He worked extensively with the Western Regional Institute of Community Oriented Public Safety to conduct assessments of police departments and sheriff's offices in the Western United States. He also worked at the Spokane Police Department in leadership development. Andy received his bachelor's degrees in Social Ecology and German from UC Irvine, and his Master's and Ph.D. (Criminal Justice and Political Science, respectively) from Washington State University.

He is co-author of the book Community Policing in a Community Era: An Introduction and Exploration, and is co-editor of a book entitled Controversial Issues in Policing. His latest book, Justice Administration (co-authored with Ken Peak), was published in October 2022. He has more than 65 other publications including refereed journal articles, book chapters, and technical reports. He is currently on the Alpha Phi Sigma Executive Council and has been the Alpha Kappa Chapter Advisor for 24 years.

In May 2015, Andy was named Faculty Member of the Year by the Residential Housing Association at Boise State, and in 2016 & 2019 won Boise State's Golden Apple Award for excellence in teaching. Andy lived on the Boise State University campus, serving in the capacity of Faculty Member in Residence in the Leadership & Engagement Living-Learning Community from 2014 to 2019.

Greetings from your Executive Student Officers

From left: President Joshua Woolfington, Missouri State University; Vice-President Daikwon Redfearn, North Carolina Central University; Secretary Cassandra Engle, and Treasurer Sierra Sankey, Missouri State University.

Greetings APS members,

I would like to thank those that voted for me to be your 2023-2025 National Vice President. I have hopes to serve this position in the best interest of all our members hearts. The conference overall was a success! And I can't wait to meet everyone at the next conference in Chicago.

The induction of the Executive Officers was a success and I am glad to be in a position of service to all chapters. I wish all of our members a successful, safe, financially blessed, and fun-filled summer.

Sincerely, Vice President Daikwon Redfearn
North Carolina Central University

Greetings Alpha Phi Sigma,

It's hard to believe it's already been a few months since our conference in National Harbor! We hope everyone had a great time hearing from our speakers, participating in the crime scene investigation, and making new friends from chapters all over the country and beyond. We loved getting to see you all and getting to know some of you!

It's also hard to believe that another academic school year has come and gone! The Executive Student Officers are extremely proud of all of you for your accomplishments throughout the school year. We want to say a special congratulations to those of you who are graduating, and we wish you all the best in the next adventure that's in store for you!

There's another group of people we'd like to spotlight: our new inductees! On behalf of all the Executive Student Officers, Chapters, and the headquarters staff, we want to welcome you to Alpha Phi Sigma!

We hope you all have a great summer and are able to enjoy some much-needed rest and relaxation! We'll see you in Chicago for our next annual conference, but until then have a great summer!

Sincerely,
President Joshua Woolfington
Secretary Cassandra Engle
Treasurer Sierra Sankey

University of Guelph-Humber, Canada Phi Epsilon Chapter

We are excited to share some photos from our most recent induction of members at the University of Guelph-Humber. It was a fabulous evening in which we were joined by family and friends and the Vice Provost to celebrate an outstanding year. The students organized several events over the last year, which exemplified the values of APS, and provided opportunities for student learning and community engagement. We also honoured Dr. Glenn Hanna who has served as the Chapter Advisor for ten years, established APS at GH, and has inspired so many students and staff in this role.

Sigma Mu Sigma, Missouri State's chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma, won two awards at the 2023 Student Talent and Recognition (STAR) Awards Ceremony. Professor Ivy Yarckow-Brown, chapter advisor for Sigma Mu Sigma, won a STAR Award for Outstanding Organization Advisor after being nominated by members of the chapter. The organization won Outstanding Academic and Educational Program. Sigma Mu Sigma's presentation from the Springfield Police Department on their body worn camera program was nominated for the award. The presentation was held in the fall semester and was done as part of the National Criminal Justice Honor Society's theme of the year, which was police reform.

Saint Leo University

Lambda Theta Chapter

Meet Lorena Lopez, A Saint Leo University student from Canada who recently completed the online criminal justice degree program despite battling cancer.

Lorena Lopez had always wanted to go to college. One day while visiting her daughter who was a student at Saint Leo University, her daughter said, "Mama, now you have to do it". So, Lopez submitted the application and got accepted into the Saint Leo Criminal Justice program. Her daughter helped her set up a computer and showed her how to navigate the student portal. Lorena was 48 when she finally took a leap of faith to earn her college degree.

Just five months into her online criminal justice degree program in March of 2020, Lopez got the news that nobody wants to hear: a cancer diagnosis. She was diagnosed with uveal melanoma, a form of eye cancer that has mostly affected her left eye. She went blind for a few weeks before regaining her vision. She later learned she had tumors on her thyroid, spine, and in other areas. Even now, she continues to receive ongoing treatments.

While balancing school and cancer treatments, Lopez says she got her entire family involved in her online criminal justice degree coursework. Even though her daughter had already completed the program, Lopez says the two of them would still compare grades on similar assignments. Her mother, who is in her eighties, would even read her papers and provide feedback on them before she turned them in.

Lopez continued her degree, earned high grades and was inducted into the Lambda Theta chapter of Alpha Phi Sigma at Saint Leo.

Since her cancer diagnosis, she has already given back to the community. She gives time to her church and women's organizations. She also volunteers with Friends 4 Cause, a nonprofit that raises funds for children in need. She even makes homemade chocolate bars for the organization. Her goal is to get more involved in cancer support groups as well.

Congratulations Lorena!!!

All of us at Alpha Phi Sigma wish you well, a remission of the cancer, and a continued healthy and successful life.
