This week we would like to spotlight Abelino! He has been with LCS companies for over 20 years and has literally done everything!

Stormwater management, water and sewer, grading, landscaping, excavation, and so much more Abelino is your guy. Rain or shine Abelino always shows up and is always ready to work, even on some of the longest days. If you have worked with LCS long, you have probably seen his smiling face help out on at least one of your projects. His attention to detail is like no other!

We asked Abelino his favorite part of working for LCS and he said he "loves the people, the equipment, the work we do, our customers and the sense of accomplishment after completing jobs". Thank you, Abelino, for all your hard work. We look forward to another 20 years!

This week we would like to spotlight Rudy! Rudy has been with LCS for over 10 years, and as our tree expert. From climbing the tallest of trees to ripping them down with an excavator, Rudy has mastered all of it.

We asked Rudy his favorite part about LCS and he said he “loves a new challenge every day” as well as he “enjoys working with his crew and the customers”.

Rudy and the clearing crew take immense care to make sure no damage is caused to trees or buildings that are not intended to come down, we really appreciate your hard work Rudy!

This week we would like to spotlight our two awesome office dogs, Betty and Clyde.

Betty usually spends her time sleeping on the floor or basking in the sun outside. Most of the time she stays to herself, but will occasionally come say hi if you've got a snack.

Clyde on the other hand, loves to steal everyone's lunch and is the best security guard we could ask for as he likes to howl at every new person that walks in the door.

We all love our office pups very much. ❤️🐾

This week we would like to spotlight Edwin Escobar. He has worked for LCS for over 13 years and is our demolition expert.

Big or small, Edwin has demoed it all. Edwin is always very fast and precise. From selective demolition to commercial multilevel building demolition, he is always sure to leave a clean job site once finished.

We asked Edwin his favorite part of working for LCS and quite frankly, it was too much to list, but a few things he mentioned were, "The consistent work, the people I work with, and the people I work for". Thanks for all you do, Edwin. Keep it up!

Mechanics are crucial to the safe and reliable operation of our equipment. So, this week we would like to spotlight Brett Wiley, our lead field mechanic.

Brett has been with LCS a little over a year and works very hard to keep all our equipment in tiptop shape. In the field, no two situations are like. Luckily, Brett is highly trained, very skilled and always up to the task no matter how dirty he might get.

We asked Brett what he likes the most about working for LCS, he said "I enjoy the people and the environment I work in, as well as the constant challenge. I love how involved the owner and supervisors are, and how willing everyone is to help out". Keep up the great work, Brett.

This week we would like to spotlight Darin Bolt. Darin has been with LCS for over 6 years, he has a class A CDL and handles all of our heaviest moves with our 55 ton lowboy trailer.

Darin takes pride in his work and always has the cleanest truck in the fleet. We asked Darin what his favorite part of working for LCS was and he said "I love the people that I work with, and the people I meet". Darin is rarely seen without a smile and we are so glad he is a part of the team. Thanks Darin, for all that you do!

This week we would like to spotlight Edvin. He has been with LCS for two years and he is one of our excavation experts! Edvin's attention to detail is reflected in the quality of his work.

Edvin especially prevails in unsuitable soil conditions when an undercut is required, working closely with engineers and the builder to achieve a firm building pad.

Thank you Edvin, and keep up the great work!
