WHAT WILL I LEARN?

As a student you will develop your Divine intuitive side and identify your unique spiritual calling: as Healer, Messenger, Dream Weaver, Plant talker, Animal Medicine and more.

There are varying types of shamanism. Are you clairsentient, clairaudient, clairvoyant, or claircognizant? Discover your true potential and natural talent.

What is indigenous Mysticism?
Indigenous Mysticism is the pursuit of achieving communion, identity with, or conscious awareness of ultimate reality, the divinity, spiritual truth, or God through direct experience, intuition, or insights. Through an awareness and respect of Mother Earth and the world around them.

Traditions may include a belief in the literal existence of dimensional realities beyond empirical perception, or a belief that a true human perception of the world goes beyond current logical reasoning or intellectual comprehension. A person delving in these areas may be called a Mystic.
