Call to Worship

Brooke Branyan

L: Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth.

R: Worship the Lord with gladness;
come before him with joyful songs.

L: Know that the Lord is God.

R: It is he who made us, and we are his people,
we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

L: Enter his gates with thanksgiving
and his courts with praise;

R: give thanks to him and praise his name.

L: For the Lord is good and his love endures forever,
his faithfulness continues through all generations.

R: Amen

The image shows a musical score for the Christmas carol "We three kings of Orient are". The score is written on a white sheet of paper and is decorated with red berries and pinecones. The lyrics are in English and German. The score includes a chorus section and a first verse section. The music is written in a single staff with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The tempo and dynamics markings are "mf a tempo" and "cresc. ad lib". The lyrics are: "We three kings of Orient are; Bearing gifts we in-verse a-far Field and fountain, moor and mountain. Following yonder star. star of wonder, star of night, Star with royal beak-ty star of wonder, star of night, Star with royal beak-ty West-ward leading, still present-ing, Guide us to Thy poor first birth. West-ward leading, still present-ing, Guide us to Thy poor first birth." The score is decorated with red berries and pinecones.
