

J6 Prison Blues

I hear the feds a coming, they're false flagging again
And I ain't been at Thanksgivin', since I don't know when I'm stuck in J6 Prison and time keeps dragging on
I was with half a million patriots and now I'm all alone

When I was just a young man, my daddy said to me
"Always be a good boy and fight the powers that be!"
But I took just one selfie, now I'm hung out to dry
When I see Antifa walking, I hang my head and cry

Guitar Solo

I'll bet the feds are spying behind these prison bars
Probably out there bragging about their blackmail stars
I did not see it coming, one day I'll be free
But the "insurrection" narrative, that's what tortures me

If they freed me from this prison and free speech was all mine
I'd preach the Constitution to everyone I find
Far from J6 Prison, that's where I wanna stay
And with all you loyal patriots, throw false flags away

Original song by Jonny Cash

Adapted from the "Facebook Prison Blues" parody lyrics by Uncle Jam @ theunclejam.com

