Middle School students, listen up! Our school is about to host an epic competition, and we want all of you to get in on the action and show off your team skills. It's a friendly competition, so don't hold back - everyone can join in and claim bragging rights! To get things started, we will have an acrostic poem challenge. You know the drill - the first letter of each line spells out a word or phrase. We've chosen 'STONE' to represent our school but feel free to get creative and use any word or phrase you like. And hey, if you've got some serious talent in the arts, rap, music, storytelling, or singing, go ahead and work that into your poem! Once you've got your masterpiece all set, share it with the class. The winning poem and writer will be featured in the September 2023 issue of The Knights Newsletter, and the framed poem along with the writer's photo will be showcased in the lobby. So, get ready to bring your A-game, and may the best poem win!

Introduction:

Monsters

Many different creatures walk around
On a night like tonight
Not because it's Christmas
So lets all stop singing jingle bells
Tis because it is Halloween so
Everyone beware
Real monsters walk around
Saying trick or treat everywhere

An acrostic poem is a very fun poem for kids. Each acrostic poem has a topic idea running down the left side of the poem. Each letter in the topic word has a new thought that runs off the side from left to right and is relevant to the topic word. The topic word is typically the title as well. For example...If you were writing an acrostic poem with the topic word "pumpkin" the title would be pumpkin and each line of the poem would start with one of the letters in the word pumpkin.
