On Saturday, 8th July, the oath-taking ceremony was held at the Sidhi Vinayaka College of Nursing and Christ College of Nursing in Mangalore. The ceremony was graced by the esteemed presence of two distinguished individuals, Dr. Jayakrishnan A G and Dr. C Joe Varghese, who were honored as chief guests.

Dr. Jayakrishnan A G, a renowned Chief Cardiothoracic surgeon from Omega Hospital mangalore, brought with him a wealth of experience and expertise. As a respected healthcare professional, his presence added a sense of inspiration and motivation to the graduating nursing students. Dr. Jayakrishnan shared valuable insights into the evolving healthcare landscape and the importance of nursing in delivering quality patient care.

Accompanying him, Dr. C Joe Varghese, another esteemed guest, brought a unique perspective to the event. Dr. Varghese's expertise and contributions served as an encouragement for the aspiring nurses. His presence might have highlighted the vast opportunities and challenges that lie ahead for these new graduates as they embark on their nursing careers.

The ceremony was a moment of pride and accomplishment for the nursing students as they took their oath to uphold the principles and values of the nursing profession. With the guidance and inspiration from Dr. Jayakrishnan A G and Dr. C Joe Varghese, the graduates were likely instilled with a sense of responsibility to serve their patients and communities with dedication and compassion.

The presence of such distinguished personalities undoubtedly made the oath-taking ceremony at Sidhi Vinayaka College of Nursing and Christ College of Nursing even more memorable and impactful for the graduating nurses, their families, and the faculty. The event marked the beginning of a new chapter in the lives of these young nurses, and the wisdom shared by the chief guests would have served as a guiding light as they set out to make a positive difference in the field of healthcare.
