

Children Ready to Learn

Annual Report 2022-2023

Nonprofit Information

Company Name:

Children Ready to Learn

Date of Incorporation:

July 26, 2021

Vision:

Empowering today's families to prepare their children for kindergarten and beyond,

Mission:

Children Ready to Learn empowers today's families to succeed in their role as their children's first teachers by providing them with relevant resources and experiences to enhance children's learning; thereby, increasing the number of children of African descent who are ready to navigate kindergarten and beyond.

2022-2023 in Review

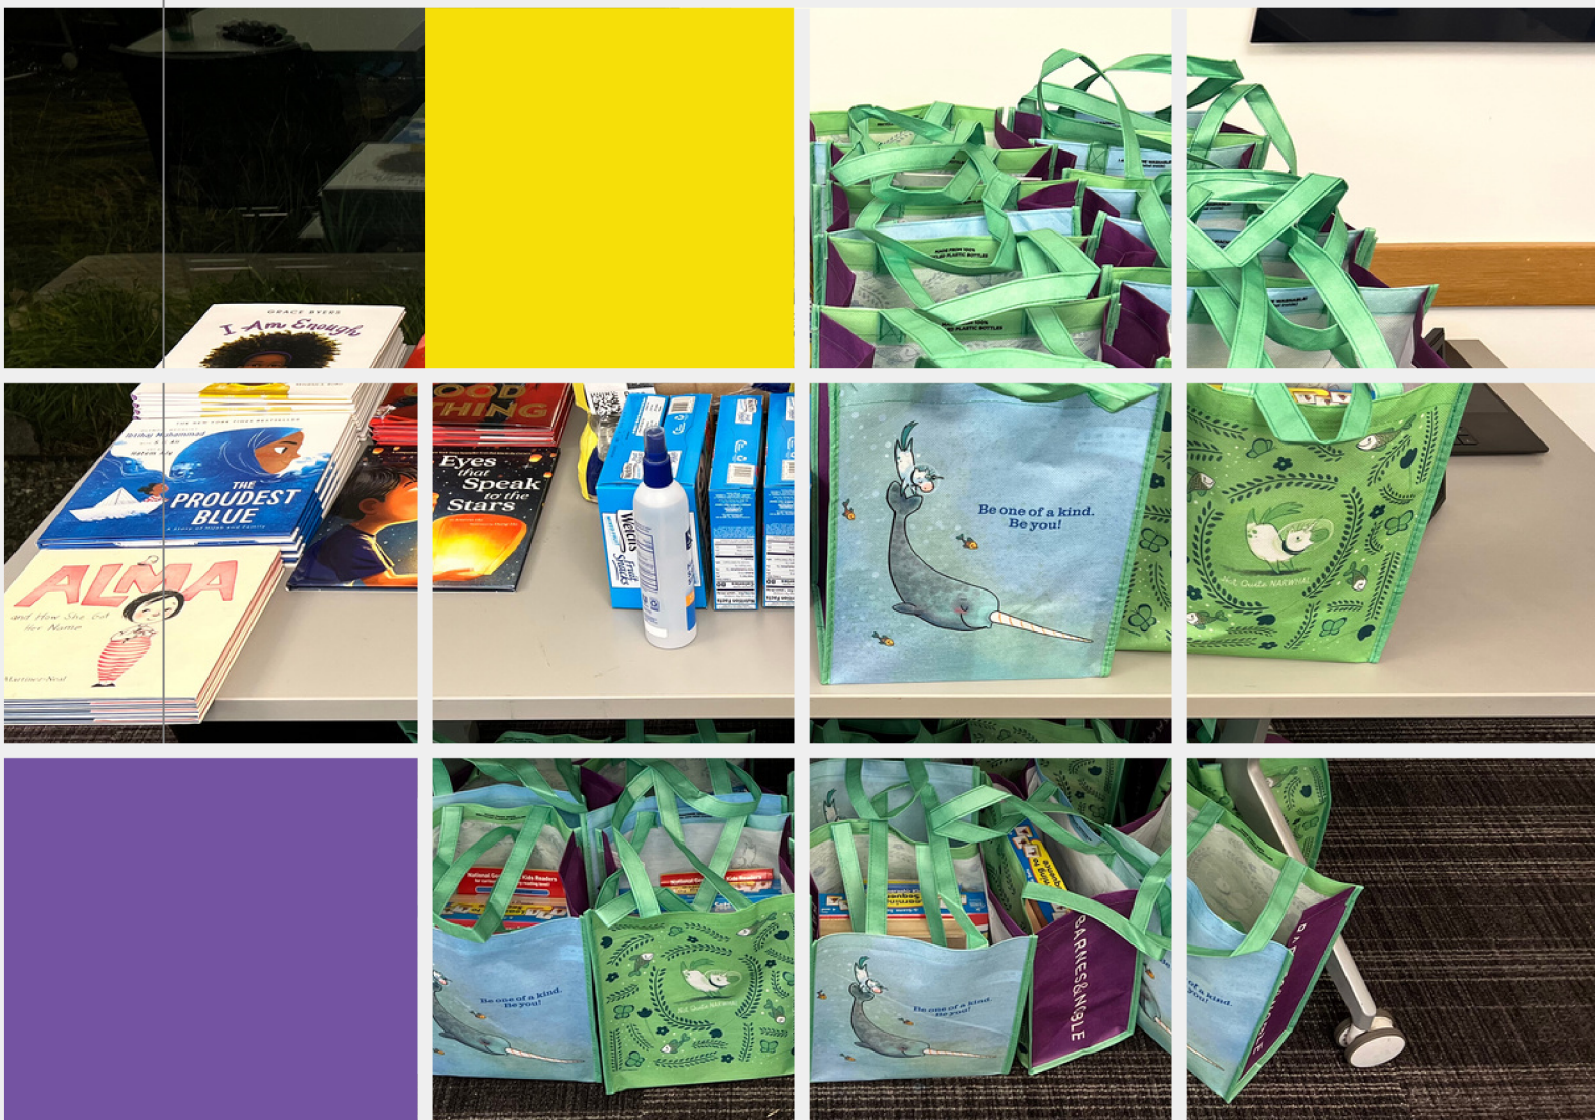

Children Ready to Learn is a non-profit educational organization that provides parents and caregivers in Washington with workshops, take-home materials, and tools to help their babies and young children develop strong brain connections that determine how they will think, learn, and grow.

Workshop Offerings

- We hosted 3 parent workshops (Fall, Winter, and Spring)
- Over 70 families registered for the workshops.
- 5 families attended more than one workshop.
- 1 family attended the 3 workshops

Children Benefitted

At least 10 children benefitted from the tools, games, and books provided during the workshops.

Financial Summary

Operating Revenue for 2022-2023: $17,541.65

Expenditures	2022-2023
Program Services	$6,058.53
Management & General	$177

End-of-Year Balance: $11,483.12

