

David W. Powell

glass art studio

THE STUDENT SHALL READ, UNDERSTAND AND SIGN A COPY OF THE RULES OF THE STUDIO

The Rules of the Studio

- Wear older, comfortable, but not baggy, 100% cotton clothing.
Long pants, blue jeans are best, cotton shirt, no synthetic fabric
- Wear older sneakers or work boots. Cotton Socks are recommended. NO open toe shoes or sandals, think about hot or sharp glass catching in your clothing.
- Do NOT wear bracelets or types of jewelry that could snag on something or that can be damaged by heat.
- Eye protection shall be worn at all times.
During your lesson you will be provided with appropriate protective glasses, depending on what kind of glass you are working with.
- The students are responsible for the cleanliness of the entire shop and will not leave until all tools are put away and the work bench and floor are cleaned.
- Long hair should be tied back/up securely. Cotton hats/bandanas/nets are OK.
- Do bring water for drinking/ ice.
- If you have a cell phone or other personal communication device with you, turn it OFF while you are here. You may take a break and leave the area to check your messages.
- Leave pets, friends and family members at home, spectators or guests are not permitted. Keep your conversations to a minimum so as to not distract others. A parent of students less than 18 years old will be required to give written permission for lessons.
- Smoking is prohibited in the building. So is eating.
inadvertent ingestion of glass, dust or chemicals could occur. Drinks are permitted but must be consumed away from the work area

Inform the instructor privately if you have any health conditions which may affect you or others in the class adversely. NOTE: Hot glass can cause serious injury. Students will acknowledge this with their signature below so be mindful of your safety, and the safety of others. After one warning, anyone who continues to be as careless as to endanger themselves or anyone else will be asked to leave and no fees will be refunded. Misuse of the equipment can cause serious injury. Abuse of the equipment will NOT be tolerated. After one warning, anyone who continues to abuse the equipment will be asked to leave and no fees will be refunded.

Student signature and date

Instructor signature and date