

We absolutely celebrated Star Wars Day.

Liam getting a unique angle with an Ewok

In case you had any concern, Taya very much gets her use out of her Disney Annual Pass.

Taya had the opportunity to interview Kirk Krack for an Avatar: The Way of Water promotion through Disney Studios. Kirk is a renowned diver and trained the actors for the film to be able to stay underwater for up to 5 minutes while filming. Taya underwent his training as well that day.

Taya learned to hold her breath underwater for 3 ½ minutes!

We attended an Angels game after living next to their stadium for over a year.

Mike Trout and Ohtani played that night. They won!

We went to our first-ever Renfaire!

Met Lord Farquaad & drank mead all day. What more can you ask for?

Universal Hollywood hosted us for a VIP tour. We got a backstage tour where they showed us different filming locations from some infamous movies.

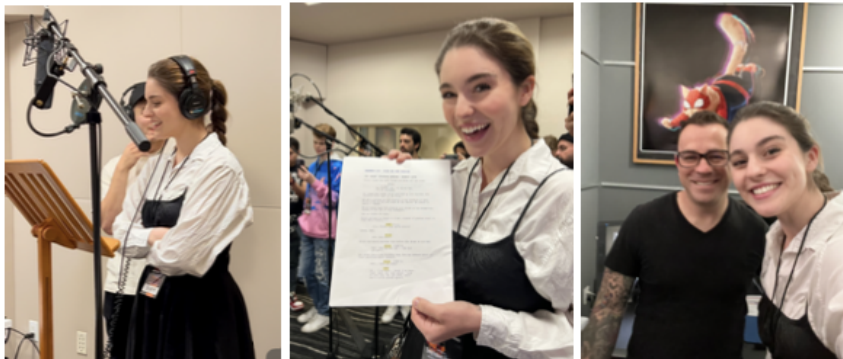

*as seen in
'Back to the Future'*

when in rome...

caffeine was the only thing keeping us alive

The month ended with everything Spider-Verse. Liam visited the IMAX headquarters for an early screening and a Q&A session with one of the directors.

Taya attended Sony Animation to learn first-hand about the creation of Across the Spider-Verse. From storyboarding to voice acting, she got to experience all of it. Her favorite part, though, was meeting the man responsible for bringing Spider-Cat into the film.

Taya doing mock voiceover work for Spider-Man: Across the Spider-Verse at Sony Animation Studios

Taya on the red carpet for Spider-Man: Across the Spider-Verse, where she met Peter B Parker (Jake Johnson), Maria Hill, Flash Thompson, and Green Arrow!