Deadline for Submission: March 3, 2024 (parade package pickup day)
Send application to jagwood4@gmail.com and megan.dunlevy@gmail.com

Eligibility: To be eligible, a person wishing to be selected as a Hibernian Princess shall be the daughter, sister, granddaughter, niece, or cousin of a member of the AOH or LAOH. The Hibernian Princess Court will become "honorary representatives" of the Louisville Hibernians on parade day. Participants must be aged 6-17.

Responsibilities of a Princess: The Honor Court will greet parishioners and hand out Mass programs at the St. Patrick's Parade Day Mass as they enter parade day Mass at St. Brigid. This year, we will encourage the Hibernian Princess Court to appear on WDRB's TV spot on March 7th @6:00AM- LAOH will be there. Princesses fill other duties on parade day as needed but will have prior notice of said activity by a LAOH member, and activity will be monitored. The Honor Court will either ride on the LAOH parade float, or march with the LAOH in the annual St. Patrick's Day Parade; parent of a Princess may march alongside with the LAOH and is encouraged, but not required.

Selection: The Honor Court represents future generations of Hibernians, and being a Princess is one way to pass on appreciation of Irish Heritage and culture. A total of six (6) princesses, two from each will be chosen from the following categories: age 6-9; 10-13; and 14-17. If not all positions are filled, we will eliminate the age category limit. Participants will be provided with a sash and a crown to wear on Parade Day, which they can keep as a memento. The President of the Junior LAOH Division will be Head of the Honor Court.
