

4th Corner Fly Fishers

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

As most of you know, for the last 18 months I have been attached by the head (not the heart) to a personal project. We added a shop/mancave to our house and did a whole bunch of upgrades as well. You will see them soon or when I host the next fly tying session.

In that time I haven't had much time on the water. The project is for the most part finished and now I have time to pursue some other activities I have missed. Recently we entertained a visit from a brother who has just retired and is expanding his angling endeavors. We were able to spend a couple of hours on a small stream tossing some dry flies to some hungry Dolly Varden. Mike has been gearing up for salmon and steelhead in his adopted state of California. He has a collection of one and two-handed rods and the paraphernalia that go with them. I loaned him a 7'6" 3 wt. with a handful of buggy attractors, showed him a modest roll cast, set up my Tenkara and we were off.

I think we covered about 100 yards of water in total. We tangled with a few over hanging trees, a few submerged branches and a fair number of willing fish. It was a chance to acquaint myself with the experience of just being on the water, the joy and satisfaction of a successful presentation and especially the continued relationship with a brother and a friend. I think he felt the same, that grin he had long ago is still with him.

It almost feels like it did when I got here in 2006. At that point I wanted to find out about the 4th Corner Fly Fishers. I think it is a "Caddy Shack" moment. I still want to find out more about us. The club keeps evolving. We are moved by our new members, by our existing members and this month we added a former member who joined the club in 1975!

As this year winds down it is time to start looking toward to 2017. We will soon have several new board members the will add new perspectives to our leadership. There will also be opportunities for you to lend a hand on the various committees that make 4CFF so successful. We will be looking forward to the contributions from all of you. We thank you in advance for sharing your energy and incites.

Recently there was a "Writers on the Fly" program that came through town. It featured writers reading some of their work, as well a gallery of photographs that have been published in "The Flyfish Journal". The locally published quarterly should be one of your reads. It was a great evening and when the next one occurs, you should make an effort to get there. It is a couple of hours well spent. It was also a way to raise funds for the North Sound Chapter of Trout Unlimited.

Have some great Holidays!

Frank Koterba
President, 4th Corner Fly Fishers

Monthly Meeting

This month's general meeting of the 4th Corner Fly Fishers will be held at the Bellingham Golf and Country Club on Thursday, November 17, 2016 [NOTE: This is one week earlier than normal due to the Thanksgiving holiday]. The Wet Fly will begin at 6pm with dinner at 6:45. The program will begin at 7:30 and will be followed by the general membership meeting.

This month we are lucky to have Scott Willison, owner of the Confluence Fly Shop and your fellow member join us as he shares photos from the annual coho fly fishing trip to Southeast Alaska with a host of other esteemed fly club members. He'll take you through the meanders, muskeg and mud in search of big aggressive wild coho in an evening that promises laughter and despair, rainbows and darkening skies, leaky waders, broken rods and armadas of thrilling bright salmon caked in sea lice.

Here's a bit more about Scott...

Scott is the owner of the Confluence Fly Shop in Bellingham, WA and a certifiable fly fishing geek. His pursuits with a fly rod have taken him all over the map, including Washington, Oregon, Montana, Colorado, Wyoming, Wisconsin, Alaska, Hawaii, British Columbia, France, Mexico, The Bahamas and Costa Rica in search of anything that swims. He's a self-proclaimed steelhead nut, but also deeply enjoys fishing for coho, cutthroat, bull trout and bonefish. In addition to fishing, Scott enjoys writing and speaking to fly clubs. He's published articles in Northwest Fly Fishing as well as a chapter in 25 Best National Parks to Fly Fish. Scott is currently the Native Fish Society River Steward for the Stillaguamish River and serves as treasurer for the North Sound Chapter of Trout Unlimited.

Please RSVP for the meeting by Wednesday, November 16 at 8am by visiting <http://4cff.eventbrite.com>, by email at msr@deepsnow.com, or by phone at 360-319-1350. Be sure to indicate if you'll be having dinner or just attending the meeting, and remember that a dinner reservation made is a binding commitment to pay. Also, a reminder that getting your RSVP in on time helps us provide an accurate count for the kitchen. We've had a little spike up in walk-ins lately and it makes it difficult for the kitchen and serving staff at the country club if we don't know that you're coming. We VERY MUCH appreciate your help in placing your reservations on time.

Tight lines,

4CFF's Donation to Whatcom Land Trust: Helping Fishers and the Environment

Whatcom Land Trust recently received news that one of their grant requests was ranked within the top 10 grant applicants for the [WA] State Department of Ecology's Floodplains by Design competition. WLT feels confident that should be getting a $500,000 grant for acquisition and restoration of 20 acres in the lower Middle Fork River floodplains adjacent to the River. The WLT restoration effort, when implemented will result in increased public access/fishing accessibility.

In addition, another grant application is currently in play. This involves Skookum Creek, the largest tributary of the South Fork Nooksack. The Skookum Creek Corridor Project is a 1,000-acre acquisition along Skookum Creek from just upstream of its confluence with the South Fork Nooksack to just upstream of where Skookum Creek and Arlecho Creek meet, approximately 1.5 miles of prime habitat. The project will acquire a forested riparian corridor along this Skookum Creek complex of streams and wetlands that averages about 500' feet wide on each side of Skookum Creek, plus a mile long segment of the Hutchinson creek headwaters, which is the most critical watershed for Steelhead. Estimated price: $1.75 to $2.25 million, pending appraisal.

Whatcom Land Trust would like to hear from you. Please log on to their Conservation Plan Update Survey Link: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/WLTplanupdate>

WLT is using the survey to help prioritize the areas of the county and the types of projects it should be working on.

Conservation Report

Hi 4CFF'ers,

October went by in a blur for me but at least Nathan's creek cleanup didn't have to be cancelled by rain. Weather was, do I dare use the word NASTY, to have our work session on 10 Mile Creek on Oct. 8 so we will finish up out there next Spring. Although our club work parties are done for 2016 here is a list for NSEA and Skagit Fisheries Enhancement groups work parties for the next month or so for any of you who are feeling Conservation withdrawal symptoms:

NSEA Squalicum Creek Sat. Nov 19, 9AM-12PM. Park at 3057 E. Bakerview Rd.

Little Squalicum Creek Sat. Dec. 3, 9AM-12PM. Park at the Bellingham Technical College lot.

Whiskey Creek Sat. Dec 10, 9AM-12PM, this site is in Ferndale. Park at EL Nopal Restaurant 6104 Portal Way (exit 263).

Skagit Fisheries Enhancement Group

Nursery work party in Burlington, Sat. Nov 12.

Diobsud Creek planting party in Marblemount. Please call 360 336-0172 if you want to attend either of these Skagit County functions.

Lastly, the 4CFF Conservation Committee will be meeting at my home at 6:30 PM on Tuesday November 15. We will be discussing the 2017 plan for allocation of money to various groups, we will discuss current and future Conservation projects and any other issues that may come up. If you want to give any input for this meeting please call me or plan to attend that night. Thanks to all of you who have found time to help with our club's Conservation projects during the past year. We couldn't keep these projects going without all of you.

Thanks soon much,

Dan Coombs

Outings Report

Outings have finished up for this year. Tom Langley is the presumptive successor for outings next year. He plans to convene the outings committee early next year and add some new outings to the list for 2017.

Thank you all for the opportunity to serve as your External VP and board member for the past two years. It was a great way to stay involved and get to know so many of the members. I would urge other members to serve on the board and become committee chairmen. It does not require all that much time or effort and it is fun and rewarding.

Phil Terzian

Painted Lady Raffles

Don't forget that we have a final raffle coming up for the "Pursuit of the Painted Lady". They are $10. Tickets will be available at this month's meeting. The raffle winning ticket will be drawn during the 2016 Christmas Party. Proceeds will support the Club's Conservation Committee and the club.

Conservation Pluviophiles Unfence!

9/17/2016(Saturday), 9-11am, Ladies of the Lake Conservation Event: Yes, it did rain on our parade, .74 inches to be exact! But, the rain did not deter 4CFF pluviophiles teaming with Whatcom Land Trust to unfence about 150 yards of barbed wire along Fir Creek, a Lake Whatcom Kokanee spawning area.
