Otter's Jotter!

Welcome to October! A huge thank you to all those who have been in touch in respect of advertising and ideas following our call for help last month. We would like to keep the ideas coming and if anyone would like to volunteer a few hours a week to make phone calls to those who advertise in other village mags - we would welcome you to our wonderfully friendly and enthusiastic team.

As always, big thanks to all our Village Reps - whether collating information to send, delivering to the homes, uploading onto websites or eagerly awaiting a meet up (which I have promised for ages!)

A quick reminder to have a flick back at last months details showing that the F315 Bus Service is under threat of being withdrawn. The consultation is open only until 5th October, on the Essex County Council website, please make your views known. <https://consultations.essex.gov.uk/iptu/2023/>

There are lots of events coming up in each of the Parishes, from history talks and village walks; craft fairs to quiz nights and fundraisers too.

The Pet Service on the 15th October at Great Maplestead is in my diary, having 4 dogs, 2 cats and many fish in the pond, I will choose carefully as who who I bring along to represent our household of animals!

Enjoy your October, half term will no doubt mark the start of our fires and heating being put on! Last chance for the chimney to be swept!

I'm off to make that call! Have a good month and keep in touch!

Letter from the Reverend Beverley Vincent

The passing of time is never more evident than in the changing of the seasons, autumn is looming and often signified by changing our clocks from British Summer Time back to Greenwich Mean Time. The transient pleasure of an extra hour in bed on a Saturday night is quickly replaced with the reality of nights drawing in.

When I was a child, I struggled to understand both how and why we changed the clocks twice a year. How could we alter time? Wasn't time – just time? How could we mess about with it, and decide that what one day was 8am was now 7am? Did it really matter that in the summer it could be light until nearly 10pm – wouldn't 9pm do?

The idea of time as something that could be manipulated and shifted baffled me. It wasn't until I was much older that I understood that the whole notion of measuring and naming 'time' was a human invention. Calendars (for reckoning intervals of time) and clocks (for measuring its passage) have a long history. The first calendars were lunar, and there's evidence of them as long as 6,000 years ago. The first clocks were a form of sundial, found in Egypt. Clearly humans have long felt the need to track the passage of time.

From a human perspective, time is linear and goes in one direction. But what is time like for God? Christians believe that God stands outside of time. There was never a time when God wasn't, and there will never be a time when God isn't. As creatures living in time and subject to it, this is incredibly difficult for us to get our heads around.

In the New Testament the apostle Peter puts it like this: But do not ignore this one fact, dear friends, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years are like one day. (2 Peter 3:8). From the perspective of God's realm of eternity, time looks very different.

As we follow Jesus we have the promise of eternity, the German theologian Dietrich Bonhoeffer as a prisoner of war wrote: "What remains for us is only the very narrow path, sometimes barely discernible, of taking each day as if it were the last and yet living it faithfully and responsibly as if there were yet to be a great future."

Let us then take each day as it comes, grateful for the promise it holds and look forward to the timeless future where the light of Christ shows us the way.

Reverend Beverley

Nature Notes

Out walking in the Patch recently with a friend when he declared 'Cormorant'! I looked up and just glimpsed the rapidly departing subject. At home, I saw that I had only once seen one of these large, fish-eating birds in the area in the last seven years, this on a farm pond in Great Maplestead in May 2020. They are common birds on the coast, and inland on large bodies of fresh water – one of the largest colonies of inland breeding birds in Britain is at Abberton reservoir.

They are a very successful species, found world-wide except for South America and most of North America, the exception there being the far Northeast of Canada. In China they are captured alive, their throats are gently restricted (I know, it seems cruel) and the birds released into the water with a string on the leg. After a successful dive the bird is retrieved, unharmed, the fish is stolen (some astonishingly large) and the process repeated. Human ingenuity – I suspect the cormorant gets a sardine or two for its trouble to keep it working!

Have you heard the tawny owls recently? They are calling incessantly; at night, early in the morning, and I have even heard one in the middle of the day. A very busy period in owl society.

The most exciting moth event of the year occurred on the evening of 6th/7th September when I found a large, completely unexpected, beautiful specimen of Catocala fraxini, otherwise known as the Blue Underwing. It is categorised as a recent colonist, immigrant, and former resident. In Essex, it was considered a rare vagrant until quite recently, but is now being seen a little more regularly.

It is a large moth with a wingspan approaching four inches, quite unremarkable with the wings folded but with a spectacular hindwing; black with a broad curved violet blue band and a white fringe. The name Catocala comes from the Greek meaning 'beautiful below', in reference to the hindwing; the fraxini part comes from the Latin name for ash trees, as it was thought the caterpillar fed on them. Actually, the caterpillar feeds on Aspen and other poplars, but the name can't be changed now. Just a small mistake by the great Systematist, Carl Linnaeus, the founder of the binomial system for naming all plants and animals back in the 1750's.

Do look this moth up on norfolkmoths.co.uk or ukmoths.org.uk, it's a cracker. The flight period is late August until early October, so they could be in your garden too.

Gardening Corner

The shorter days are with us and everything in the garden slows down ready for the colder months ahead. Now is the time for a tidy up; try and leave the odd corner for wildlife either for hibernation or, in the case of wild birds, for seed to provide them with a natural source of nutrition.

Compost in containers or in a heap can be turned top to bottom, ensuring the even break-down of matter ready for mulching next spring.

My plant of the month is the spray chrysanthemum. This perennial comes in a range of colours – from yellow to orange, red and pink – providing a palette of colour before the first frosts. To propagate them, lift each stool once flowering has finished, cut off the old stems and divide into two or three clumps. Replant, incorporating a little blood, fish and bone and next year's sprays will reward you.

Shrubs in pots, especially those that have been in their container for several years, need to be checked for drainage. If the drainage holes become blocked with excessive root growth pots can become waterlogged in the winter months.

Roses will begin to lose their leaves this month; clear as much of the detritus as you can and place it in the green bin. Black spot spores over-winter around each bush in any fallen leaf material, so doing this will help to keep it at bay.

In the vegetable garden courgettes, marrows and outdoor cucumbers can be cleared away; the leaves will start to show signs of mould, turning from green to grey as a result of colder temperatures and longer nights.

Think about where you're going to plant garlic next month [November]; the bulbs need a long growing season before harvesting around July.

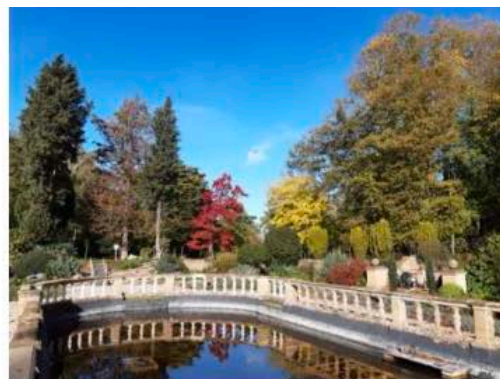

Lastly, prepared Hyacinths can be planted in pots and placed in a frost free shed or unheated room in the dark ready to bring out into a warm atmosphere, preferably on a window sill, at the beginning of December.

That's all for this month...

The Arborist.

From the Gardens of Easton Lodge

October is the last hurrah for visitors to the Gardens, as we close to visitors the end of the month. It is usually a lovely month, with autumnal warmth and lots of colourful squashes, weird shaped tromboncinos and pumpkins ripe for picking and selling and the dahlias and roses still looking lovely.

It is also the month when the Autumn Crocus/Winter daffodil pop up and of course the trees start to turn their autumn shades. For kids it is a time for gathering conkers and making dens in the wood.

Sunday 15 October is our final full Open Day and together with Wendy's Petcare Services we are planning a dog show to make it a special day out for all the family. There will be dog classes, for the cutest puppy, handsomest dog and prettiest bitch and we are encouraging owners to think about Halloween costume for their dogs too! Essex Police Dog handlers will be with us and Dr Alex to offer veterinary advice. There will be a number of pet food and other stalls, and as usual we will have plant, crafts and the Trust's produce stalls.

Open Thursdays continue to the end of October. They are a time for visitors to see the Trust's volunteers hard at work. We will be taking the last cuttings of the year – if those taken in August and September haven't thrived, which is always a possibility as our volunteers aren't around daily to tend them and the beds we use for cuttings in the walled kitchen garden can get very hot and dry. And we will be starting autumn planting – of bulbs and of shrubs and perennials being moved or newly established before the winter cold arrives.

The Maplesteads

The Maplesteads Autumn Show

A very successful Autumn Show was held on 9th September in Great Maplestead Village Hall, which was ablaze with flowers; there was also plentiful fruit, vegetables, cakes and preserves.

The handicraft section was well supported, with some wonderful items on display. The men excelled with their Swiss rolls and the many of the children's efforts were amazing.

The judges were very impressed with the overall standard of the entries.

In the evening the bar did a roaring trade, serving beer and wine as well as hot sausage rolls, which proved very popular – even though it was one of the hottest evenings of the year! Fortunately, ice creams were also available to help people cool off!

Jill Newton and Gill Peskett presented the various trophies to the prize winners, who were:

Flower Cup – Denise O'Connell
Novice Cup – Paula Sillett
Vegetable Cup – Dorothy Weight
Flower Arrangers Cup – Philippa Mills
Domestic Cup – Liz Newton
Dolly Argent Craft Cup – Alison Davis
Maplestead Flower Show Trophy – Liz Newton
Men's Challenge Cup – Keith Sheffle
Young Growers Cup – Phoebe George-Jeggo
Children up to 8 years – Dorothy Self
Children over 8 years – Arabella Self
Photographic Trophy – Alex Taylor
Tallest Sunflower – Ann Harris and Lyn Haylock
People's Choice Favourite Bloom – Liz Newton

The committee would like to congratulate all the winners and thank both villages for their involvement and support.

We look forward to welcoming you all again next year!

Craft Fair 16th September – The Round Church

We were blessed with wonderful sunny weather for our Annual Craft Fair. There was a variety of local craft stalls and our kind neighbours supplied an enormous selection of incredible homemade cakes.

Those who came said what a lovely event it was as they did some early shopping for Christmas and then basked in the sunshine with tea and cake. We raised just over £1,100 for our Church which is much appreciated. I must add that one of the stalls run by local author Julia Stone also raised £112 for the Foodbank which was amazing and an added bonus.

I would like to thank our team of hard-working volunteers for all they do to make this happen and thanks to those of you who turned up to support us. Nothing can happen without the support of the community, and we had a brilliant day.

TUFFON

During the warmer months, we open our Vineyard and Cellar Door to the public and host tours and tastings, commencing at 2pm.

Whilst taking a stroll through our vineyard set in the beautiful North Essex countryside you will learn about growing grapes and producing award-winning wine in England.

We will talk you through the lifecycle of a vine and just what it takes to get from harvest to bottle and how our small but dedicated team work hard to produce the delicious wine that you will then get to try.

The tour concludes in our magnificent 16th Century threshing barn where you will sample 3 of our award-winning wines and 1 of our gins (£20pp). All tours start at 2pm and are for approx. 1.5 hrs.

Sat 3rd June
Sun 11th June
Sat 1st July
Fri 14th July

Pebmarsh

Pebmarsh Church Warden's Report

September was a very busy month for everyone, with many people taking their holidays after the hot weather and travel disruptions. The two weddings at Pebmarsh went well and both with sunny days, albeit a bit hot on the 8th September. It is a special privilege to welcome and help those who choose to use the church for family occasions.

With the build up to our concert currently underway I have had fun showing the children from Pebmarsh School around the church and introducing them to Sir William Fitzralph. The school emblem is an image of the brass from the church. They have learnt a lot about not only the brass and the knight but our building and how it is used. The older children asked many good questions including how long it took to build the tower. We were able to teach them about the construction and they helped to date it. The estimate was 12 years by looking for what are called the lifts. This is the sections of the flint work which could only be laid to a certain height each year, so it didn't collapse before the lime mortar cured. The younger children were fascinated by the bats that live in our church and the youngest class wanted to know when we fed Sir Fitzralph and were we going to dig him up.

They have produced an exhibition for our concert and hopefully it will still be in place for a few days for anyone who could not be with us on the day. My thanks go to Ashley Cooper for his talk and Choir for Hire and the people who helped make it a special afternoon. Thank you to everyone that has supported us with this event, it's been quite a lot of work and we can only run events like this if people attend.

Our rounders match raised £80.00 for the church and my thanks goes to Laura McGlashan and Mark Harrington for organising it.

The Harvest service took place on the 17th September and the team of church flower arrangers produced some beautifully arrangements once again.

The schools Harvest service will take place on the 28th September at 9.30am

Pebmarsh Youth Club

After a long summer holiday break, our youth club opened its doors again at the beginning of September. Over the next 3 months, we have plenty of exciting things planned and booked, including our annual outing to Braintree Click & Climb.

We would like to welcome Jos and Arline, our two new volunteers - both ladies have a wealth of experience and have already suggested great ideas to support our youngsters.

Sadly, we have had to say farewell to a couple of children which will be greatly missed; we wish them the best of luck for their next venture. Due to high demand and limited hall space, we do operate a waiting list, however, please feel free to pop along and speak to one of our leaders if you wanted your child to join.

Pebmarsh Youth club commences every other Thursday in the Village Hall, for children age 8-13 years, 6.30pm- 8.30pm.

Finally we would like to thank the organisers of the event "A bit of a Do", who have kindly donated £300 to our club and many thanks to Paula, who donated £320 from the music record sale of the late Susie Daws (Susie would be happy knowing, that she helped the children of Pebmarsh).

Carol & Mandy

HEIDI'S NATURE CORNER FROM OAK FARM, PEBMARSH

Hedgehogs are new to our garden, we'd never seen one in the 30+ years we've lived here but suddenly this summer we are having at least two different Hedgehogs visit every night getting in the garden through a hole they made under the fence. A trail cam is the perfect way to see what's happening in your garden overnight and I have lots of videos of the hedgehogs antics including sitting in their water dish to eat from their food dish.

If the dog is out late he often comes across them in the garden and one night I came out to see him tucking into the Hedgehog food beside a Hedgehog who was happily eating beside him. Luckily he's not overly interested in them, more the cat food (wet & dry) that I put out every night.

In the early hours one morning we heard something rattling the dog flap, we got up and opened the door only for one of the Hedgehogs to fall down the step into the kitchen. A quick search for gloves followed and we moved it back up the garden and off it trotted.

I'd highly recommend a trail cam if you're interested in seeing what comes in your garden, they don't have to be expensive and I know several people in the village use them in their gardens, you might be surprised by what you see.
