

'On the Town' Rehearsals Start Saturday

General auditions will be held this Saturday, May 14th from 10 AM to 4 PM at Lutheran Church of Our Savior, Port Washington, for the sixth annual Teen Summer Theatre's presentation, hurch of Our Savior, Port Washington, for the sixth annual Teen Summer Theatre's presentation, "On The Town" schueduled for August 19-22.

Cance ensemble call-backs will take place that evening between 6 and 9 PM. Orchestra and backstage crews are open to college students, who should also sign up Saturday, if interested.

Open to all Manhasset-Port Washington area public and private junior and senior high school students, the Teen Summer Theater is jointly sponsored by the Community Education Program of the Port

[Continued on Page 10]

Thursday, May 12, 1977 The Port Washington Mail Page 7

Summer Production Collaborators

JOINING FORCES, choreographers Lorna and Edward Zawacki (left) discuss this summer's production of "On The Town" with Teen Summer Theater director-producers Pam and Ron Meadows.

'On the Town'

[Continued from Page 7]

Washington School Board and the Play Troupe of Port Washington.

Joining the program this year will be Lorna and Edward Zawacki, of the Zawacki Dance Centre of Great Neck, who will be the choreography and dance directors. They will add their talents to the returning team of Pamela Meadows, director, David Barnett, musical director, and Robert Klein, stage manager.

The Teen Summer Theater is a self-supporting voluntary activity, originated at the Sousa Band Shell, which now performs at the Schreiber High School auditorium.

