History of Port Summer Show

The Port Summer Show was formed in January, 1987, to continue a tradition of teen summer theater that was established by Ron and Pam Meadows in 1972. After their last production in August, 1986, a group of parents and representatives of local organizations met to see if there was any way to insure continuity of this activity. With major financial support from Robert L. Harding Real Estate and the United Community Chest of Port Washington, and with the cooperation of the Adult and Continuing Education Program of the Port Washington School District, the Port Summer Show became a member of the Port Washington Youth Council and produced its first show, Barnum, in August, 1987.

The officers of the Port Summer Show annually hire a Director and Musical Director. In addition, nearly 50 adults are involved with the production as volunteers. Every year approximately 75 Port Washington teenagers from grades 7 through 12 participate in the Port Summer Show as cast, crew or production assistants. This adult/youth partnership creates and continues the tradition of quality theater productions in Port Washington. Many teens who participate in these productions continue to be involved in theater as college students and adults.

As the Port Summer Show celebrates its 8th production, Bye Bye Birdie, it especially wants to thank those who founded the Port Summer Show: Bess Mulvihill, Lee Healy, Cheryl Kirmser, Tertia Wallace, Tegwen Epstein, Nancy Wright, Regina Farinaccio, Pat Blumlein, Kendall Walsh and Dr. Karen Osterman.

Who's Who

Chery Manniello

Director/Choreographer

This is Chery's first opportunity to direct and choreograph for the Port Summer Show and she thinks that Port Washington has the best "KIDS" in the world! This opportunity to work with these talented students is particularly special to her since she moved to Port in 8th grade (so long ago she has to check her diploma to remember!) and went to Weber and the High School where she was first bitten by the theater bug.

Chery's background in theater and dance is extensive on both sides of the footlights. As a performer, she has been seen in dozens of productions, most recently as Lily in Hofstra's Gray Wig production of ANNIE, and as Princess Winnifred in the Freeport Chorale's production of ONCE UPON A MATTRESS. She has danced as a soloist and as a member of the corps de ballet of three regional ballet companies and is therefore the veteran of more NUTCRACKERS than she cares to count! As a director and choreographer, she choreographed and directed six musicals for Oyster Bay High School where she was also the choreographer for their show choir the "Showstoppers!" which performed at Disney World. This past year, she choreographed GOOD NEWS for the Oceanside Theater Guild, NO, NO NANETTE for the Boardman Middle School in Oceanside, SMILE for Southside High School in Rockville Centre, and directed and choreographed PAJAMA GAME for the Port Singers here in Port Washington.

Her "day jobs" include teaching pre-ballet for the Huntington School of Ballet, substituting in secondary English at Locust Valley High School and bookkeeping for her husband's Landscape Architecture firm in Huntington. With this wild and crazy life there can be no doubt that her children, Elisa, Bryn and Scott, and her husband Bob are the GREATEST!

Erika Felker

Musical Director

Erika is very happy to return again as the Musical Director of this year's Port Summer Show. She has had a lot of fun working with the talented students on stage and her dedicated, ever-faithful band members.

An accomplished cellist and singer, Erika currently teaches orchestra at Weber Junior High School and Daly Elementary School in the Port Washington School District.
