Dear Friends of the Port Summer Show,

*There's no business like show business...*especially when it's Port Summer Show business. The Summer Show brings together the best in our town—our talented kids, dedicated parents and loyal, supportive community.

This summer, the nearly one hundred teen actors, builders, painters, technical crew and musicians who make up the No, No, Nanette company have spent three hours a night, three and four nights a week for six weeks in a safe, chaperoned, drug- and alcohol-free environment. They've grown and learned, and developed a camaraderie that is exciting to see.

It has been a privilege to be part of this production, and we look forward to seeing the Port Summer Show tradition continue for many years to come.

To all of you who have contributed in so many ways—thank you.

To the company of No, No, Nanette—break a leg.

Dear Lauren,

We can't believe it's been seven years since we saw you up on the Schreiber stage in 42nd Street. It seems like just yesterday. You've blossomed into a beautiful young woman and we're so proud of you. From the back of the chorus to the lead roles at center stage, we've experienced so much joy watching you perform.

We hope you'll take all of the wonderful memories you've had on stage with you wherever life may take you. We love you always.

Mom, Dad & David

Good Luck to the Cast, Crew & Orchestra of No, No, Nanette

Can't you see how happy we will be...
watching Joe in
"No, No, Nanette"?

Congratulations
to cast and crew!
Janice & Gary Zeltzer

I'd like to dedicate my final performance on the Schreiber stage to the two people who have spent thousands of dollars on my training and thousands of hours loving, caring, and supporting me. The encouragement that you have given me to go as far as I possibly could with my dreams make me proud to have such terrific parents!

♪ Who could ask for anything more?! ♪

Mom, Even if you can't always come up to Skidmore to see me perform, I'll have you in my heart and know that if you were there, you'd have a twinkle in your eye, as you always do, and a sewing kit in your purse to help my friends overcome disasters in 5 minutes or less. I love you a bushel and a peck! Thanks for all the good luck hugs and all the perfect ads you wrote to me that meant so much to me. And now, the moment you've been waiting for... THANKS MOM!!

Dad, You have always come to my shows, TAPED my shows, and told me how great I was. After a performance of Anything Goes, Cam and Mardi told me how they saw your face light up and your eyes twinkle when I was on stage. It was then that I realized just how proud you were. You can't understand how happy that made me feel. Thanks for the words of encouragement (you know what they were) you used to get me to audition for 42nd St. They changed my life if you think about it. I hope I can always be your peanut!

Thanks for a terrific 18 years! I'll see you at the Tony's and Oscar's!!

To the Amazing, Talented, Wonderful Class of 1998---

You've given me some of the greatest times of my life.
I love you all. You'll always have a warm place in my heart.

Drina--thanks for all the support from our journal, the memories of Genie, and for being a talented, sweet friend who I can always count on to sing out high C's at 7:30am! Lauren--I'll never forget the shopping for gift days, Fee-Fee and Angelique skits, and French Fries with Drina and me. Thank you for a terrific party, a shoulder to cry on, and for being a fun person who could always make me laugh. Gennaro--who knew that a 9 hour car trip could be fun? When you go to school in the fall, just pop Chicago into the tape deck and think of our audition. Thanks for the long talks, the double dates, the dancing and Gene Kelly. Chris--our little physics talks helped me a lot; who'd have known I'd actually go through with THAT?! Thanks for all our in-depths. Hope to have tons more in college! But, we'll always have physics! Justine--from Usdan, to dance, to fights, to swimming in your pool, to valum with Buffalo's Stance, I'll remember most our basement video games and pictures at slumber parties! Joe--Thanks for the Altoids. Let's play some Zappa. Love ya lots. Maio--thanks for helping Hyam realize his love for theater. Without it, I may never have realized my love for him! Jeff--your music inspires me, your spirit touches me, and your talent amazes me. Thanks for the dancing, the talks, the laughs, the food, the pie-crust, and especially for my song. I promise to always dance to it! Hyam--I'm so happy I can share my passions with you: dance, theater, music, and love. The past 16 months have been a blast. I love you very much, as you know! Thanks for the hugs, the cries, the good times, the love, and the cuddling...We'll always have doody!

Thanks for all the music, love, and laughter. I'll see you all on Broadway!
