

Port Summer Show's Smile Opens Tonight!

Tonight is opening night for the Port Summer Show's musical production of Howard Ashman and Marvin Hamlisch's Smile. The musical is an adaptation of Jerry Belson's screenplay about the California Young American Miss Pageant. Set in 1985, this lively, non-stop-musical show is guaranteed to warm your heart as Port Washington's talented youth guide you with song and dance through backstage preparation and contestant antics during the week leading up to the coronation ceremony. The shows start at 8 p.m. at the Weber Auditorium beginning on Aug. 2, 3 and 4. A matinee performance at 2 p.m. on Sunday Aug. 5 will conclude the weeks of hard work and devotion. As in past years, senior citizens are admitted to opening night, Thursday Aug. 2, free of charge. The entire cast, crew and pit invite you to come see the show.

Photo courtesy of K.C. Wilsey