

Port Summer Show's SMILE: A Hit at Weber Auditorium!

On Aug. 2, 3, 4 and 5, the Weber Middle School Auditorium traveled back in time to the year 1985 for the Young America Miss Pageant at Santa Rosa Junior College. The Port Summer Show Company, comprising over 80 of Port Washington's most talented youth, created the pageant as the musical SMILE filled the stage with song, dance, drama and mischief. Jason Summers directed the show and choreography and Gary Eisele directed the music. Some of the highlights of the show included...

The warm, supportive friendship forged by Robin and Doria.

The contestants' many dance numbers "choreographed" by Tommy French.

A stunning scene from Smile.

The surprising coronation of Sanda-Kay as California's Young America Miss of 1985.

Brenda welcoming the contestants and assuring them that this will be "the most wonderful week" of their lives.

The emotional finale as Doria imagined how it could have been.

Robin's interview with the demanding judges.

Photos courtesy of K.C. Wilsey