Synopsis

Thoroughly Modern Millie is a Tony Award-winning musical with music by Jeanine Tesori (a Schreiber High School graduate!), lyrics by Dick Scanlan, and a book by Richard Morris and Dick Scanlan. Based on the 1967 film of the same name, Thoroughly Modern Millie tells the story of a small-town girl, Millie Dillmount, who comes to New York City to marry for money instead of love, a thoroughly modern aim in 1922, when women were just entering the workforce. Millie soon begins to take delight in the flapper lifestyle, but problems arise when she checks into a hotel owned a by disreputable character.

Best of luck to all of the Cast, Pit and Crew

SOLOMON

It started with Anything Goes,
Then on to State Fair,
And now everyone knows,
You're conductor extraordinaire!

This year it's Millie,
Where you'll strike up the band,
Set in New York City,
The show is sure to be grand!

So we'll always be in the front row,
When you play a melody or two,
So best of luck at Columbia,
We surely love you!

Love

Mom, Dad and Tamara

To all of the graduating seniors, thank you for sharing your talents with us, we've really enjoyed watching you perform!

Wishing you all the best next year!

Kevin – No matter what

You are doing on

Stage, you are always

Entertaining! It is

Great, once again, to

See you perform.

Love, Mom, Dad and

Thomas

And...none of this would have been Possible without the great efforts of Many people, including parent volunteers, most especially Suzanne Foye and Elisabeth Roberts, and cast, crew, directors, choreographers, musicians, sponsors, custodians, and of course, the audience.

*The programs for Thoroughly Modern Millie were generously donated by
