A NOTE FROM OUR DIRECTOR

“Anything can happen if you let it”
- The Magic of Mary Poppins

Magic is an extraordinary thing; it makes voluntary fools of us. Most of us will admit that any magic trick we see is just that - a trick, an illusion, something not to be believed. But we still willingly say “take my money” to watch a magician pull a rabbit out of a hat, saw a lady in half, and reveal to us the Queen of Hearts that was somehow in our own pocket the whole time! We sit with our jaw open, our eyes bulging, whispering “how did they do that?,” knowing full well we have been bamboozled.

Mary Poppins does some pretty neat magic tricks herself - she gets a couple of kids to take medicine and to fall asleep instantly, she brings toys to life, and, oh my, how do all those items come out of that tiny carpetbag? However, while we may be amazed by the pizzazz of these flashy illusions, the real magic happening before our eyes is much more subtle and definitely more meaningful. The real magic is the mending of a family. When the show begins, the Banks family is disconnected and emotionally bankrupt. It takes near actual bankruptcy and a few lessons from the parrot-headed umbrella wielding nanny to find the love that had been hiding in the shadows for far too long.

There is also definitely magic on stage in this production. Technical Director Brian Wedeking has outdone himself with the extraordinary set he designed and built - the spirit of the Disney Imagineers can absolutely be seen in Brian’s incredible work. Leah Siskin has created magical props with ordinary ingredients in a way that might make you think twice before throwing something away ever again. And of course, the cast, crew, and orchestra have brought this show to blazing and beautiful life in the magical time span of only six weeks.

When people ask me, “How are you?,” I often answer with one simple word: “Magical.” I long to live in a world always filled with magic. The community of the Port Summer Show has ensured that, at least for a couple of months each summer, my life will indeed be magical. I couldn’t ask for a better gift than that.

Jason Summers
Director

We would like to congratulate the Port Summer Show on their 50th Anniversary celebration!

Summer Theater In Port

The following is a portion of the article which was originally printed in "Portfolio of Homes, June 1988". Now celebrating our 50th Anniversary, we are proud to still be bringing the excitement of musical theater to Port Washington teens!

There was once a girl in Port Washington (her name was Kathie O'Connor) who, not being from a nautical tennis-playing family, said "There is nothing creative to do in Port in the summer!"

Fortunately, she said it to the young woman who had been directing the winter children's show for Play Troupe, Port's regular theater group.

The woman was Pam Meadows and she relayed this cry of teen-age ennui to her husband who was on the board of the Bandshell Committee which sponsored Port's summer band shows. Between them, they persuaded Play Troupe, and the Bandshell, to sponsor Port's first Teen Theater production.

So from that cry was born a tradition - summer theater in Port Washington.

The first show, in 1972, was "Anything Goes".

"We had no money so we improvised everything. We used cyclone fences with muslin drops for the scenery - for every scene change, we just flipped over the next sheet of muslin," said Ron Meadows who produced the shows and designed the sets.

"The Bandshell is right by the water and 'Anything Goes' is a nautical show, so the sea in the background supplied plenty of atmosphere," added Pam.

Ron created a tower from plumbers' piping and Brook Electric put in a power outlet. Ron had six lights to aim at the stage.

The next year was "Bye Bye Birdie" - and eight lights! One night there were 1,000 people crowded onto the green to see the show and the Meadows realized they needed better stage facilities.

By the fourth year, the Adult Education Department of the Port school system invited them to perform in the Schreiber High School Auditorium.

Then, in keeping with the ups and downs of show business, Austerity struck. The school board's budget failed to pass which meant all the "frills" were cut out and the show could only go on if it paid its own way.

"It's not that we lacked sponsors," said Ron Meadows, "it's just that we wanted sponsors who would let us do things our way."

Teen Theater policy was always that the kids do as much as possible themselves - make and paint the scenery, make their own costumes or find them in local thrift shops (though some parents, mothers mostly, have been known to wield a dab needle), and help with production, publicity, and ticket sales.

Although the summer theater has always been low budget, production fees have to be paid for, as well as script rentals, and in the throes of austerity, custodial fees had to be paid when the Schreiber auditorium was used.

Eventually, some parents found benefactors for the show - I.B.M. (who owns a golf club in Port) and the Robert L. Harding Real Estate firm. Since 1980 Robert Harding has been a regular benefactor.

In spite of the constant struggle for sufficient funds, the Teen Theater went from strength to strength.

Kids can take part the summer they finish sixth grade and if they catch the "theater bug" they can do it every summer until they finish High School.

Plenty of kids have been through seven Teen Theater productions, starting in the chorus and working their way into bigger and better parts as they got older.

For the fifteenth summer, the Meadows put on a full-fledged "Peter Pan" with an instructor from Foy Inventor-prises sprinkling a little fairy dust, so to speak, to help Peter and the Darling children fly to Never-Never Land.

The show was the last in the galaxy of "smash hits" which included "Guys and Dolls", "Oliver", "Grease", and "Annie". It was the fifteenth show, and Pam and Ron both said "Enough".

The threat of no more Teen Theater caused a minor panic among that segment of Port's population for whom it had become a way of life.

Everyone possible was recruited - the Port Washington Youth Council, the School Board in the guise of Adult Education, Bob Harding, of course, and I.B.M. again. But who was going to direct, who to produce?

Directing talent was hired from outside Port which proved that even with the best intentions, it's tough to do this particular job if you commute from the city each day.

Since the Teen Theater had been the Meadows' "baby", it was decided to change the name slightly. The Port Summer Show went on, with "Bar-num"...

We embrace our 2022 50th Anniversary production of "Mary Poppins" with the same love, care and passion that started the Port Summer Show in 1972. We welcome all past cast, crew, pit, board members, and parent volunteers as we celebrate a wonderful alumni weekend.

*Congratulations to the cast and crew of
Mary Poppins
and to our beautiful Averie on her role as Jane Banks!*

*Chase your dreams, you won't regret it.
Anything can happen if you let it!*

You bring us such joy as you light up the stage. We are so proud of you and love you so much!

Many thanks sincerely,

Mom, Dad, Matty, and D, J

Congratulations, Tori on your 2nd Summer Show!

We're so proud of you for being so dedicated an actor, practicing your songs, choreography and giving 100% of yourself to this remarkable 50 year tradition. With the marvelous cast, crew and creative team working to make such magic, it's no wonder this is the best part of Summer for you!

Tori, we're so happy you came into our lives!

Congratulations
Port Summer Show
On your 50th Anniversary and to the Cast, Crew, and Pit of Mary Poppins!

Thanks also -

To the incredible and dedicated creative team who enrich our kids and give them a magical experience.

To the cast, pit and crew who give up their summer evenings to put together a great show.

To the board of directors who work year-round (and through pandemics!) to make this happen.

To the current parents who volunteer and delay vacations and provide snacks and drive everyone (and listen to incessant singing).

To the businesses who donate and support and smile when we show up year after year.

To the organizations who provide grants so PSS can provide this great service to the community.

and

To the past parents and alumni who still help out and support.

Who take the time to raise money, help with the playbill, solicit ads, help with costumes and on show nights. They keep returning because they want others to share the incredible experience PSS has given them and their families.

Much love from the Noto Family

Our family's earliest encounter with the Port Summer Show was in 1997 when we took Solomon and Tamara to see the production of Babes In Arms. It was a fun, upbeat show where we learned about the incredible history of the Port Summer Show. Over the years, our family went from audience members to actor, conductor, set builder and president! We have been blessed to be part of the PSS community and to help keep this amazing tradition of 50 years of youth summer theatre alive and well!

Congratulations to this year's board, cast, pit and crew on another amazing show! Thank you Jason for being so integral and devoted to PSS for so many years! Jesse, Tom, Neil, Allison, George and Brian you are all amazing and have contributed so much to PSS! To everyone who has been part of this legacy, we thank you for being part of giving this gift to our community.
