Candle Intentions: A reminder that you may still light candles for $3 for your own private intention. If you would like your intention published, the offering is $5. Candles specially designated for a particular sacred image are $10. The sanctuary lamp, made of beeswax and lasts for 8 days is available for a $20 donation. Be sure to use envelopes for these donations and drop in the weekend collection or at the church office. Thank you!

Silence is Golden: The Lord gives us the opportunity to gather together in our church to celebrate the Sacraments. Unlike in Protestant churches, which are also used as meeting houses, in the Catholic and Orthodox Churches, we believe that the Lord is present in the tabernacle. With this in mind, it is appropriate to keep a respectful silence upon entering church. The primary reason, of course, that people come to church is to pray and that is another reason we need to be respectful of all those who use the time in their busy and noisy week to be quiet and listen attentively to the Holy Spirit speaking in their hearts. Following Mass it is appropriate to greet our fellow parishioners, visitors, etc. after we have together celebrated the Lord's Supper. Thank you for striving to observe a respectful silence before the Lord and the Blessed Sacrament.

Music Ministry: We are in need of people with instrumental talent in music (organ, guitar, piano, wind or string instruments) to assist at our expanded weekend Mass schedule. Also, if you have a decent singing voice, we encourage you to sign up as a cantor. Training will be provided. Call the rectory and leave a message or see one of the organists after the weekend Masses. Thank you.

Fun Food Fest: Fellow parishioners have been working hard to prepare for our annual festival of great food. This event is a parish-wide effort ~ everyone should do something to help whether that means actually making food for the festival, working on the day of the food fest, making donations to defray the costs of the event or inviting other family members and friends to enjoy the food and fellowship. Our parish depends of your generous support. Thank you!

Coming in the Fall: We will be presenting a DVD program by Bishop Robert Barron entitled “The Mass”. This video will help us all grow in a deeper appreciation of Divine Worship in the Eucharist when we join together with the heavenly hosts at the Supper of the Lamb. This is a program everyone, especially liturgical ministers (music ministry, servers, lectors, Eucharistic ministers), should see and an opportunity for those who may have been away from the Sacraments to experience the Mass in a new light. Dates to be announced.

Please Note: Public parking is not permitted in our church parking lot except for those attending services or performing some other parish-related activity. Unauthorized vehicles will have their license plate photographed and will be subject to ticketing. Thank you for respecting our church property.

Jeopardy: No, we’re not talking about the popular game show, but rather the fact that the 6 p.m. Saturday Mass continuation is in jeopardy unless Liturgical Ministers begin to step forward ahead of time to be scheduled in the church bulletin for that Mass. I am grateful to those who fill in last minute to help out, but we need a regular month-by-month schedule for lectors, servers and Eucharistic ministers. Please call the church office or send an e-mail and leave your name, phone number and which week you are available to help with your particular ministry. Thank you!

Dressing the Part: Over the years, we have become considerably more casual about how we dress. There is, of course, nothing wrong with wanting to be comfortable and relaxed whether we are out with family or just enjoying some time off. But, there are situations in which more formal clothing is the norm. Adults in many professions have uniforms which they wear when they are “on the job” and representing the institution of which they are a part (nurses, police, teachers, certain company employees, for example). Children in Catholic schools (and also some public schools) and organizations wear uniforms (scouts, school bands, for example). When we are performing some liturgical ministry in church, more formal clothing is the norm. Servers wear albs over their street clothes when they are acting as servers at Mass. The Presider wears an alb and chasuble. Since lectors, music ministers and Eucharistic ministers are also performing some liturgical functions at Mass, it’s appropriate for them to dress more formally since they do not wear albs. Shorts or swimwear are inappropriate; dresses and suits better reflect the solemn duty that each liturgical minister performs at the altar. (It’s understood that those who offer to fill in last minute should not hesitate to step forward because they are not properly dressed, however.) What we wear when we are acting in our liturgical function does in a real way reflect our sense of the honor we have been given to serve at the altar of the Lord as lectors, servers, Eucharistic and music ministers. Thanks for “dressing the part” at Holy Mass.
