

Song after Communion

LOVE SO GREAT- Song by David Ware and Hillsong Worship

Your love so great
Jesus in all things
I've seen a glimpse of Your heart
A billion years
Still I'll be singing
How can I praise You enough
How can I praise You enough

You are the Lord Almighty
Outshining all the stars in glory
Your love is like the wildest
ocean
Oh, nothing else compares

Creation calls
All to the Savior
We are alive for Your praise
In earth and sky, no one is higher
Our God of wonders You reign
Our God of wonders You reign

You are the Lord Almighty
Outshining all the stars in glory
Your love is like the wildest
ocean
Oh, nothing else compares

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles (1.1–11)

In the first book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus did and taught from the beginning until the day when he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen. After his suffering he presented himself alive to them by many convincing proofs, appearing to them during forty days and speaking about the kingdom of God. While staying with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for the promise of the Father. ‘This,’ he said, ‘is what you have heard from me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.’ So when they had come together, they asked him, ‘Lord, is this the time when you will restore the kingdom to Israel?’ He replied, ‘It is not for you to know the times or periods that the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.’ When he had said this, as they were watching, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. While he was going and they were gazing up towards heaven, suddenly two men in white robes stood by them. They said, ‘Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking up towards heaven? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.’

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 47: 2-3, 6-7, 8-9

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord

All you peoples, clap your hands, shout to God with cries of gladness, for the Lord, the Most High, the awesome, is the great king over all the earth.

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord

God mounts his throne amid shouts of joy: the Lord, amid trumpet blasts. Sing praise to God, sing praise; sing praise to our king, sing praise

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord

For king of all the earth is God, sing hymns of praise. God reigns over the nations, God sits upon his holy throne

God mounts his throne to shouts of joy: a blare of trumpets for the Lord

A reading from the letter of Paul to the Ephesians (1.15–23)

I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love towards all the saints, and for this reason I do not cease to give thanks for you as I remember you in my prayers. I pray that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation as you come to know him, so that, with the eyes of your heart enlightened, you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance among the saints, and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power for us who believe, according to the working of his great power. God put this power to work in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the age to come. And he has put all things under his feet and has made him the head over all things for the church, which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

Sung Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia All: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

Go and teach all nations says the Lord; I am with you always, until the end of the world.

All: Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia

The Gospel of Luke (24.44–53)

The Lord be with you. All: And also with you

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to the disciples, ‘These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you – that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.’ Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, ‘Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.’ Then he led them out as far as Bethany, and, lifting up his hands, he blessed them. While he was blessing them, he withdrew from them and was carried up into heaven. And they worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy; and they were continually in the temple blessing God.
