Together We Do What We Cannot Do Alone

Blue's News

ECON-LP is here. The goal has been to provide our lay people with training to share the gospel with their neighbors. We have an impressive group of leaders who can equip believers in sharing their faith in everyday circumstances. September 10th. We are preparing for 200 to attend. Encourage your people to attend. Register online at the site listed on the flyer. (See Page 3)

ELBA Annual Meeting: Monday, October 3rd, Walker Baptist Church, 10696 Florida Boulevard, Walker, 6:30. Be sure to elect your messengers to attend this meeting. Dr. Jason McNaughten, pastor of Walker Baptist Church will bring the Annual Sermon.

Connect1Child: Dr. Perry Hancock with the Louisiana Baptist Children's Home recently met with a group of ELBA pastors to discuss a partnership with ELBA for Connect1Child. This is a Louisiana Baptist Children's Home Foster Care and Adoption Initiative partnering with associational churches to provide a foster home for the foster children of Livingston Parish. The Children's Home is contracted with the Louisiana DCFS to provide recruitment, vetting, and oversight of Foster Parents. The program's goal is to address the overwhelming need for foster care in Livingston Parish with each church praying for God to raise up at least one family committed to caring for foster children, and the church or ELBA churches surrounding this family with support and care. This care would include helping with supplies, clothes, furniture, and childcare to assist the foster parents when needed for grocery shopping, doctor's visits, and even a date night for the parents. Dr. Larry Hubbard, our Moderator, is leading this mission-ministry effort. Expect to hear more on this possibility in coming days.

Here is a word from me for our churches. Chris Tomlin has done well to modernize this hymn for another generation to enjoy. Do not miss the third verse. See you at ECON-LP!

I stand amazed in the presence He took my sins and my sorrows,

Of Jesus the Nazarene, He made them His very own;

And wonder how He could love me, He bore the burden to Calv'ry, A sinner, condemned, unclean.

And suffered and died alone.

Refrain Refrain

For me it was in the garden

When the ransomed in glory

He prayed, "Not my will, but Thine."

His face I at last shall see,

'Twill be my joy thro' the ages

But sweat-drops of blood for mine. To sing of His love for me.

Refrain Refrain

Refrain: How marvelous! How wonderful! And my song shall ever be: How marvelous! How wonderful! Is my Savior's love for me!
