BROCKTON — Split end Randy Horton and quarterback Fred Beissner teamed up for a 30-yard, final-quarter pass completion to lift the Brockton Oilers to a 14-7 win over the Middleboro Cobras in Saturday night's Eastern Football League contest.

Beissner scored on a two-yard rush in the third quarter to give the Oilers a 6-0 lead, but Middleboro answered in the fourth on an eight-yard rush by Jeff Rodman and the extra point by Ernie Branco.

Beissner followed Horton's reception with a pass to Kim Langway for the two-point conversion, improving Brockton to 2-3.
