1998 EFL Outlook

On January 15 1998, Publisher Mike Cline of "GAME FACE" magazine In Chicago called the 1997 Marlboro Shamrocks "America's Premier Minor League Football Team."

Coach Bob Brennan and his tam compiled a 17-0 record, repeated for the seventh consecutive EFL championship, and won two National Minor League titles, beating Racine, Wisconsin of the (USFA) United States Football Association, 21-14 in the finals, and then defeating the Virginia Ravens of the (AFA) American Football Association, 37-12 in the finals. It was the only time that a team won two national championships in the same year.

Brennan's Shams have now won four national titles and were finalists in two over the last six years. Coach Brennan has now extended his overall record to 126-16-0 and is currently on a 45 league game win streak, good for sixth place in the nation in the record books.

In National Minor League football, the AFA in 1997 named Shamrocks QB Dave Palazzi the Player of the Year; Bob Brennan, Coach of the Year; and Bob Kays, Executive of the Year. All three were inducted into the AFA Hall of Fame.

Inductees into the AFA Hall of Fame in 1997 include former player Rich Young, executive Billy Mouradian, and manager, Kevin McCarthy, ail three from the Hyde Park [Boston] Cowboys. Another inductee was former Shamrock player Bill LaFreniere, along with the current owner and executive of the Marlboro Shamrocks, Bob Kays.

There are two new coaches in the league this year: Edward Penn, a former 17 year player and an assistant for four years, and also an assistant at Stoughton High School, is the Randolph Oilers' new mentor. Scott Boyle will direct the New Hampshire WolfPack, a new team in its first year in the EFL.

Pre-season consensus among the coaches is that Marlboro is again the team to beat this season, with the Shamrocks having many veteran players returning from their banner 1997 season. Shamrocks Coach Brennan feels that it will be an improved

HISTORY OF THE LEAGUE

League names: New England Football Conference, North Shore Football Conference, North Atlantic Football Conference, Eastern Pro Football Conference, EASTERN FOOTBALL LEAGUE....

Formed in 1961, the EFL will kick off its 38th Anniversary Season on July 11, 1998. It is the oldest surviving amateur football leagues in the United States and has participated in the states of Maine, New Hampshire, New York, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Connecticut and Massachusetts. The EFL has gone through five name changes, 71 towns, communities and cities, and gained five national titles - Mitchell Memorial Club of Middleboro in 1988 and the Marlboro Shamrocks in 1993 and 1994, and two titles in 1997 - the American Football Association and the United States Football Association titles - both teams from Massachusetts. A number of players have made the pro ranks, going back to the playing days of Butch Songin of Boston and Tom Dempsey of Philadelphia. Quarterback Dave Palazzi of the Marlboro Shamrocks, former UMASS standout, will be returning as the premier player of the league.

The longest continuous service to the EFL (38 years) is held by Commissioner George E. Murphy. Bob Brennan, the coach of the Marlboro Shamrocks, has won the EFL title the last seven consecutive years, and currently owns a 126-16-0 record.

Eighteen individuals have been inducted into the AFA (American Football Association) Hall of Fame, and 20 have been inducted into the USFA (United States Football Association).

Records show that only four players have rushed for 1000 yards or more in a 10 game season, the latest being Bernard Wiley of the Hockomock Colts in 1991, who rushed for 1192 yards. There are a number of other records set in the league, including the longest field goal - 52 yards, most kicking points - 92, longest pass interception return - 103 yards, longest fumble return - 99 yards, longest kickoff return - 102 yards, and currently a 45 EFL game winning streak, by the Marlboro Shamrocks, ranked 6th in the national record books, and still counting.

IT'S EXCITING FOOTBALL...IT'S THE BEST GAME IN TOWN!!!
