- 1999 SEASON -

EFL ADVANCE

Will the Marlboro supremacy of the Eastern Football League end this year? After all, they have won the league championship the last eight consecutive years, and also won 7 national titles.

Although the Shamrocks are picked on a yearly basis as the team to beat because of its star studded team, and the coaching of veteran Bob Brennan, this year may be different as the league teams, more than ever, are ready to end the Shamrocks domination of the league, and are "knocking on the door" as one commented.

Last year, the Middleboro Cobras came within one game of tying Marlboro for the league title, upsetting the Shamrocks, and stopping their league win streak of 54 consecutive games.

This year, the EFL dropped New Hampshire, but added three new teams to its membership; The Connecticut Chiefs, Hartford Mustangs also from Connecticut, and the Springfield Blitz from Massachusetts. The Connecticut Chiefs were 6 - 4 in the Empire League (New York) but came on strong in the playoffs and were beaten in the finals by a close score.

The Hartford Mustangs were 8 - 2 in the Garden State Football League (New Jersey) and will help to balance the league.

For the past two years the Boston Cowboys have been playing the Shamrocks tough, both in regular season play and in the playoff finals. They have been knocking at the Shamrocks door, losing games by only a few points.

The Cowboys match up very well against the Shamrocks, probably the best in the league, and probably have the best chance of any team to upset Marlboro. Coach Fred Rihbany (Cowboys) hopes to have a championship combination with the return of key players and influx of new players.

The Middleboro Cobras, Connecticut Chiefs and also the Hartford Mustangs will be heard, along with the third newcomer, the Springfield Blitz.

The Randolph Oilers are always sleepers in the league while the Charlestown Townies have shown great promise. Meanwhile the hardworking Main Blizzard hope to improve on their last year record.

HISTORY OF THE LEAGUE

League names: New England Football Conference, North Shore Football Conference, North Atlantic Football Conference, Eastern Pro Football Conference, EASTERN FOOTBALL LEAGUE....

Formed in 1961, the EFL will kick off its 39th Anniversary Season on July 10, 1999. It is the oldest surviving amateur football league in the United States and has participated in the states of Maine, New Hampshire, New York, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Connecticut and Massachusetts. The EFL has gone through five name changes, 74 towns, communities and cities, and gained six national titles – Mitchell Memorial Club of Middleboro in 1988 and the Marlboro Shamrocks in 1993 and 1994, and two titles in 1997 – the American Football Association and the United States Football Association titles – both teams from Massachusetts. A number of players have made the pro ranks, going back to the playing days of Butch Songin of Boston and Tom Dempsey of Philadelphia. Quarterback Dave Palazzi of the Marlboro Shamrocks, former UMASS standout, will be returning as the premier player of the league.

The longest continuous service to the EFL (39 years) is held by Commissioner George E. Murphy. Bob Brennan, the coach of the Marlboro Shamrocks, has won the EFL title the last eight consecutive years, and currently owns a 145-17-0 record. His consecutive league winning streak (54) came to a halt last year when Middleboro upset the Shamrocks 9 to 7.

Twenty-one individuals have been inducted into the AFA (American Football Association) Hall of Fame, and 20 have been inducted into the USFA (United States Football Association).

Records show that only four players have rushed for 1000 yards or more in a 10 game season, the latest being Bernard Wiley of the Hockomock Colts in 1991, who rushed for 1192 yards. There are a number of other records set in the league, including the longest field goal – 52 yards, most kicking points – 92, longest pass interception return – 103 yards, longest fumble return – 99 yards, longest kickoff return - 102 yards, and currently a 54 EFL game winning streak, by the Marlboro Shamrocks, ranked 6th in the national record books.

IT'S EXCITING FOOTBALL...IT'S THE BEST GAME IN TOWN!!!

Teams joining the EFL must have a home field with lights for night games. Locker and shower facilities must also be available for both the home and visiting team.

New franchises must pay a new franchise fee and post a $1,250 performance bond. After completing one successful season a partial refund of the performance bond will be returned to the franchise.
