The Randolph Oilers and quarterback Ryan Myers showed no signs of rust in their first Eastern Football League game of the season, beating the Rhode Island Prowlers, 41-8, Friday night at Randolph High School.

Myers figured in six touchdowns, the first five in the air and all within the first half and the sixth on a 30-yard run up the middle in the second half. Wide receiver Andre Barbosa-Penn caught three scores, while Vinnie Ventosi and Dana Jones caught one apiece.

Kevin Callahan and Brian Berg played well defensively for the Oilers. Callahan recorded 4 1/2 sacks while Berg finished with three and a fumble recovery.
