

Randolph falls in EFL opener despite solid running game

The Patriot Ledger Quincy, MA

July 7, 2007

The Randolph Oilers fell to the visiting Boston Bandits, 21-6, in the opening game of the Eastern Football League season on Friday night.

J.T. Nickley, rushing behind stellar offensive tackles Pete Hogan and T.D. Thompson, rushed for 109 yards, including a 7-yard touchdown, for the Oilers.

Mark Royster made an interception, while Michael Davidson recovered a fumble for Randolph.