Ryan Myers who was an Oiler ball boy as a lad, before going on to great success as a local high school and college quarterback, has developed into one of the most versatile offensive weapons in the EFL.. Myers had his best season to-date as an Oiler in 2008, leading the Oilers to a regular season record of 7-2, and the Oilers tied for the best regular season record in the EFL.

Dan Carroll in just his second year in the EFL and as an Oiler has developed into the best multi-dimensional player in the league. In 2008 Carroll played both offense and defense, and returned punts and kicks. He finished the regular season with 8 interceptions in just 9 games, returning several for touchdowns. Additionally, he had six receiving touchdowns, and returned multiple kicks and punts for touchdowns as well. With blazing speed, elusiveness, and uncanny knack for the game, Carroll (or %DC+as his teammates call him) has the chance to take it the distance every time he touches the ball.
