The Panthers' running game led to two first-half scoring half drives. Earnest Sims scored on an 11-yard touchdown run in the first period and Maurice Rogers added a 52-yard touchdown run in the second quarter.

Both teams scored a safety in the third period, but Randolph's rally in the fourth period fell just short.

Mike Lear threw two touchdown passes in the fourth quarter for the Oilers. A 10-yard scoring pass to Chris Williams and another 10-yard scoring pass to Charles Williams.

Roxbury (2-1) got a 20-yard touchdown run by Rogers.

Randolph intercepted four Roxbury passes in the game, two by Brian Knopp and two by Mark Royster.
