NEWS RELEASE

Pheasants Forever & Quail Forever and partners hire habitat partnership specialist in Missouri

Katy Hulsey will work with state partners to benefit wildlife resources

ST. CLAIR, Mo. – October 3, 2023 – Pheasants Forever and Quail Forever in Missouri is excited to announce that Katy Hulsey was hired to serve as the Missouri habitat partnership specialist. She started her new position on October 2.

The habitat partnership specialist is a partnership position supported by the Natural Resources Conservation Service and the Missouri Dept. of Conservation. Hulsey will work with innovative approaches and partnerships to benefit the wildlife resources of Missouri. Taking on a wide array of responsibilities, Hulsey will provide support to our State Coordinator, staff, and partners in Missouri to develop and maintain important relationships that help with our mission delivery efforts.

“Katy joins the Missouri team with over six years of experience as an administrative professional. Beyond that, she is deeply rooted in The Habitat Organization’s mission and serves as the Secretary for the Missouri River Valley chapter of QF,” said Missouri State Coordinator Andrew White. “Her personality, understanding of the intricacies of this position, and deep passion for the outdoor world will benefit her greatly in this role working with partners, landowners, and with the Missouri Team.”

Hulsey is a Missouri native who has been passionate about conservation all her life. With an educational background in natural science and over six years’ experience as an administrative assistant, she is excited to bring this knowledge to the Pheasants Forever and Quail Forever team. When she isn’t working, she enjoys volunteer work and spending time outdoors with her husband and two children.
