The

Vagabond

Dedication

We the class of 1961 take pleasure in dedicating our Vagabond to Mrs. Eloise M. Canzeri. Throughout the past ten years her cheerful willingness to give of her talent for the pleasure and education of the entire student body and our community, has given her a lasting place in our memories.

In Memoriam

The class of 1961 dedicates this page in our yearbook to our former band director and friend, Mr. H. Bradford Cole, Sr., as a token of the deep appreciation of a grateful school and community, for a lifetime of service and leadership.

Principal's Message

To the Class of 1961:

The completion of your secondary school education is a mark of achievement of which you can be justly proud. You have finished a first phase in the process of education which is never ending.

For some of you this marks the last of formal education you will receive; for others this point is a stepping stone to higher education.

But for all of you the habit of learning must be continued for the rest of your life. The process of education never ends, and we can improve ourselves and our environment only as we continue learning.

Congratulations and very best wishes from all the faculty!

Grand March

Class

We, the Senior class of 1961, do here and now acclaim this document to be our last will and testament to be rendered to and read by the student body of the Hoosick Falls Central School:

To the Junior Class, since they are financially secure, we leave all our debts, in hopes that they someday will get out of the red.

To our sister class, the Sophomores, we leave instructions on how to get through school without working very hard.

To the Freshman Class, we leave a bit of advice, "Just follow in our footsteps and you will be the second best class to graduate from 'good old H.F.C.S.'"

To the faculty we bequeath our sincerity in appreciation for the time they have given us to further our education plus one bottle of aspirin for the extremely painful headaches we have caused.

Individually we bequest:

1. Jean Arnold leaves Sharon lonely.
2. Bev Baker leaves her prim and neat appearance to Leslie.
3. Dawn Baker leaves her book of "Forgotten Punchlines" in her locker.
4. Don Barnhart leaves his tan shoes and pink shoelaces to some "hep" underclassman.
5. Bobby Bissonette leaves Mrs. Pappas without a steady customer.
6. Peggy Blondin leaves, with her third finger, left hand, still occupied.
7. Denny Bornt leaves his "gunning" ability to John Harrison.
8. George Brown leaves his Clay Hill hike to Gary Grogan.
9. Leo Burke leaves his first chair position to Tom Chapman.
10. Yvonne Cadoret leaves her amazing memory to some struggling underclassmen.
11. Cathy Chapman leaves Mrs. C. minus a good accompanist.
12. Arlene Cornell leaves, still s-t-r-e-t-c-h-i-n-g for the top of her locker.
13. Sandy Dean leaves Jack walking alone.
14. Larry DeLuca leaves, dreaming of that white Simca.
15. Dickie Drake leaves for Canton Aggie School.
16. Barb Eldred leaves her Varsity Cheerleading position to Elaine.
17. Jeanne Eldred Leaves the J.V. Squad minus a perk and peppy Cheerleader.
18. Paul Fink leaves no thought unsaid.
19. Nancy Goodermote leaves as quietly as she came.
20. Phil Hansen leaves his left-over English snacks to the sixth graders.
21. Ralph Helft leaves Mr. Murphy still wondering.
22. Janet King leaves her cheerfulness to any deserving underclassman, (especially on Monday morning.)
23. Clara LeBarron leaves still asking, "who, what, why, where, and when."
24. Ruth Leibensberger leaves, ready and eager to rejoin Irene.

Will

25. Gail Lohnes leaves French, remorsefully.
26. Linda McClure leaves her formula for permanent blond hair to Linda Scriven.
27. Joey Magisano leaves for "them thar hills."
28. Walt Marks leaves his part-time school plan to some ambitious underclassman.
29. Cherry Marsh leaves to complete her latest book, "Marsh's Basketball Rules, Revised."
30. Sharon Mason leaves with just one more joke to tell.
31. Kathy Mello leaves for her "One-Man Show" in New York's Museum of Modern Art.
32. Eileen Merrill leaves her cheery? good mornings to everyone else who hates to get up in the morning.
33. Donna Millington leaves finally proving that all red heads haven't a bad temper.
34. Dick Millington leaves four pounds of rubber in front of the gym door for some Freshman to clean up.
35. Diane Moll leaves, still writing letters to a certain Marine.
36. Paula Mosely leaves her secret gum-chewing ability to anyone who can get away with it.
37. JoAnne Neaton leaves for her "Kangaroo Look-out Tower" in Petersburg.
38. Joey Neigoda leaves H.F.C.S. minus one good worker.
39. Sherry Norton leaves her textbooks engraved with "Jerry" to someone with a good eraser.
40. Helen Paddock leaves to set up housekeeping.
41. Bill Peabody leaves yelling "Hiyo Silver."
42. Harold Peckham leaves in his "hot" Ford.
43. Patti Peereboom leaves her "dainty" sneakers to the U.S. Army for use in combat practice.
44. Billy Provensal leaves Trig to someone with a softer head than his.
45. Forrie Reed leaves Coach minus a good football player.
46. Gil Rowley leaves his closely guarded formula for tallies to Doug Pokines.
47. Judy Russell leaves her classmates still wondering how she does it!
48. Kathy Salluzzo leaves inquiring about the price of a Kennedy family portrait.
49. Duane Schneider leaves all school rules broken.
50. Sharon Sherman leaves with Gene in her car, or is it his?
51. Mary Lou Simmons leaves, wishing she was a member of the class of '62.
52. Mary Ann Sluzas leaves her naturally curly hair to someone with "nightly pin-up problems."
53. Judi Spendiff leaves her ability to concentrate in study hall to Skinner.
54. Helen Starr leaves, quietly.
55. Marlene Straub leaves Mrs. V with an eyebrow still up for her gum chewing.
56. Byron Towslee leaves telling the Freshmen that there are only two ways to handle women, and no one knows either one of them.
57. Roland Walker leaves Mr. Peckham still calling for his back compositions.
58. Tom Webster, "I leave -- aaahhh thank goodness."
59. Alan White leaves to "putter" in his father's garage.
60. Nancy Wysocki leaves, still amazed over her newly acquired appointment.

Class

A. P. May 29:

White House Press Secretary Kathryn A. Salluzzo announced today the full report of the European good will tour. On May 1, President Fink appointed Vice President Cathleen Chapman, the first woman Vice President in United States history, to head a good will delegation abroad. The Vice President was accompanied by secretary of State, Philip Hansen; Secretary of the Treasury Gail Lohnes; Ambassador to the United Nations, Mary Ann Sluzas and Security Relations Advisor, Yvonne Cadoret.

The group arrived by jet, at London Airport late May 3rd and were greeted by Ambassador to the Court of St. James, Dame Judith Russell, General of the Army Richard Drake; Major William Provensal and his staff Sergeant Jean Arnold, and Lieutenant William Peabody, who were driven to the Airport by Master Sgt. Clara Le Barron. While in London, they attended a banquet at Buckingham Palace, given in their honor by the Queen. The dinner was beautifully prepared by Palace Chefs, Joe Magisano and Roland Walker, after which their portraits were taken with the poet Lord Byron Towalee, by court photographer Donald Barnhart. Before they left merry old England, they were accompanied to Sherwood Forest, by the head of the International Lumberman's Association, Harold Peckham Jr. The delegation left by boat across the English Channel to France. The group was met at Calais by American Ambassador Sharon Mason. They then proceeded to Paris for the advanced showing of the latest fashions from the House of Mello. The models for the day were Sandra Dean, Barbara and Jean Eldred. The group stayed at the Webster Hilton Hotel.

Prophecy

Next stop on the journey was Berlin, where they discussed Scientific Progress with the noted Nuclear Scientists and Nobel Peace Prize winner Dr. Ralph Von Helft, and Dr. Walter Markiewicz. Drs. Von Helft and Markiewicz recently sent the first woman astronaut, Ruth Liebensperger, to the moon, aboard the Helmar rocket.

On the 17th of May, while flying to Berlin, the pilot and co-pilot Duane Schneider and Robert Bissonette along with stewardesses Marlene Straub, Diane Moll and Donna Millington made an emergency landing near the Swiss border. Red Cross workers Helen Paddock, Janet King, Helen Starr, Nancy Goodermote and Dr. Forrest Reed were on hand in case any casualties prevailed. The group then changed planes and proceeded on to Berlin for a three day rest at the Swiss Falls Motel. The world famous resort and motel is owned and operated by the former Olympic pole vaulting champion Gilbert Rowley. They enjoyed skiing with Cheryl Marsh and Denny Bornt, the skiing instructors. Also vacationing at the resort were one time Miss America Sherry Norton and Mr. Universe, George Brown.

After three days rest, the delegation motored to Italy in Hawks Rent-a-Car Service. Their first stop in Italy was Milan. While there, they attended the premiere "The Hair Dressers of Seville," an opera written by Sharon Sherman. The leading roles were sung by Dawn Baker, Paula Moseley, and Beverly Baker. In Rome the party was received by Joseph Cardinal Niegoda, representative to the Vatican, after which they all had a traditional Italian dinner at Mama Mary Leeohnes*. (con't. page 44)

The Delegation next spent a day at the Cannes Film Festival where they viewed movie premieres with film stars Patrice Peereboom, Eileen Merrill and Mary L. Simmones. (con't, page 44)

From there they traveled on to Madrid their last stop of the tour. In the best of Spanish tradition they attended the annual El Toro Bullfight with the world famous toreador Senor Alan White.

On the 22nd, the delegation left Madrid for Lisbon where they boarded the S. S. "Hoosier" designed by the engineering firm of DeLuca and Millington. On their first night out they dined with the Captain Leo Burke, the ship's social director Arlene Cornell and Dr. L. McClure renowned pediatrician. Also at the captain's table were Margaret Blondin and Nancy Wysocki, famous hair stylists returning from their annual trip to Paris, JoAnn Neaton Head of General Mills, American multi-millionaire farmer John Stearns and Socialite Judi Spendiff, who was returning from her seventh trip around the world.

The delegation docked in New York harbor on the 28th, and returned to Washington for a conference with the President. Informed sources report their trip was highly successful in regaining United States prestige abroad.

Varsity Basketball

At the time of this printing our Varsity Team is holding first place in the Washington County League, with a record of ten wins and two losses. We hope that, when you read this, we will have won the League Championship.

The J.V. Basketball team is winning about 50% of its games so far this season, and is showing great improvement from game to game.

There are many Freshmen on the squad so inexperience has been one main reason for the 50% win rate. They hope that the experience gained thus far will help them to play a better brand of ball for the rest of the season.

Football
