Mom: Thanks for all the support you have given me. You've given me all you got and you've always been there for me.

Wil: I'm glad I have a brother like you. You have taught me a lot and it's probably the other way around too.

Jessy: I've known you all my life and you're like a sister to me. I hope things will get better in the future. Don't make the same mistakes you've done in the past.

Liz: I'm glad I met you because I will never forget you. You've been there when I needed it. I miss you, Osti.

Brad: We finally did it. It's been three years. Now we're going off to the real world. Take more responsibility. You're on your own now. I'm going to miss you. It's been lots of fun being with you. We've learned lots. Have fun in college, keep in touch.

Taka: We had lots of fun. I will never forget the time you came to my house. If I finally get a job, I will visit you in Japan.

Lix: It's been fun. I might bring you a present when I visit.

Pat: Make up your mind.

Susan: Too bad it had to end up like this. I was really getting to know you. Finally you get to have fun in college and do what you please. Keep in touch in the city.

Tom K. You're a good person to talk to. Have fun in college and stay mellow.

Zepi: It's been fun being with you. I'll probably visit you in Jersey.

Harley: Well, I'm not sure where to begin. You know me better than anyone. You've taught me to respect and be myself. It's been eight months, with a whole life ahead of us. Through the bad times, we made it through. Conquering the bad times is nothing, but at the same time it feels as if we've gone through a lifetime together. You've set aside my attitude to help me through some very difficult times. Thank you. I appreciate it more than you know. I adore you. You are a wonderful person — don't let anyone tell you different. Words can't describe my appreciation of you. I love you more than you'll ever know. A friend is a person who knows all about you, but likes you anyway. I Love You!

Tom: Thanks for helping me through the bad times, and being there for all of the good times. We've all had fun together. You always can make me laugh — Take care of your incompleteness points! Harley and I will see you this summer — take care. Get ready for the road trip.

Berman: We definitely had some pretty funny times together. You are a Preppy jock (Ha Ha) more times to come with Beavis and Butthead — never forget the stockings. We will see you soon — stay cool, prep.

Boots: You're the first person I ever met at Hoosac. I had fun with you — Good luck and keep in touch!

Lewisohn: (Rick, Adam, Zepi) We all had some good times. You guys are a laugh. Harley and I will see you soon.

Doug: You are a great advisor/friend. Thanks for being there through the "tough" times. Take care, I'll keep in touch.

Tibbits/Brad: "The surest way to spread a message is to ask someone to keep a secret." At least here.

Eric: "The universe and the ego are very similar. They never seem to end." Ha Ha. We had some good times together. Good Luck in the future.

Eric Koc: To my Korean friend — We will send you an invitation to our wedding!

Mark R: Good luck.

but I wouldn't be who I am without them."*

"Life is one big road with lots of signs, so when you're ridin' through the ruts, don't complicate your mind. Flee from hate, mischief, and jealousy. Don't bury your thoughts, Put your vision to reality."

— Bob Marley —

Mom and Dad: I want you to know how much I appreciate you. Although in the past it's probably been hard to believe it, I always have and always will. Thank You for everything.

To the rest of my family — (Aunt Betty, Uncle Ted, Susie, Ted, Tricia, Rich, etc.) — I Love you guys — Thank you so much!

Great Teachers are not great because they are successful in cramming the heads of their students with fact; they are great because they inspire their students to think for themselves and to think deeply about the matters of enduring importance to the full, rich, and responsible life which all men ought to strive to achieve.
