

THE NEXT STEP

Stepping forward,
into a whole new world.
Feeling anxious,
having to find something new.
Tired of being young.
I want some real respect.
Independence!
Nothing will stand in my way.

Headmaster's Greeting

To all the members of the class of '98

I think that you all know me well enough to realize that I use superlatives sparingly, reserving them for very special situations. The academic year 1997-98 has been one of those special situations. During my quarter-of-a-century association with Hoosac, I have not experienced a better year. Academically, athletically, developmentally, socially- - - the students at Hoosac have excelled and make me feel privileged to be their headmaster. And you, all 23 members of the Sixth Form, have been the leadership model for this excellence, guided by your senior prefect, Peter Lee. Congratulations to all of you. Thank you for being part of a milestone class here. Keep in touch.

I would like to express my perpetual gratitude towards my parents, my step-family, and family. Their unshakable love and support has guided and encouraged me to pursue my goals. Thank you all for the everlasting memories we shared. Thank you all.

Joe and Ellen: Together you have been my life. The givers, forgivers, and my inspirational leaders. Shaping and molding me for the outside world, a daring task, for even the bravest of souls. Thank you and I love you. A wise man once said, "My son, if you fail you must try, try, try again and one day you will triumph."

Dad: I really have enjoyed your recent presence in my life. I look forward to more.

Jay: Good times, falling back in mid conversation. Keep in touch and good luck. I will see you.

Naomi: I said I would, so I did, so here's to you and your future.

Jon Shelly and Justin: See you in Atlanta, where the adventure continues.

Mariano and Carlos: I can't think of anything to say except- Carlos you're the nastiest and Mariano, hike on. I'll see you in Brazil.

Michelle: Don't even say a thing. Thanks for whatever.

Rob: We do make them cry. Thanks for being true and keeping it real. Have fun in Lavino next year.

Andrew: If your many travels take you down south, don't forget to drop in. Just remember first impressions are not always the best ones, see ya!

Ryosuke: I will see you in Japan. Keep in touch.

Cannon: My roommate Peter, it was quiet, but it was quiet, that's about all. Except that we all became great friends in the end. Good luck to you all.

Senior class: Pat, Crystal, Eli, Jay, Clara, Youlie, 6th period hiking adventures and nature what faded bliss we shared.

And hail to the next senior class to make Hoosac bigger, better, and to strive for higher learning.

C.C.: It must have to do with the letter C (Cochran, Cummings) my two favorite teachers. I would not have been able to survive without your encouragement and friendship.

Mr. Cochran: I really can't say anything bad since I never really saw you in the morning, and your usually forgiving at lunch. I am grateful to have had you for an advisor, teacher, and chauffeur.

Mrs. Andersson: Thanks for being such a wonderful librarian.

To the crew back home: Battling, passing the time idling in cars, night after night, anybody for ping pong? Smoking cigarettes in the barn. Are these the best years of our lives? I sure doubt it, so here's to the future!

To all those that I didn't mention: Don't feel left out you made the experience real and I will remember you all. See ya!

Jennifer Condon

Because of the simple fact that each and every time I sat down and attempted to write this, it was either I couldn't think, or I could, but it seemed that the right words wouldn't come out, when I put my pen to paper. Plus I wanted to recognize so many people, and it frustrated me so much to the point that I resorted to this:

Much love to my mother and father, who put up with me for so long. Thank you for being there for me through whatever situation, I was challenged. You've taught me most of what I know about life.- I love you both very much...also to all my relatives who looked out for me- I love you Aunt Jo, Uncle John, Uncle Tom, Aunt Ag and Aunt Maddy- what you've done means more than a great deal to me; you have the deepest of my love and gratitude... to my Grandparents, you have been so good to me, and I love you so very much...to one of the closest friends I've known for most of my Hoosac time: Martine, I don't think you'll ever understand how much it means to me for you to take your time and energy to stand by me and be there in whatever situation I was stuck in. Never forget spring break in Albany- the cab drivers and Denny's 2:15 A.M. You know who your little sister is. And to another: Tara, I've always thought of you as my daughter. We've been through a lot this year, and we went through it together. We've had our ups and downs at this place called Hoosac, and sometimes it seemed that you made so much sense, when I thought I was gonna lose it, and you saved my sanity. I'll be expecting you in Albany this summer. Good luck with Lloyd, you both are good for each other and never forget that Mommy loves you; Sammy, you are just Sammy. But I love you for it. I know its been a hard year, for you, but because of me, things will get a whole lot easier. Just remember to be yourself and don't change for anyone- be happy with who you are. I won't forget you my Canadian friend, and I love ya lots.

Bruce: Thank you for being my dad, and not leaving even when I tried my hardest to push you away. I LOVE YOU.

In the beginning of this year, I was so pessimistic. The people I loved the most from last year, graduated, leaving a void that I thought couldn't be filled. Then I met some people who are equally as beautiful and just as unforgettable.

Alexis, Suzanne, and Natalie: Although you are totally different people you are all truly beautiful people. When I look at you, I see your strength, determination, and hearts. I've enjoyed my time with you guys.

Chang Hong: My little brother, you've always made me laugh, even when I didn't think I could. I hope you and Cindy stay together, because I know how much you love her. If you need anything, I'm always going to be there for you, just say when.

Fr. Griffith: You have helped me make sense of the world around me, when it all fell down. I can't thank you enough. I will always remember you and Mrs. Griffith as two of the most caring people I have ever met. Thank You.

Mr. and Mrs. Putney: You're both great people. Thank you for all your help and kindness.

Mary and Co.: It's been great knowing you guys. You're all such wonderful people.

I've often dreamed of a place set in the mountains. It's a truly beautiful place, one where the stars shine brighter, and the natural beauty more magnificent. It's a place where, all you have to do is look out at the mountains or up at the stars, and you'll feel totally peaceful. I didn't realize until very late in the year, that I had been dreaming about Hoosac. Only thing different, is that I'm surrounded by so many beautiful people, that have helped me grow into the person I am today. It's something that everyone here has been apart of in some way or another. I'm going to miss it. Thank You Mr. Wright, Mr. Driscoll, and Mr. L, for letting me be here.

Pat: I LOVE YOU. Thanks.
Youlie: You've been by my side through everything. I Love You.

Michelle: There are no words to explain what our friendship means to me. I have so much respect for you and your strength. I've learned so much from you and in my opinion you truly are...A DIVA. Keep it real. I Love You.

Ms. Cummings: I don't know where to begin you've helped me in so many ways. I know I didn't always show my appreciation in the best of ways, but it was always there. You've taught me so much and there are no words good enough to express, how much I want to thank you for everything.

To everyone else: Mariano, Carlos, Shelly, Jared, Naomi, Hayley, it's been fun!

Patrick O'Brien

Form VI: V. Soccer, Snowboarding, Lax, Proctor, Fall Play, Newspaper

Mom and Dad: Four years ago none of us thought that I would actually make it to this point, and I almost didn't, but you believed in me enough to make it possible to be where I am now. I know I didn't give you a tremendous amount to be proud of in the past few years, but you always supported me, and I thank you for that.

C.C.: Thank you for all of the support you have given me in not only school, but in life as well. You have made me believe in my own worth, and pushed me to new limits. You made me contemplate things about life that I had never previously thought possible. Thank you for being more than just a teacher and a friend.

Mariano: Colorado, N.Y.C. and Japan, Saturdays, What can I say? Without you my days would have been to say the least, uneventful. We had mad fun all year, and you gave me some memories that I won't be able to ever forget. But, throughout the year, you always made things interesting. Don't get to crazy next year my son, for I will be back to check.

Carlos: Colorado, N.Y.C., Japan, soon to be Rio and so many other memories that I can't even begin to talk about.

Michelle: You have been there for me throughout the year with humor and your own type of wisdom. Whenever I was feeling bad you could always crack me up. I know that no matter what path you chose in life it will not only be the one less traveled but you will take pride in hiking it. Thank you for everything. Yosemite! that's all that needs to be said.

Crystal: You know how I feel about writing this to you. There are things that I could never even come close to putting down on paper that I want to say. You've done so much for me this year, and I love you.

To 6th period crew: The only period where time stands still. You all know who you are because you are the few, the proud. There have been others who have tried to compare, but they just can't. To those of you who stay, you must bear the torch with pride. Don't ever let the fire be extinguished. But, for now, class is dismissed.

Young Jae: It's been fun chillin' with you this year, you're a good goalie and soon to be a good prefect.

Justin: When I first saw you I new that you were WAY Cool man, maybe even cooler than Asa. Well nobody can be quite that cool, but you came pretty close. We always had something to talk about. Here's to Maria!

To All others I didn't get to mention: Jay, Rob, Bubbles, Miller, Sang Woo, Sung Min, James, Youlie, Yusuke, Ryusuke and all other fools: Later!

Justin Birkett Patterson

Form VI: Soccer, Weight Training

Pat: You were the first person at Hoosac I met and I found you to be by far the coolest boy I know. You've been a good friend so keep in touch. Good luck in college.

Mariano and Carlos: you two put a whole new meaning to Brazilian, in my mind. I'll never forget you guys. Try not to get in that much trouble next year.

James and Mike: Well James we've had a lot of fun this year, and we became pretty good friends. I hope you and your brother do well next year.

Rafael: You're a really funny person and I was always able to laugh at you. You've been a good friend and I'll see you next year. Do good in college.

Young-Je: You were the phat one. Have fun as Prefect.

Yoon: Check you next year, playboy.

Jay: You get mad props. You're one of the only people I could actually workout with. Have fun in college.

— Sorry to all the boys I missed, I had to turn this thing in. But you know I love you and I'll miss you.

My Family: Thanks for getting me through High School. I wouldn't be here if it weren't for you guys.

Maria: I Love You!

Even though I stayed in Hoosac School for only 4 or 5 months, being in Hoosac was really a pleasure for me. All of my friends were so nice and kind to me, and also all teachers helped me out a lot. It makes me sad that I can't have all the fun anymore with the friends in Hoosac. I will miss everyone at Hoosac after I graduate, and I am really sad that I can't see some people anymore in my life, because they also graduate or change schools. All of the friends that I made at Hoosac are really valuable to me, and I won't forget them. And now I want to leave some messages to my friends. The boss of our community "Joon, Hyun" (Bear), the farm owner "Sung-Yoon" (Eric), "Hanseung", forever child and the master of games, "Jimmy Cook", always tough and rough, "James Lee", looks quiet but funny funny "Young-Jae", the most handsome horse "Jae-Hoon", My man from West Side "Sang-Won", the coolest senior prefect in the world "Peter Lee", both friend and old brother at the same time "Hee-Jong", the hip hop nation master and NAL SSEN DORI "Sang-Woo", forever smile but really curly boy "Wonpyo", my best Chinese brother "D.K. Yoon", forever with Cindy and always happy "Chang-Hong", the best looking guy(?) hmmm — "Sung-Min", the most kind in the world "Eun-Ho", looks so powerful but actually sweet "Seung-Seob", the shadow of the bear "Ji-Hong", the trouble maker, but made me happy "Mike Lee", the boss of the back streets "Shin-Hyung", the Joon Jr. and baby bear "Jung-Pil", the coolest voice and fell in love with Tam-bae "Yun", everything is funny to him "Suk-ku", the Jr. Yang-A-Chi from Tae-Chun "Suk-Keon", both soccer player and dancer "Won-Jun", my little brother and Shadow 1 of mine "Woen-Jae", worse trouble maker than Mike Lee "Sung-Duk" All of you guys filled pages of my life, and I am really thanks to God that I could be friends of them. Special thanks to "Tae-Ja-Yun-Pa" Don't forget the days that we were together. And I really really love you Erika, but I am sad that you change school next year. It will be harder to see you again, so make sure that you keep in touch with me O.K.? You are one lovely. Stay away from all troubles in new school, again keep in touch with me.
