

THE ECHO

1960

Cheryl.
 Well here you & I think I would probably write a book but then we don't want everyone to know some of the things we've done.
 Never forget the wonderful times we have had together and some that weren't quite so wonderful.
 Do you suppose maybe someday they will ship us off to Nome, Alaska? Let's hope we can go together if we go. Oh!
 by the way remember the vacuum cleaner. The long talks we have had are something to remember and then there are with our "brother"
 just in case Cheryl
 him and all friends
 Oh, Remember the night you stayed over.
 and we had company. ahem.

F E C O

Cheryl, my best friend, I miss you so much. I wish I could go to you every day. I wish I could be with you all the time. I wish I could be your secret. I wish I could be your friend. I wish I could be your love. I wish I could be your family. I wish I could be your everything. I wish I could be your Cheryl.
 My best love for you always your family

SAINT MARY'S ACADEMY

HOOSICK FALLS, NEW YORK

The Holy Mother of God has been our very own Mother all during our school days, especially during these last four swift years. She has been an understanding heart; always listening, always hearing, always answering. She has been a blessed friend; eager to help, longing to love, ready to forgive.

Blessed Mary, you have guided and inspired us by the life you led. You have prayed for us by your willing intercession. Truly, you have always shown yourself a Mother unto us. We, therefore, consecrate this issue of the Echo, to You, Most Holy Mother. Accept this consecration with a sceptre of burning love, from us, your children.

Dedication

For your understanding and generosity of heart when we needed it most. For your kindness and quiet sincerity. For the many hours you have so freely given us. For taking the entire class, its hopes and desires, into the bigness of your heart. For these qualities and countless others that have so endeared you to us, we thank you, Sister Marguerite, and with deep appreciation, lovingly and sincerely dedicate our 1960 ECHO to you.

May the blessing of Our Lady, to whom this book is consecrated, be with you always.

Administration

Rev. John J. Lamond O.S.A.
Pastor and Principal

Rev. Lawrence J. Gerrity O.S.A.

Rev. Ernest J. Autch O.S.A.

We came to Saint Mary's so that we might grow in the knowledge of God in order to love Him more. To our priests we owe a debt that we can never repay, for they have shown us most truly that to know God is to love Him. Now we hope that we shall continue strong in the fervor that they have instilled in us by their daily guidance and inspiration.

History of Saint Mary's Academy

With the new high school building rapidly progressing towards completion, it might be well to reflect for a few moments on the history of our school.

Established in 1891 by the Augustinian Fathers of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, St. Mary's, represented by Reverend Patrick J. O'Connell, O.S.A., welcomed eleven Sisters of Saint Joseph in April of that year. The sisters were requested as teachers in the school by Reverend James D. Waldron, O.S.A., who planned the school and purchased the property for it. Six hundred pupils were enrolled on September 8, 1891.

The first commencement exercises were held on June 28, 1894. Diplomas were presented to students who had completed a three year Academic Course. The following year a four year course was inaugurated, and in 1899, the name of the school was changed from Saint Mary's Academic School to Saint Mary's Academy.

Financial problems forced Father Daniel Regan, O.S.A., to make a house to house canvas for funds to keep the school in operation in 1895. The Walter A. Wood Company, Hoosick Falls' largest corporation, was no longer the prosperous enterprise it had once been and this turn in economic conditions had caused a population decrease which affected the school. The people proved their generosity, as they did during the pledge campaign in 1959, but so many had moved away that serious financial difficulties faced the parish. The remaining villagers rallied to the call of their pastor and the school remained in operation.

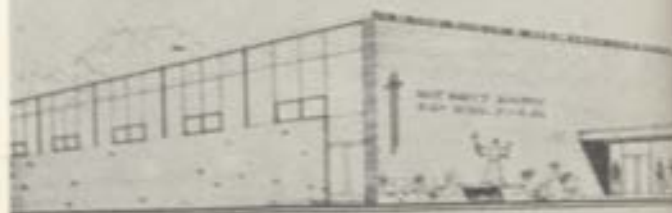

Through the years the Academy has turned out pupils who have been a credit to the teaching of the Sisters of Saint Joseph. Saint Mary's is the Alma Mater of many business and professional men and women. God has blessed our school with many vocations to the religious life, and a number of the sons and daughters of Saint Mary's are serving God well as priests and sisters.

At the present time, the Academy building is not adequate to fit the needs of the student body. The new building higher on the hill, which is expected to be ready for occupancy in September, will satisfy the demand for space and more adequate facilities. We, the class of 1960, sincerely hope that with better equipment, Saint Mary's will produce an even greater number of fine Catholic citizens.

The Latin II class struggle through their homework translation of Caesar's Gallic Wars.

Noreen Hyland and Joseph Rancourt display a Roman toga and sword to amused Freshmen in Latin I class.

Latin

Maureen McGrath and Carl Kempf show the intricacies of the Roman calendar to the attentive Latin III class.

Colleen Gorman translates Vergil's Aeneid as Helen Carroll, June Batza, Linda McGuire, and Constance Kelly anxiously (?) await their turns.

The French II class greets Sister Mary Gabriel with smiles as the day's lesson is about to begin.

French I students strive to learn the conjugation of irregular verbs.

French

French Club Officers:
President, Rachel Cote;
Vice-President, Judith Marcoux; Treasurer, Eileen Santerre; Secretary, Maureen Burke.

By conducting a Bingo game, Mary LaRoche proves to the members of the French Club that learning their numbers can be fun.

Sister Mary Gabriel indicates a topic in the Sunday Visitor to be discussed by the Freshmen in Religion class.

REL

Mary Jane Casey and Robert Dwyer point out the structure of the Mass on a feast of Our Lady to the attentive Sophomores.

Religion III class finds Paul Hyde reading on the Holy Ghost--Source of Inspiration, as the other Juniors follow in their books.

GION

The Seniors begin their Religion class with a prayer for God's help in choosing a state in life.

Under the watchful eye of Sister Marguerite, Ann Marie Nowak, James Shaw, Rosemary Hoag, and Dennis Casey demonstrate the electrolysis of water for the Chemistry class.

The Biology class studies the wonder of life from the simplest forms in a drop of water to the intricacies of the human heart.

Science

Anthony Salluzzo, John McGrath, Beverly Begin, Ann Gorman, members of the General Science class, recommend a proper diet for proper health.

Math 10 students are in the midst of proving a difficult theorem.

It's homework checking time in Algebra class as James La Porte, Noreen Hyland, and Judith Bromirski correctly solve their problems.

Math

Linda Smith demonstrates her ability to recognize geometric figures to Joanne Hanselman and Dennis and James Keegan during Math 11.

Some boys of the English II class act out Shakespeare's Julius Caesar.

The smiling faces of these Glee Club members reveal their joy of singing at special occasions.

At a reception honoring Father Lamond on his Silver Jubilee, these children demonstrate their dancing ability.

Father Lamond offers a Mass of Thanksgiving on the twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination.

On the first Friday of every month the high school students participate in a C. Y. A. holy hour.

Dressed in white finery, these girls illustrate their love of God by taking part in the procession during Forty Hours.

Patrick Galvin, Thomas Hyland and Terrance Hyland head the procession at the opening of Forty Hours Devotion in February.

Sodality Officers:
President, Colleen Gorman;
Vice President, Eileen
Merrill; Secretary, Kathryn
Salluzzo; Treasurer, Donna
Murphy; Corres. Secretary,
Linda Smith.

The B. V. M. Sodality, moderated by Father Autch, offers to Catholic girls of the village a chance to participate in many religious and social activities.

Blessed Virgin Mary Sodality

Our Santa Claus, often called "Walt", delights youngsters both at S. M. A. and the hospitals and orphanages visited by the Sodality at Christmas-time.

After the investiture ceremony, all the Sodalists enjoy a social.

These smiling "Bookworms" keep the library running smoothly and encourage good reading. Officers include: Judy Shaw, President; Rosemary Hoag, vice-President; and Connie Kelly, Treasurer.

Ann Marie Nowak addresses an attentive audience at one of our first assemblies.

As Juniors, we proudly received our rings from Father Lamond at an impressive blessing ceremony.

S. M. A. students board bus after a hard day at school.

P. J. Graney, chairman of the magazine drive, presents certificates to high salesmen, Daniel Green, Mary McKenna, John Gorman, and Anthony Salluzzo.

Last year's Sophomores represent S. M. A. in the Memorial Day Parade.

Colleen Gorman, prefect of the Sodality, crowns Blessed Mother on May Day.

Do You Remember

Our prayers go with Father.

Our thanks go to those who have done so much for us. These are the people who gave the altar

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The production of a yearbook involves the help and cooperation of a great number of people. We wish to extend our thanks to everyone who made this book possible.

In particular we would like to thank:

Father Lamond, whose leadership guided us in the development of our "ECHO".

Sister Marguerite, whose help and guidance were indispensable.

The Sisters of the faculty, whose wholehearted cooperation has meant so much.

The Student Body, whose interest was a constant encouragement.

Andrick's Studio, whose dependable service resulted in the distinctive quality of the photography of this publication.

Progress Publishers, whose printing was excellent in every respect.

Our Advertisers, Patrons, and Subscribers, whose support was so necessary for our success.

Cheryl,
Well, Hello
Bever, how are you?
How was your trip to after you you? Are you hurry to say to say is your When

you are you.
I had a ball, the day you still in up and think of I'll never hit the are you going to Love + Luck +
