HOOSICK FALLS, N. Y.

The industrious village of Hoosick Falls, N. Y. enjoys a population of nearly 10,000 and is located twenty-seven miles northeast of Troy, on the Fitchburg Railroad. Hoosick Falls is connected by trolley with North Hoosick, Walloomsac, N. Y. and Bennington, North Bennington, and East Bennington, Vermont. The Hoosick River furnishes water power for many manufacturing industries, principal among which may be mentioned the Walter A. Wood Mowing and Reaping Machine Co., Clark Bros. & Co. Knit Goods, Hoosick Falls Hosiery Co., Knobles & Johnston Machinery Co., manufacturers of paper mill machinery, and other minor interests.

Hoosick Falls is the center of a large farming country which accounts for the general prosperity of its merchants. The streets are well lighted and kept, and its educational and religious advantages are of high order, making the village especially desirable as a place of abode.

Among the principal newspapers of Hoosick Falls may be mentioned the Hoosick Falls Democrat and the Standard, both of which enjoy a good circulation.

The village has up-to-date express, telegraph, telephone and banking facilities.

THE Rochester Business Institute occupies the entire fifth and sixth floors of this building.

It has an annual attendance of over seven hundred students and prepares and places young men and women in positions as office managers, bookkeepers, stenographers, salesmen, commercial teachers, etc.

Over one thousand calls a year for our graduates.
Send postal card for prospectus.

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

Don't pay $15.00 to $18.00 for a name on a felt mattress. Dozens of factories are making them now. We warrant ours at $12.00 to be as good.
