- Large Group Activity/Warmup
- Skill Building / Choreography
- Snack Time
- Craft Time
- Obstacle Course
- Imaginative Play / Improvisational Dance
- Large Group Activity/Wrap Up

Who is eligible to attend ASAO Summer Classes?

All friends interested in movement are welcome to join us for class! Summer Classes are drop in to work with your schedule and commitment level. Try as many or as few as you'd like!

*Dancers in any class besides Grown Up & Me must be fully potty trained; diapers and pullups are only permitted in Grown Up & Me.

What is the dress code for an ASAO Summer Class?

Any athletic wear will work for class! Summertime is a great way to try classes before committing to an entire Academic Year. Dancers do not need to purchase dancewear until they are ready to commit to the fall semester. All athletic wear must cover bellies, booties, and boobies. Dancers attending an Acro class will need to tuck their shirts in before going upside down or may wear a leotard. Parents interested in purchasing dancewear are welcome to shop in the ASAO Boutique. Dress code colors do not apply until the Academic Year. All Dancers must wear shoes; they can be any dance shoe color/style unless it is a tap class; tap shoes can be borrowed from the ASAO donation bin.

How do I know what Level my dancer is in?

ASAO Dance Level Classes are designed for a typically developing dancer age 10+; levels differ based on flexibility, strength, stamina, classroom discipline, and skill acquisition. Skill objectives by level can be found on www.ASAOdance.com. If your dancer is unfamiliar with terminology on the level sheets, it is recommended to begin in Level One. At ASAO, we want dancers to be adequately challenged but not overwhelmed. Dancers are welcome to try multiple levels in one day (with or without their punch card) to see the difference and learn the various skill changes.

Who teaches the private lessons?

This summer, Miss Maddy and Miss Ashley are taking turns for private lesson instruction; the instructor depends on the style of dance requested and availability.
