

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Sunday, April 28, 2024

9:30 AM

INTRODUCTION

This Sunday's image of how the risen Christ shares his life with us is the image of the vine. Christ the vine and we the branches are alive in each other, in the mystery of mutual abiding described in the gospel and the first letter of John. Baptism makes us a part of Christ's living and life-giving self and makes us alive with Christ's life. As the vine brings food to the branches, Christ feeds us at his table. We are sent out to bear fruit for the life of the world.

WELCOME & RINGING OF THE BELL

Alleluia, Christ has Risen!

He has risen indeed, Alleluia! (x3)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

The congregation may stand.

Blessed be the holy Trinity, ✠ one God,
the fountain of living water,
the radiant sun of dawn,
our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer.
Amen.

Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness. Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

We give you thanks, O God, for in the beginning your Spirit moved over the waters and with your Word you created the world, calling forth life in which you took delight.
Through the waters of the flood you delivered Noah and his family.
Through the sea you led your people Israel from slavery into freedom.
Through lion's dens, wilderness exile, and fiery furnaces you protected and guided us. At the river your beloved Son was baptized by John and anointed with the Holy Spirit.

By our baptism into Jesus' death and resurrection you opened the floodgates of your reconciling love, freeing us to live as Easter people.
We rejoice with glad hearts,
giving all honor and praise to you,
through the risen Christ, our source of living water, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, now and forever. Amen.

GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.
And also with you.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and peace to God's peo - ple on earth.

Lord God, heav - en - ly King, al - might - y God and Fa - ther, we wor - ship you, we give you thanks, we praise you for your glo - ry.

in the glo - ry of God the Fa - ther. A - men.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray together.

O God, you give us your Son as the vine apart from whom we cannot live. Nourish our life in his resurrection, that we may bear the fruit of love and know the fullness of your joy, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

The congregation may be seated.

READING I

Acts 8:26-40

A reading from Acts.

²⁶An angel of the Lord said to Philip, "Get up and go toward the south to the road that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is a wilderness road.) ²⁷So he got up and went. Now there was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of the Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, in charge of her entire treasury. He had come to Jerusalem to worship ²⁸and was returning home; seated in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Isaiah. ²⁹Then the Spirit said to Philip, "Go over to this chariot and join it." ³⁰So Philip ran up to it and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah. He asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" ³¹He replied, "How can I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to get in and sit beside him. ³²Now the passage of the scripture that he was reading was this:

"Like a sheep he was led to the slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer,
so he does not open his mouth.

³³In his humiliation justice was denied him.

Who can describe his generation?

For his life is taken away from the earth."

³⁴The eunuch asked Philip, "About whom, may I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?" ³⁵Then Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he proclaimed to him the good news about Jesus. ³⁶As they were going along the road, they came to some water; and the eunuch said, "Look, here is water! What is to prevent me from being baptized?" ³⁸He commanded the chariot to stop, and both of them, Philip and the eunuch, went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. ³⁹When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; the eunuch saw him no more, and went on his way rejoicing. ⁴⁰But Philip found himself at Azotus, and as he was passing through the region, he proclaimed the good news to all the towns until he came to Caesarea.

Word of God, word of life.

Thanks be to God.

The congregation sings the refrain and the verses in bold.

READING 2

1 John 4:7-21

A reading from First John.

- ⁷Beloved, let us love one another, because love is from God; everyone who loves is born of God and knows God. ⁸Whoever does not love does not know God, for God is love. ⁹God's love was revealed among us in this way: God sent his only Son into the world so that we might live through him. ¹⁰In this is love, not that we loved God but that he loved us and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins. ¹¹Beloved, since God loved us so much, we also ought to love one another. ¹²No one has ever seen God; if we love one another, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us.
- ¹³By this we know that we abide in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.
- ¹⁴And we have seen and do testify that the Father has sent his Son as the Savior of the world.
- ¹⁵God abides in those who confess that Jesus is the Son of God, and they abide in God. ¹⁶So we have known and believe the love that God has for us.

God is love, and those who abide in love abide in God, and God abides in them. ¹⁷Love has been perfected among us in this: that we may have boldness on the day of judgment, because as he is, so are we in this world. ¹⁸There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear; for fear has to do with punishment, and whoever fears has not reached perfection in love. ¹⁹We love because he first loved us. ²⁰Those who say, "I love God," and hate their brothers or sisters, are liars; for those who do not love a brother or sister whom they have seen, cannot love God whom they have not seen. ²¹The commandment we have from him is this: those who love God must love their brothers and sisters also.

Word of God, word of life.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

The congregation may stand.

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the

GOSPEL

John 15:1-8

The gospel according to John.
Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said: ¹"I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. ²He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit. ³You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you. ⁴Abide in me as I abide in you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it abides in the vine, neither can you unless you abide in me. ⁵I am the vine, you are the branches. Those who abide in me and I in them bear much fruit, because apart from me you can do nothing. ⁶Whoever does not abide in me is thrown away like a branch and withers; such branches are gathered, thrown into the fire, and burned. ⁷If you abide in me, and my words abide in you, ask for whatever you wish, and it will be done for you. ⁸My Father is glorified by this, that you bear much fruit and become my disciples."

The gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, O Christ.

THE NICENE CREED

Let us confess our faith in the words of the Nicene Creed:

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary and became truly human.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Rejoicing that Jesus is risen and love has triumphed over fear, let us pray for the church, the world, and all those in need of good news. You may assume a posture of prayer.

A brief silence.

We pray for the church around the world, for all ministers, and for the mission of the gospel. Keep all the newly baptized and confirmed in your care. Cleanse our hearts with your word and help us to abide in you always. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

For the well-being of the earth and of all created things: for rivers and lakes, streams and estuaries, melting glaciers and polluted waters. Renew the face of the earth and shower us with your goodness. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

For the nations and all those in authority: for local, state, and national leaders, for elected representatives at every level, and for international organizations, that justice and peace may reign. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

For all those in need: for any experiencing homelessness or unemployment, for those fleeing from oppression or seeking asylum, and for all who are ill or suffering. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

For this congregation: for the caring ministries of this faith community, for all who visit and minister to one another, for all who take communion to homes or care centers, and for all who seek to share your love with the world. God of grace,
hear our prayer.

People of God, for what else do we pray for this day? You may share your prayers aloud or in the silence of your heart...

God of Grace,
hear our prayer.

With thanksgiving for the saints who rest from their labors. Help us, like them, to bear much fruit and to become your disciples, and at the last, bring us to that heavenly banquet where all will feast together at your table. God of grace,

hear our prayer.

The presiding minister concludes the prayers

Into your hands, most merciful God, we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your abiding love; through Jesus Christ, our resurrected and living Lord.

Amen.

THE PEACE

The peace of the Risen Christ be with you all.

And also with you.

You are invited to share a sign of peace with one another (wave, handshake, hug, etc.), honoring the personal boundaries of all. Those online may unmute and verbally share the peace.

The congregation may be seated.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

Do You Thirst?

by Mark Shepperd

Do you thirst child? Do you hunger?
Do you long for water flowing free?
Do you know that you can have it?
You can have it so abundantly!

Springs can flow within your soul
If you'll ask of me; I will make you overflow,
Come and drink of me.

Do you thirst, child? Do you hunger?
Do you long for bread to satisfy?
Do you know that you can have it?
You can have it so abundantly!

I can fill your hungering soul
If you'll sup with me; I have spread a feast for you.
Come and take of me.

Do you hunger? Do you thirst? Come and ask of me.

OFFERTORY VERSE

The congregation may stand.
Let the Vineyards Be Fruitful

Let the vine-yards be fruit-ful, Lord, and fill to the brim our cup of bless-ing. Gath-er a har-vest from the seeds that were sown, that we may be fed with the bread of life. Gath-er the hopes and dreams of all; u-nite them with the prayers we of-fer. Grace our ta-ble with your pres-ence, and give us a fore-taste of the feast to come.

OFFERTORY PRAYER

Let us pray together.

Risen One,
you call us to believe and bear fruit.
May the gifts that we offer here
be signs of your abiding love.
Form us to be your witnesses in the world, through Jesus Christ, our true vine. Amen.

DIALOGUE

The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

PREFACE

“... we praise your name and join their un-ending hymn:”

HOLY, HOLY, HOLY

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na. Ho - san-na. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho-san - na in the high - est.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

You are indeed holy, almighty and merciful God.
You are most holy,
and great is the majesty of your glory.

You so loved the world that you gave your only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him may not perish
but have eternal life.

We give you thanks for his coming into the world to fulfill for us your holy will and to accomplish all things for our salvation.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks;
broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
Take and eat; this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:

This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

Christ has died. Christ is ris - en. Christ will come a - gain.

Remembering, therefore, his salutary command, his life-giving passion and death, his glorious resurrection and ascension,
and the promise of his coming again,
we give thanks to you, O Lord God Almighty, not as we ought but as we are able;
we ask you mercifully to accept our praise and thanksgiving and with your Word and Holy Spirit to bless us, your servants, and these your own gifts of bread and wine, so that we and all who share in the body and blood of Christ may be filled with heavenly blessing and grace, and, receiving the forgiveness of sin,
may be formed to live as your holy people and be given our inheritance with all your saints.

To you, O God, Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer be all honor and glory in your holy church, now and foreve

A - men, a - men, a - men.

LORD'S PRAYER

Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us in the many and varied languages we hold dear...

Our God in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

INVITATION

Taste and see that the Lord is good. Come, for Christ first welcomed us.

COMMUNION

The congregation may be seated.

All are welcome to commune at Christ's table without exception! Please proceed down the center aisle at the direction of an usher. You may receive bread or request a gluten-free wafer. Please take a glass of wine (dark colored) or a glass of grape juice (light colored). After drinking, please place your empty glass in the basket before returning to your seat via the side aisle. If you would prefer to receive only a blessing, you may cross your arms across your chest to indicate this preference. If you would like to receive communion in your seat, please inform an usher, and the sacrament will be brought to you.

LAMB OF GOD

Lamb of God, you take a - way the sin of the world; have mer-cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sin of the world; have mer - cy on us. Lamb of God, you take a - way the

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Let us pray together.
Shepherding God,
you have prepared a table before us
and nourished us with your love.
Send us forth from this banquet to proclaim your goodness and share the abundant mercy of Jesus,
our redeemer and friend.
Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Confirmation Field Trip

The St. John's Confirmation class, along with the confirmation classes at Immanuel, Evanston and Grace, Evanston, will be taking a field trip to visit the Bahai Temple today, 12:30 pm – 2:00 pm. This is part of their interfaith class.

Sing with us for Pentecost!

This year, St. John's is joining with other local Lutheran churches for a joint Pentecost service at St. John's, and as part of that service, we're putting together a joint choir! Singers from Grace, Immanuel, and St. Timothy's have already signed up, so help represent St. John's in song. All the music will be simple, and there will be a short rehearsal at 9:30am before the 10:30 am service. Singers of all ages are welcome. If you are interested or have further questions, contact Luke Duroc-Danner (luke@stjohnswilmette.com)

Audrey Neace's Senior Recital

Come help us celebrate our wonderful soloist, Audrey Neace, at her senior recital. She will be performing in Northwestern's Galvin Recital Hall at 8:30pm on Sunday, June 2nd. The concert will be an hour long, and there will be a reception held afterwards. For more information or questions, contact Luke Duroc-Danner (luke@stjohnswilmette.com)

Are you a socially conscious individual?

Would you like to help us help our community? If so, you would be a great fit for St. John's EMF Team! This team steers annual distributions from our Extended Ministries Fund to ministries which align with our Vision, Mission, and Values. The Extended Ministries Fund has a few openings for Trustees and the commitment is light, but gratifying. This team typically meets once or twice in the spring and membership is for a three-year term. Please connect with Michel or Mylene if you might be interested.

Migrant Response Project

Buses continue to arrive at the Wilmette train station with migrants who have been transported here from Texas. The buses arrive unscheduled, and the Wilmette Police and volunteers try to assist the migrants to get "Take Care" packages and coats before they get on the train to Chicago processing centers. In connection with SaLT an organization in Highland Park, volunteers have packed bags with hygiene items, water and snack bars to give to the migrants when they leave the bus, along with winter coats that have been donated by the public.

Residents Heather Oliver and Debora Morris (also of the Wilmette Rotary Club) are the primary coordinators for the Wilmette rapid response team of volunteers. They are using our "Colorful" room downstairs to collect, sort and pack donations. Heather and Debora will be at the May 5 Coffee Hour to talk about the project and answer questions and tell you how you can help!

NOTES ON TODAY'S MUSIC

Mark Shepperd (b. ~1951) is an American organist, composer, and music teacher. Born in the Twin Cities, Mark earned his music degree at Augsburg University and later studied at the University of Minnesota. Since graduating, he spent the majority of his career as the Director of Music at Woodbury Lutheran Church along with joining the faculty at K&S Conservatory of Music where he taught composition and piano. As a composer, he was the winner of the John Ness Beck Foundation competition, VocalEssence competition, and American Composers Forum Christmas Carol contest.

Fanny Hensel, née Mendelssohn, (1805-1847) was a German pianist and composer, and the elder sister and confidante of the composer, Felix Mendelssohn. Felix himself described Fanny as the superior pianist, and she is reported to have memorized J.S. Bach's complete Well-Tempered Clavier by age 13. She remained a close musical advisor to Felix throughout his life, and the remaining letters between Felix and Fanny reveal how she influenced almost all of the final versions of Felix's works. However, she was not permitted to publish her own music by her family - although Felix did have some her works published under his name to get around this restriction. She married the painter William Hensel in 1829, and he encouraged her to publish her music under her own name for the first time. She died at 42 after suffering a stroke while leading rehearsals of one of her brother's cantatas; the strokes were likely congenital since it was the same cause of death as her brother, Felix, as well as both her parents and grandfather. Most of her approximated 500 musical compositions still exist only in manuscript form.
