

Corporate Social Responsibility Policy 2023

A The Atlas Project Support Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) policy refers to our environmental responsibility. Our company's existence is not an island onto itself. It's part of a more extensive system of people, values, other organizations, and nature. The social responsibility of a business is to give back to the world just as it gives to us.

Policy

Definition: Corporate Social Responsibility?

Our Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) policy outlines our efforts to give back to the world as it gives to us.

Scope

This policy applies to our company and its satellite locations. It may also refer to suppliers and partners.

Policy Elements

We want to be a responsible business that meets the highest standards of ethics and professionalism.

Our company's social responsibility falls under two categories: compliance and proactiveness. Compliance refers to our company's commitment to legality and willingness to observe community values. Proactiveness is

Compliance

Legality

Our company will:

- Respect the law
- Honor its internal policies
- Ensure that all its business operations are legitimate
- Keep every partnership and collaboration open and transparent

Business ethics

We'll always conduct business with integrity and respect for human rights. We'll promote the following:

- Safety and fair dealing
- Respect toward the consumer
- Anti-bribery and anti-corruption practices

Examples of Corporate Social Responsibility

Protecting the environment

Our company recognizes the need to protect the natural environment. Keeping our environment clean and unpolluted is a benefit to all. We'll always follow best practices when disposing of garbage and using chemical substances. Stewardship will also play an important role.

Protecting people

We'll ensure that we:

- Don't risk the health and safety of our employees and community.
- Avoid harming the lives of local and indigenous people.
- Support diversity and inclusion.

Human rights

Our company is dedicated to protecting human rights. We are a committed equal-opportunity employer and will abide by all fair labor practices. We'll ensure that our activities do not directly or indirectly violate human rights in any country (e.g., forced labor).

Proactiveness

Donations and aid

Our company may preserve a budget to make monetary donations. These donations will aim to:

- Advance the arts, education, and community events.
- Alleviate those in need.

Volunteering

Our company will encourage its employees to volunteer. They can volunteer through programs organized internally or externally. Our company may sponsor volunteering events from other organizations.

Preserving the environment

Apart from legal obligations, our company will proactively protect the environment. Examples of relevant activities include:

- Recycling
- Conserving energy

- Organizing reforestation excursions
- Using environmentally-friendly technologies

Supporting the community

Our company may initiate and support community investment and educational programs. For example, it may begin partnerships with vendors for constructing public buildings. It can help nonprofit organizations or movements promote global and local communities cultural and economic development.

Learning

We will actively invest in R&D. We will be open to suggestions and listen carefully to ideas. Our company will try to improve the way it operates continuously.

Our company is committed to the United Nations Global Compact. We'll readily act to promote our identity as a socially aware and responsible business. Management must communicate this policy on all levels. Managers are also responsible for resolving any CSR issues.
