Trusting GOD On Purpose!

Diane Simms

Praise GOD for allowing Man to function in free will! The ability to change our minds, to grow, to learn and to control ourselves. Instructions have been provided because the concept is not a new one. However, knowing what to do is one key element, but knowing “How to do it” wins and succeeds every time.

Over and over throughout our lives we are told to trust in the Lord, and in our minds we believe that we do. Is that a truthful reality? We can quote scripture after scripture stating what should be true, but is it really? Proverbs 3: 5 comes to mind because it is often quoted to remind us of the importance of trusting GOD. Do we live it or just quote it? The ultimate question for all of mankind is “What do You trust GOD with”? Do you ever consider GOD when making decisions? Do You Acknowledge GOD in all Your ways? Do You follow his direction once it is provided?

These are serious questions to ask yourself regularly, because it determines your intention, it makes the purpose of your actions clear. Is it Me or is it GOD? Psalms 37:4-7 gives the instruction and the outcome, trust, wait and rest in the Lord. Do You believe it? Do You Trust GOD to fulfill his WORD! We are told to lean Not to our own understanding.

I personally love Romans 8:16-29 because those verses re-assures me that all things work together for my good and I have an advocate who has predestined my steps if I obey and follow his guidance. Trust and Obedience are intentional actions to live by. Do not allow your walk with GOD and Your Journey through Life to be irrelevant. Joshua 1:9 We are commanded to be strong and of good courage to trust and obey without doubting GOD’s Word or his abilities to fulfill his Word. We can confidently believe that he knows the plans he has for us Jeremiah 29:11-14.

Even though life may get hard sometimes we are not alone we just have to seek his face and his will in each and every situation. Living life on purpose doesn’t mean we don’t have wants and desires of our own, but Instead we must learn how to align those wants and desires with the will of GOD to have the abundant life he promised. He knows best, he knows what each of us was created for and if he has already made those plans we should stay excited to know what those plans are. I guarantee we would make fewer mistakes and bad decisions if we first learn to make purposeful decisions and intentional choices to do it GOD's way instead of our own way.

Numbers 14: 7-23 clearly provides us with one of the few depictions available in scripture to prove how GOD feels when we don't trust him!!! In Ephesians 4:30 we are instructed to "Grieve Not the Holy Spirit of GOD". We definitely do not want GOD's wrath for lack of trust or disobedience! We have lived that already, we must learn from our Biblical Ancestors mistakes. Make sure your walk with GOD is relevant with little to no regrets due to disobedience or lack of trust!!!

Please remember GOD said it, We believe it, that's the end of it. It is not wise nor is it beneficial to doubt GOD! Psalms 46: 10-11 says he Will be exalted. Allow GOD to be your refuge and strength, the ever present help in times of trouble. This can only be accomplished with an intentional trust. It gives us the ability to rebuke and set aside every weight and the sin which doth so easily beset us, Hebrews 12:1-2.

So much is made plain and undeniable in the instructions that are given to us, we obey rules and follow guidelines every day, whether on our jobs or the rules of the road, or waiting your turn in line at the bank and we don't give those rules a second thought, but the instructions and guidelines given in the Word of GOD, we so easily question, debate and some even challenge.

1 Corinthians 15:58 being steadfast and unmovable should be all that is needed in the life of a believer to help them push back (quench) the fiery darts thrown at them or the doubting thoughts the darts trigger in our minds Ephesians 6:16. Keeping your whole armor on at all times, to keep us safe and aware of the presence of the evil we come in contact with daily. In no way am I saying to be a bible thumping Christian, but YES I am saying be secure and purposeful in your Faith and Trust in the Death, Burial, and Resurrection of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, Yehsua (Yahshua the transliteration in original Hebrew) Jesus, The only begotten Son of GOD, A member of the GODHEAD, GOD in the flesh that dwelt among us, whatever You are comfortable calling him make sure you know him for yourself, make sure You are calling upon him daily, discussing your life with him, asking for guidance and direction, making time for him and studying his Word.

James 4:8 don't be double minded because a double minded man is unstable in ALL his ways!!! It takes a conscious effort to Trust GOD on Purpose!!!

The Unwavering Relevance of God and His Word

Evangelist Stacie L. Daniels, MBA, BSN, RN

It is easy to recognize that as we evolve through time that laws, fashion, styles, music, and people change. In examining laws more carefully, former President John F. Kennedy passed the Affirmative Action (AA) legislation in 1961. This legislation compelled government contractors to take action in moving forward toward the goal of national “nondiscrimination.” The AA order recognized that systemic racism permeated society, particularly in academic institutions. Before the law was passed, people of color could not attend colleges and universities deemed as “white.” They were relegated to poorly funded and less prestigious historically black colleges and universities (HBCUs). Without question, this type of racism stood to impact the generational well-being of people of color. The AA order opened new doors of opportunities that eroded the barriers of racism in academic settings and later in workplace settings after President Lyndon Johnson signed an Executive Order in 1965 prohibiting employment discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, and national origin.

However, in June 2023 the United States Supreme Court ended the Affirmative Action rule in colleges and universities. As a result, this has sparked conversations surrounding whether to continue affirmative action in the workplace. Diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) efforts have proved favorable in “leveling the playing field” (in workplace settings) when it comes to fostering equal opportunity for everyone to thrive and be successful. Those who oppose DEI practices in the workplace are likely supporters of the Supreme Court’s decision. There have been other laws of the land passed including LGBTQ rights that have rapidly and profusely saturated the culture and practices of our world. Why am I pointing all of this out? It is a clear illustration of how through the evolution of time, people, laws, and ideas change. Notwithstanding this illustration, God nor His word never change. One of my favorite scriptures in the Bible that underlines this truth is found in Hebrews 13:8 where it declares “Jesus Christ the same, yesterday, and today, and forever.” The immutable or unchangeable nature of God and His Son Jesus Christ is demonstrated throughout scripture. Therefore, what God declares as holy, righteous, and true cannot be changed or disputed. His ways are inerrant and His Word is infallible. There is no doubt that every scripture in the Bible is relevant for not only this generation but every generation prior to this current generation and every generation to follow. The scripture teaches in 2 Timothy 3:16 “All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness.” All scripture is breathed from the heavenly Father. There are theological debates surrounding biblical interpretation and context of scripture but one cannot argue the fact that the biblical application of the Word of God in life is transformative. In addition, the Word of God has revealed itself to be true repeatedly. This generation is experiencing firsthand the mysteries of Revelation as its endtime prophecies directly given from Jesus Christ himself to John the Revelator continues to unfold.

There is no question that the given topical scripture of Romans 12:2 is not only relevant but true, weighty, and necessary. “And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God” Romans 12:2. If there was ever a time to live according to this command, it is now. It is evident that there is a huge paradigm shift in the realm of social movements, cultural norms, and government legislation. Further, even some religious groups have compromised godly standards to gain acceptance. The worldly system is diametrically opposed to kingdom living. The worldly system is influenced by Satan and his demonic forces. It has a foundation steeped in pride, power, greed, and money. These forces strategically influence entertainment, government, literature, science, games, ethics, religion, medicine, media, and the arts.

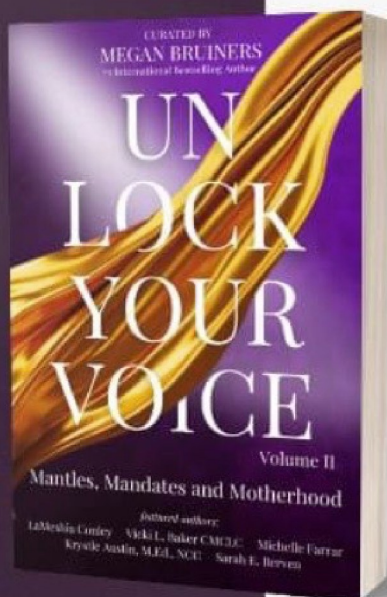

The battle wages on between good and evil for the souls of man. Thus, renewing the mind daily is necessary in crucifying fleshly appetites and staying aligned with what is pleasing to God. As believers we do not prescribe to the worldview but the spiritual truths in the Word of God, which is consistent and eternally relevant.

Don't Miss Your Opportunity

Dr. C. A. Dangerfield II

We go through life having various experiences that take us into many directions. Some are considered good while others can be very challenging based on our decisions. As we navigate through life we react and respond to every event. Sometimes we fail to understand that some of the decision also impact others in various ways, so snap decisions can be far reaching. It appears our society moves at warp speed not allowing for real consideration of our reach.

We also become easily sway due to other voices that truly don't have others in mind but are focused on their own agenda and when the dust clears you recognize you have been duped and you get caught up in the aftermath of your decision, they go untouched, and your credibility and integrity are greatly damaged.

All of our decisions must be lined up next to principles of God. If they appear to be out of alignment and cause on to go against God's covenants and commandments do not take the risk. Our obedience to God is imperative and should not draw you into compromising position. No man can provide you more than God no matter what they promise. When we allow ourselves to be caught up in the enticement it really questions our relationship with God.

A wise Man of God really school me on how to handle and navigate through hard decisions and that was to seek out the Word of God. As the scriptures do reference that there is nothing new under the son. It all has been tried before and there was an outcome that can be referenced in the Word of God. The issue is we have time for everything else but that which we were instructed by God to do and that is to study. 2 Timothy 2:15 KJV

[15] Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth. Furthermore, the Word instructs us to

1 Thessalonians 4:11, 12 KJV

[11] and that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you.

[12] that ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.

Which shows how we get caught up when we rush into things without all of the facts. Finding out it takes a lot more time to recover than if we had just followed God's Word effectively in the first place. It was given to us for a reason. Hmm, how many duplicated mistakes do we have to make before we actually take the time to study as we should be?

We simply embarrass ourselves especially when we keep making the same errors over and over again. Now who do we really have to blame. The four fingers are still pointing back in our direction. Our ability to study fortifies our relationship with God and provides us with a unlimited amount of wisdom and understanding. For those whom he has entrusted to be around us, get to see the benefits of being obedient to God's will. It also provides an illustration of His Word in action. For example, Jeremiah 29:11 KJV

[11] For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.

Colossians 4:8 KJV

[8] whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he might know your estate, and comfort your hearts.

As these scriptures manifest and are recognized by you having the ability to see God's hand effectively working in your life. You will grow a stronger bond of trust and wonder why you allowed yourself to listen to irrelevant voices. My prayer for you as you and I continue to grow in our trust and faith in God is that we will be able to always hear and recognize His voice. The most important one in our lives. May God continue to inspire you to live out your purpose in Him.

Something to really Consider.

Have you considered within yourself and ask yourself am I that blind, non-observant, arrogant and ignorant to the point that we feel that God will not respond to the things we are currently doing? The reason I bring this wakeup question to mind is based on the occurrences that are taking place every day. Sometimes our responses to them cause me to pause and wonder about a few things. Do we really think that we can exist without accountability to our Creator. He truly exists and is fully aware of our behavior whether it is good or bad. Why is it not understood that the covenants and commandments are very relevant to our time today and have not expired. Yet we compromise our obedience to justify our will and not His? Are we truly setting time for ourselves aside to study and have that one-on-one time with God in His Word so that the Holy Spirit can lead and guide us to His principles. Or are we allowing the world (Politicians and Peers) to dictate our behavior by our society norms? How stable has that been for you? In your observation have you noticed when our opportunity for grace as well as mercy is present, we find other ways not to show it towards others but make excuses. Within those areas where there is much vocal rejection on these opportunities, judgement appears as a reminder to wake us up less we find ourselves in a similar situation due to local destruction and devastation to remind us of God's grace. Please consider these things pray for God to open your eyes and understanding that you too can see and repent for your actions and study more. Shared in Love not judgement.

"Sometimes you have to cry loud and spare not".

A very wise woman of God once told me. "Sometimes you have to cry loud and spare not". When you see someone in deep error you must speak up and speak out. All of this political wrangling, threats and bullying definitely does not represent the characteristics nor the attributes of Jesus. When you align yourself up with the nonsense you run the risk of hearing these words at the most important time of your existence "Depart from me for I know you not ye worker of iniquity..." That means you have missed the mark and accepted being shut out. Ask yourself is it more important for me to align myself with man who does not control eternity or align myself with the risen savior who has all power in His hands. The Word of God teaches us that He made no representation for Himself.

Getting Ready for My Next

La Mesha Conley

My book was released last month and made the Amazon Bestseller list! I couldn't be more ecstatic. This will be my second bestselling book within 3 years. I enjoy writing more than I admit and although this was a collaborative piece I look forward to a full book composition. I wanted to share a short piece from my book. I read this part at the virtual launch to empower people:

“You have something to offer to the world.

Don't be tied down by the lies the enemy shares with you. Luke 4 (ESV) shows us how Jesus retaliated against Satan when Satan begged Jesus with lies and expected Jesus to bow down to him. Jesus combated Satan with the Word. In the same way, when doubt rears its head or when lies creep in to make you forget that God is still on the throne, you can combat it with the Word.

Listen when the Lord speaks. He is always speaking but are we listening? I only speak what Holy Spirit says. I don't add anything to it or take anything away from it. Listen and obey. Delayed obedience is still disobedience. Do it in a hurry. Move with urgency when it comes to God. Friend, it's time to walk it out.”

I have a new message and it's being refined. There is more where this is coming from. I am taking the stance to live more authentically and really show where my mindset is. I have had a few realizations over the past month that I share publicly here. I want it to be known my stance on all things.

My book encourages women to unlock their voice in motherhood with their mantle and their mandate. The five other authors have unique stories that will reach your soul. You can purchase a book here on my website. Non locals can expect to receive it within a week of purchase. I pray it is a blessing to you.

Really Give This Some Thought

Don't get caught in a gray area

We today are very critical of just about everything, everyone has an opinion. That's fine in the right perspective. But opinions are just opinions and that's not facts, usually they are made off what I heard or so in so told me. How hard do we try to gain knowledge from the original source, especially when we feel we have the need to know, seldom. We charge ahead with what we think we know and never really correct our misinformation.

We chase after positions and titles for prestige and not because we seek to be well informed for the benefit of helping another's who need guidance and correct information. We fail to listen to gain and seek understanding but tend to over talk others and miss out on valuable relevant information because we see our view as the final answer. But the Word tells us "In all thy getting get an understanding". Collect the information and put the puzzle together as the pieces correctly fit in. If you have any information to add, share it without judgment. Jesus did, He showed the patience and compassion we seem at times to be lacking, with a large amount of grace and mercy. He had 12 that He needed to bring up to certain level before His departure and I'm sure they were a little rough around the edges at first.

A caterpillar goes through a metamorphic change before it becomes a butterfly, and that process takes time. There are no shortcuts within the process, all of the steps must be fulfilled, or the end result will not be a flying butterfly. Allow the full transformation to take place and do not shorten the process in any way. Trust God after all He is our creator and understands how to get us back to our respective place in Him, when we yield our will.

RELEVANT OR NOT

by Elder Diane Harvell

Whether we realize it or not, we all seek relevance in life. One of the catalysts of our faith is relevance. Who we are or who we are purposed to be God is the only one who knows our destiny, and he also knows our abilities.

He knows what's good for us and what's not.

Being relevant means living God's way because it simply works. Reading the bible on a consistent basis has many benefits. First, the Bible shows us God's character and helps us to understand who He really is and what he expects, contrary to what has been interpreted. God's word is so relevant because it guides us through our daily lives, how to treat others and how to live 'decently and in order.'

To be relevant simply means why something matters. And this is essential to our actions, decisions, goals, or situations. Today life can be viewed or seen as though nothing matters anymore because of the state and present condition of this world. But I believe because God is eternal and His Word is eternal, He is not bound by anything, heaven and earth shall pass away, but God's Word shall never cease to exist. Although society has changed, God's Word remains the same. Oh, how I long to be like Him in every way but the only way to do that is through His Word.

Not only will the Word cleanse us, but it also has the power to save us, heal us, and bring us wisdom and joy!

When He walked on earth, Jesus remained true to who he was. He didn't waiver from His earthly ministry, He didn't run away although He was called blasphemous names and told that He was a worker of Beelzebub! Jesus knew that what He had to do was very relevant and no one else could complete this assignment without faultlessness!

Was Jesus' life relevant or irrelevant? Irrelevant means that something is not important in a given situation. Sadly, many things within our society today dictate that God's way, His Word, His life is irrelevant. Therefore, we live as if we have no hope.

But let me comfort you with these words:

I Thessalonians 4:16-18; For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words. Our relevance is not being conformed to this world but to be transformed by the renewing of our mind which is our reasonable service because God has already proven what is good and acceptable and His perfect will for all of us!

May God Bless You All!

I cordially invite you to join with me for an in-depth Bible Studies, Prayer and Fellowship.

WHAT'S IN THIS???

By: Sgt. Nate Griffin, Sgt Nate Fitness LLC

Gone are the days when the food we ate, we planted, picked, and cooked ourselves. As a child in the 60s, I remembered the fascination of drinking Tang “orange drink”. It was what the astronauts drink. Was the tag line, “I believe. The operative word was and is today “orange” drink.

Today, you can find plenty of food items in the markets listed in this fashion. This way, they can't say it's really the actual food substance and directly, mislead the public. However, once you read the labels, you soon find that what you are eating in many cases, we created in a lab and mass produced, and contain no real food products at all.

It has been masked to give you the impression it's real food. You also have instances where certain foods have so much sugar, salt, or other chemicals in them. That you are driven to consume more of it. For example, soda manufacturers get the public to drink more sodas by add extra salt in the drink, then mask it with large amounts of sugar (high fructose corn syrup). You think you're drinking because it tastes great, and it does. But you're actually drinking more of it, because you're thirsty.

I watch a show on tv called The Foods That Made America. I noticed much has been done to increase sales, profits, production, improve taste, and so on. Yet, nothing has been said, stated, or mentioned surrounding the safety of serving these items to people to eat. The body recognizes food sources in the digestion process. It doesn't really know what to do with non-food items and the body over time will regard it as a foreign object.

Below, is a list of just 11 food additives that have been band in other countries for health and safety reason. However, here in the United States, no changes have been made to safeguard the American public.

Your homework, is to look these additives up and see which foods they are common in. Then look for alternatives to these for better food choices. It may prove labor intensive. But it's your health, your life, and the Temple of the holy spirit. What you put in it is your tribute to God. I Corin-thian 10:31 Whether therefore you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do to the glory of God.

So, what can we do to be use we are eating healthy of selections of foods?

Read all food labels carefully. Get familiar with these banned ingredients and their alternative names, and look for them on packaged foods.

Eat minimally processed or, even better, whole, organic foods as much as possible. Fruits, vegetables, legumes, and grains won't have the long list of ingredients that packaged and processed foods often do.

Cook at home as much as you can. This way, you have more control over the food you're eating. You know exactly what ingredients are being used, and can decide to eat foods that best align with your values as much as possible.

What Are You Reflecting

An entitled attitude and pride can be a horrible thing, they bring out the worst character in a person. Being proud of your accomplishments, culture with humility is a totally different thing. We must get back to the understanding that God the Creator of us all has purpose each one of us into existence. Therefore, we must respectfully honor His Supreme decision for our present situations and not try to override His Will with our opinions of others. If we would just study His Word, it will provide a greater understanding and help each one of us to live out our individual potential to the fullest. The key thought and word is to study, setting some time aside daily in order to get some understanding and you will. Then you and I can be aiming in the right direction as He intended us to go, fulfilling not guessing what's our purpose. We were not created to seat in His seat, but to hear His voice and follow His instructions. However, when we are loud and rude we cannot hear or see the direction to take. Let's calm down and start listening to His voice and we will have less and less disappointments and self-inflected mishaps. Can you calm down for a minute to consider this. Well, your actions will provide the answer for you.
