Thy word have I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee. Ps 119:11

2 Corinthians 4:1-18

Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

2But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:

4In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them.

5For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.

6For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

7But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.

8We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;

9Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;

10Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.

11For we which live are always delivered unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.

12So then death worketh in us, but life in you.

13We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;

14Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.

15For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.

16For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Are you worried? You should be!

Dr. C. A. Dangerfield II

It is past the time to stop placating political nonsense and misaligned principles. Meaning if you are going focus on one thing then key in on them all. One of the main principles of God is to love your neighbor as yourself. It does not come with any requirement to consider before taking action to fulfil it. Our biggest issue is we don't take the time to truly study for ourselves to gain a true overall understanding. We rely on others to tell us but that does not follow the instructions given and provide by God which clearly states to study? Which brings up the question do you really know and understand how to study? Do you set aside time to really get the wisdom and knowledge that God intends for us to have? If your truthful answer is no, what is your plan to change that situation? The Bible teaches us that in our quest for getting (gaining possession) get an understanding this truly is the principal thing in our life that will come with endless benefits, rather that overwhelming turmoil.

It's truly disturbing to me that in our political arena they try to align themselves with various groups within the religious population. I phrase it that way for a reason, because even in the New Testament we see that the Scribes and Pharisees couldn't recognize the Messiah who was before them. Had they truly understood the scriptures and the messages delivered through the Prophets before them. That makes you kind of pause and wonder. But the Word of God confirms that there was at least one from among them Nicodemus who had the where with all to actually go to Jesus to gain a firsthand understanding from Him. It matters that much to him that he made a direct effort outside of the group he was in, because he felt he needed to know. Are you that way about yourself?

When you study the passages of scripture in Luke 6:31, Deuteronomy 1:17-18. What is our takeaway? I purposely just gave the scripture reference because I desire for you to go to the Bible and open the light to your understanding and curiosity it will take you in deep and you will begin to study. The scriptures tell us "My Word is a lamp unto your feet and a light unto your pathway," This guidance will help your understanding and put you on the right path to fulfilling His will for us all. Hear what Jesus says about our treatment of other in Matthew 25:31-45 it will make us take a deeper look at our motives.

It is our responsibility to get ourselves on the right path and to assist others in doing the same without an agenda. He provides us with an expectation and conditions Matthew 5:19,20. To ensure that there is no manipulation on our part. Truly it is time to really focus our mind, heart, and soul back to God with all our might. Our world is in turmoil with political leaders who a striving for personal power for personal gains at the destruction of others and are open in how they intend to do it. Their deception has no bearing on their conscience, just their motive. They vacuum in those who hang onto their enticing words and false promises. They are so blind to truth because they have truly neglected to study the Word of God. His Word is sufficient, His path has greater rewards than any promise made to you by man who is finite. God is infinite and everlasting and the creator of us all, who can be a greater source. It's time to take another self-evaluation to ensure we align ourselves with the principles of God and not man. Our eternal future lies in the outcome of that one important decision. He loves us all, that's why we have been given time to make the right decision and fulfill our purpose in Him. Take some quiet time to consider your options and eliminate gray areas in your life, choose light or darkness but make a concrete decision. I am praying for you and with you that we all see Him in peace. Thank you for this time as I fulfill this assignment.

“Your body is NOT your own”

By: Sgt. Nate Griffin, CPT.

Sgt. Nate Fitness LLC

Many people use the month of January to pursue new things. New challenges, new careers, new relationships, and yes new diets. Let's make a new commitment to ourselves that we will do our best to take better care of ourselves, being the temple of the Holy Spirit. We will start by taking a closer look at some of the health-related issues surrounding us today and work on optimizing our health to best of our ability, so that we may be better equipped and healthy enough to go out into all the world with the good news of the Gospel.

What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? I Corinthians 6:19

Fitness Tips

It's been recommended that you only need about 3 days of 30 minutes workouts per week to receive health related benefit. This is however, contingent upon the intensity of the routines. Seek a professional fitness instructor for the best workouts for your specific goal.

Health Tips

Sleep is grossly underrated in this do-it-now-get-your-grind-on generation. The truth of the matter is this. Your body grows, heals and rebuilds and reboot during this time. Your Hormones and immune system are rejuvenated as well. So, if you wanted to really see the results of your workouts. Get some sleep.

Nutrition Tips

Diets Don't Work! Learning to make healthy selections when it comes to meals and sticking with one that is sustainable betters your chances of success. You may need to consult to the services of a Register Dietician for additional support and recommendations. It is not a one-size-fits-all type of thing.

Warning Signs

STROKE: Weakness, trouble walking, sudden loss of balance, sudden loss of vision, dizziness, a severe headache, fatigue, loss of swallowing reflex, loss of sensation (hearing, taste, smell), and heart palpitations. Should you witness these signs occurring in someone immediately call 911 and run this quick test. Think...F.A.S.T.

F: face dropping,

S: speech difficulty,

A: arm weakness,

T: time to call 911.

Ask Your Doctor

If you are a 20 years old woman. these are the recommendation test and exams for you to consult with your doctor.

- Blood pressure
- Cholesterol screening
- Diabetes screening
- Dental exam
- Eye exam
- Immunizations
- Breast cancer screening
- Infectious disease screening
- Cervical cancer screening
- Mental health/substance abuse consultation
- Self-skin care exam
- Physical exam

If you are a 20 years old male, these are the recommended test and exams for you to consult with your doctor.

- Blood pressure
- Cholesterol screening
- Diabetes screening
- Dental exam
- Eye exam
- Immunizations
- Infectious disease screening
- Physical exam
- Mental health/substance abuse consultation
- Testicular exam

The Love of GOD

If You can't help them, Don't hurt them.

As our Lord and Savior warned all who would bear the good news “Unless you repent, you will all likewise perish” (Luke 13:5). Even as teachers and preachers none should think that they are so knowledgeable or gifted that others are sinners in need of repentance and they are not! All need repentance.

As we learn more of the statutes of GOD, and more about how we should honor and obey his will. Changes have to be made in our thinking and our behavior. David was so serious about getting it right that he prayed: Teach me, O LORD, the way of thy statutes; And I shall keep it unto the end. Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; Yea, I shall observe it with my whole heart. Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; For therein do I delight. (Psalms 119: 33-37)

In our daily walk we will encounter many less knowledgeable of GOD's will and his ways than we are. It can be frustrating at times, to want to help, or advise people who just don't know. “Doing them” as society teaches. We can prepare an entire laundry list of the types of people who need our help and our instruction but do not realize they need it, or those who do know they need it but are not mentally and emotionally prepared to make the needed changes in their lives.

Fear is a deterrent to change, so how do we help them. Never give up on the lost, we have the authority to bind and loose in the Earth and in Heaven. This includes attitudes and behaviors. Continue to pray for the lost, pray for behavioral changes, realizations and new revelations then allow GOD to be GOD and help you win the souls of the lost. (Matthew 16: 19). The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; And he that winneth souls is wise (Proverbs 11: 30-31). In order for a true believer, the righteous person to bear fruit, Our GOD has promised, Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: much more the wicked and the sinner.

You labor is not in vain! (Matthew 6: 1-34) teaches us how to please GOD in prayer for ourselves and others. Our GOD offers his help and reassurance that when we follow his will and his way he will reward us openly. He promised that when he is lifted up, he will draw all men unto himself. So lift JESUS up before all men and he will empower you to win many, many souls for his name sake!!

Teaching men how to walk in repentance is like teaching a baby how to walk. It must be done a little at a time, using the right words, teaching the right things that matter and pertain to them individually. Be careful not to offend them, but encourage reading the word, explaining what it means and teaching them how to apply it to their daily lives so they too can begin the process of change. Teaching them (Psalm 1: 1-2) Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, Nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; And in his law doth he meditate day and night.

Use (Hebrews 12 1-2) as a guideline for instruction and an example of how to help the lost to grow, learn and begin to understand the ways of GOD. (Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, ²Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God).

While (Proverbs 4:7) teaches us, Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. Our Savior does not desire anyone to perish or to remain lost so we must allow GOD to chastise as we continue to teach!! All the promises of GOD are true and sealed with the Holy Spirit of Promise. (Ephesians 1: 1-23). With the help of the Holy Spirit any Man can change. Any Man can learn to Trust and Believe, ¹⁷ That the GOD of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him.

Presenting Christ

La Mesha Conley

As the holiday season unfolds, our focus shifts to spreading joy, kindness, and the true essence of Christmas. For us at Marketing with Mesh, this season is not just about festivities; it's an opportunity to present Christ through a thoughtful and purposeful marketing strategy. Join us on this journey as we explore how our approach goes beyond the commercial worldly aspects and aims to illuminate the true meaning of Christmas.

The Foundation: Christ-Centered Values

At the heart of our marketing strategy is a commitment to Christ-centered values. We believe in aligning our actions with the teachings of Jesus Christ, emphasizing love, compassion, and service to others. Our marketing messages are crafted with a deep understanding of the profound impact these values can have during the holiday season.

Authentic Storytelling

One of the key elements of our strategy is authentic storytelling. We recognize that in a world saturated with advertisements, authenticity stands out. Our marketing materials share genuine stories of hope, transformation, and the love of Christ. By weaving narratives that resonate with our audience, we aim to create connections that go beyond the transactional.

Giving Campaign

This season, we are launching an "Giving" campaign as part of our marketing strategy. Instead of focusing solely on promoting our programs, we are encouraging our community to actively participate in giving their expertise through short masterclasses. We are collaborating with experts to give all the gems from their industry that can help your business grow and thrive.

Social Media Engagement

In the digital age, social media is a powerful tool for spreading messages far and wide. Our social media platforms are not just spaces for promotion; they are avenues for fostering a sense of community. Take one platform and show up daily for 12 days at the same time. Through daily reflections, inspirational quotes, and engaging content, we are creating an online space that reflects the values of Marketing with Mesh and shares the message of Christ's love.

Community Involvement

Beyond the digital realm, we are actively involved in our local communities. Our marketing strategy includes promoting community events and collaborating with local businesses to create a positive impact. By being present in the lives of those around us, we hope to share the true reason for celebrating the holidays.

Gratitude and Reflection

As we present Christ through our marketing strategy, we also emphasize gratitude and reflection. Expressing gratitude for the support we receive and encouraging moments of reflection on the true meaning of Christmas are integral parts of our messaging. We believe that a grateful heart and a reflective spirit can inspire others to embrace the joy of giving.

This holiday season, our marketing strategy is not just about promoting services; it's about presenting Christ in every interaction, every story, and every act of giving. As we illuminate the season with the light of Christ, we invite you to join us in spreading love, joy, and hope. Together, let's make this season a celebration of the true meaning of Christmas.

Let's Not Take This Time For Granted

C.A. Dangerfield II

We have been given His grace to see another year. How will we demonstrate that we are grateful for the opportunity to be present in it. What were the lessons that we extracted from last year that will provide a closer walk with the Lord? Or, have we not taken the time to reflect on that simply because we have taken on the mindset of so many "I gotta get my grind on."? Do we ever hear within ourselves the echoes of the Word of God?

"Be not conformed to this world" because that thought pattern is of this world. Have we not read/heard the Words that said "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and all these things shall be added unto you."? That is to show us if we are paying attention to these words there is divine order in which we are to do things and the outcome would be He will give you the desires of your heart through your obedience. Let's face it we have dabbled in a lot of things which have not produced the outcome that we desired.

Honestly because it has really not aligned up with the principles of God, and would have taken us way outside of God's plan for our life. It's because of our relationship we have that blessed assurance. But going forward we have to really start paying attention to all of the details of the circumstances and situation that come up on this life's journey because they provide the insight for sustaining a Strong outcome.

We all were created with a purpose in mind to fulfill a life's task. Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the thoughts I think towards you saith the Lord thoughts of peace and not of evil to give you an intended end. There is an assignment to impact change in this time in which we live. We have to be aware and manifest the gifts that are within us. When we read and study the Word of God regarding various ones mentioned throughout, some had what we might view as challenges and some even did so very awful things. In spite of that we see the outcome of repentance, faith, and trust in a God who can do anything but fail.

What are your gifts? Do you know, but better yet are you operating in them or just trying to be a carbon copy of someone else that you may admire or envy? Yes, these may be some hard questions. Would you rather no one ask to help wake us up? Then to step in the reality of what the Word of God has been telling us all along. Winding up hearing something that no one wants to hear "Depart from me for I know you not ye worker of iniquity"? That would be devastating with no other opportunity.

So it is vital to ask the tough questions now to have the opportunity to fix the questionable areas of our lives. Rather, than getting caught in the daily hustle and losing sight of why we are here. Have you even considered that this is my assignment to bring up these very important questions that you would be reading this article right now? You matter to God and always have; He has placed so much into His relationships with each one of us. That He would go through whatever it takes to get our focus and attention back on Him so that we fulfill that which we were sent to do and become that one that honors Him. That alone speaks volumes, His preference is for us to have eternal gain. Not the short-lived gains that world gives and then in time takes away and you have nothing because it robs and kills you or distracts you away from your intended purpose. Think about those who have stayed to the course and avoided the distraction that could have got them caught up. They are living in His grace and peace.

Close Your Eyes In The Dark

Neva Brooks

Jesus once again addressed them: "I am the world's Light. No one who follows me stumbles around in the darkness. I provide plenty of light to live in." John 8:12 MSG
"For we walk by faith, not by sight." 2 Corinthians 5:7 (KJV)

It isn't a matter IF the darkness will come, but WHEN the darkness will come. I want you to think about a current or upcoming situation that is dark. Can you dare to close your eyes in the dark? This question or statement is oxymoronic at best.

It is in the dark when we naturally open our eyes as wide as we can to allow light to enter our eyes. This aids the physical components of your eyes to see. The anatomy of the eye consists of many parts, I want to highlight several which functions largely depend on light. Iris: regulates the amount of light that enters your eye. Pupil: light passes into the lens of the eye. Lens: refracts incoming light and focuses it onto the retina. Retina: light sensitive layer that is essential for receiving a sharp accurate image and distinguishing colors. The retina works much in the same way as the film in a camera, or filter in a digital device. This is a snapshot of how God designed our eyes to allow light to enter.

Spiritually, we close our eyes in the dark and walk by faith not by sight, this is what helps us to see, spiritually. The essential parts, and you may identify others, are God, Jesus, Holy Spirit, your faith! This is a snapshot of how God designed our spirit to allow the light of Christ to enter.

You may wonder what this has to do with presenting Christ, or being prepared for how we represent Christ. Read on and I will share my perspectives with you.

Last week I entered my dark bedroom and clicked the light switch on the wall, nothing happened. The bulb was blown! But no problem, right? On the other side of the room is another light switch. My room was dimly lit from the back porch light, and I made my way toward the light. The other light switch is just beyond the dresser, so I focused on the dresser.

As I focused on this dresser and started to walk, I bumped my right leg on the footboard of the bed. Hopping on my left leg, I tripped on a pair of shoes I'd left at the end of the bed. Ouch, ouch, ouch I screamed! While sitting on the floor, I heard the Spirit of God say, "close your eyes."

After I gathered myself, I stood up, closed my eyes, and began to feel my way to the dresser. Sure enough, at the end of the dresser was the light switch. Standing there, I understood why God gave me the message to close my eyes in the dark.

I want to encourage you today to have faith in God during the darkest times of your life. Walk by faith, not by sight. You shouldn't let dimly lit objects in your view distract you. For instance, I was able to focus on my goal, the dresser, with the help of the artificial light from my back porch. But, because my focus was distorted in the artificial light, I didn't see the obstacles along the way. It is like the film of a camera not fully developed or having the wrong filter on your camera's digital device.

To effectively navigate the darkness, we must be prepared before the darkness comes. I am learning that being prepared gets me to the light more effectively and efficiently. In doing so, it allows me to have a greater impact shining the light of Christ to others.

Situations in life tend to cast darkness. It may be a doctor's report, the loss of a job, the end of a relationship, or maybe the death of a loved one. We have victory in the dark, knowing that the light of Christ will lead the way.

The year 2021 was one of the darkest seasons of my life. The whole world was learning to live what they called "the new normal" after the COVID pandemic rocked the globe. I worked very closely with the mental health community to manage various projects funded by private philanthropists and government. This was monies specific for addressing mental health issues during the pandemic. My role was project coordinator and my duties included leading several teams in a large metropolitan area. I meticulously researched and implemented initiatives and built synergistic teams to address the needs of the community.

I know multiple people and families whose lives were forever changed in the blink of an eye. Businesses were shut down, not knowing if they would ever open again. Business owners and employees alike were devastated with the loss of income. Churches, synagogues, schools, banks, and stores were all scrambling to find new and innovative ways to maintain communication with their members and clients. It isn't a matter of IF the darkness will come, but rather WHEN the darkness comes. In addition, how will you navigate through the darkness to get to the marvelous light? To be prepared to face the darkness one must first understand the power of the light of Christ.

Jesus said: "I am the world's light. No one who follows me stumbles around in the darkness. I provide plenty of light to live in." John 8:12 MSG.
Jesus said he has plenty of light to live in!

I have a simple assignment, or experiment for you. It is possible you have done this before and if you have, I want you to think back to that time. Here's the "power of light experiment." Find a lighter or flashlight. Get yourself in a room where there is no light. No artificial light and natural light cannot be seen. A closet without an outside window is perfect! Now flick the lighter or flashlight. You will see in total darkness, even the smallest amount of light ignites the physical components of the eye to function. Notice how everything closest to the light is illuminated and darkness has been pushed away. It is much the same way with the light of Christ. When you ignite your faith, even in the darkest of times, the light of Christ will illuminate your way. Jesus said "I am the world's Light. No one who follows me stumbles around in the darkness. I provide plenty of light to live in." John 8:12 MSG

Can you dare to Close your Eyes in the Dark?

Read John 8:12 and meditate on Jesus being the light in your dark places.

Share 2 Corinthians 5:7 and John 8:12 with someone you know that is in “addiction darkness”.

Spend as much time as you can in the natural sunlight today. Sit on your porch or take a walk in your neighborhood. Feel the light and love of God’s Son, Jesus through his created Sun, light.

Prayer: Father, thank you for declaring light in the void known as darkness. You have consistently been the light in dark places. Thank you! You loved us to the extent of sending your darling Son, Jesus the Christ to pardon our sins. He declared he is the light of the world and we who follow him will not stumble in darkness. Amen.

My hands were made for this!

La Mesha Conley

We all get 24 hours in a day each day. I wear many hats and I have to gauge what to prioritize what is most important in the moment.

Today I had personal prayer, corporate prayer, brunch, 2 hours of evangelism and then family time.

Each day is going to be different but how do we build a snowball effect to make lasting impact for Christ?

I believe you only make lasting impact for Christ when doing the works of Christ.

In my business as a marketing strategist that would mean content creation would have to be faith focused.

As an educator that would mean showing up as the light in those dark hallways.

As a judge that would mean using your authority in the courtroom.

Wherever the places are that you serve you must take dominion and use the time or season you are in to give God the glory.

1. Seeking God's Guidance (Psalm 119:27):

In Psalm 119:27, the psalmist declares, "Make me understand the way of your precepts, and I will meditate on your wondrous works." To make an impact for God, we must first seek His guidance and understanding. This involves spending time in prayer, studying His Word, and seeking His will for our lives. By prioritizing our time with God, we gain wisdom and discernment to make choices that align with His purposes.

2. Guarding our Hearts (Psalm 119:10):

Psalm 119:10 says, "With my whole heart, I seek you; let me not wander from your commandments." To make an impact for God, we must guard our hearts and minds against distractions and temptations that can lead us astray. This requires intentional time management and setting boundaries in our daily lives. By prioritizing our relationship with God and aligning our actions with His commandments, we can make a lasting impact on those around us.

3. Meditating on God's Word (Psalm 119:11):

In Psalm 119:11, the psalmist proclaims, "I have stored up your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you." To make an impact for God, we must spend time meditating on His Word and allowing it to transform our lives. This involves not only reading the Bible but also reflecting on its teachings and applying them to our daily lives. By immersing ourselves in God's Word, we gain wisdom and insight that can guide our actions and interactions with others.

4. Prioritizing Kingdom Work:

Making an impact for God requires prioritizing Kingdom work in our daily lives. This includes serving others, sharing the Gospel, and living out our faith in practical ways. By intentionally allocating time for acts of kindness, discipleship, and evangelism, we can make a tangible difference in the lives of those around us. Whether it's volunteering at a local charity, mentoring a young believer, or sharing our faith with a neighbor, every small act of obedience can have a ripple effect for God's Kingdom.

Though we all may wear many hats, only what we do for Christ will last. Do activities like seeking His guidance, guarding our hearts and sharing Christ, meditating on His Word, and prioritizing Kingdom work, we can make a difference in the lives of others and bring glory to His name.

This year I decided to use my weekends for evangelism. Our decisions reflect our actions and our actions reflect our choices. We will no longer sit idly with our time but rather use it wisely to build the Kingdom.

I cordially invite you to join with me for an in-depth Bible Studies, Prayer and Fellowship.

God inspired me to have this conference because he is preparing His people to not only be AS HE IS, but also be WHERE HE IS! Within his kingdoms, there is no malice, bitterness or hatred. Matthew 6:14-15 says if we forgive others then our Heavenly Father will also forgive us, but if we don't forgive others then neither will our Heavenly Father forgive our trespasses. Forgiveness is not only how we help ourselves, but how we can also help others be AS CHRIST so that we can all live eternally WITH CHRIST. For this is our real purpose, and our real goal, to truly rest WITH HIM in peace one day!

Yes, We Are In Scary Times, But God Will Prevail

Dr. C. A. Dangerfield II

Malachi 1:14 KJV

[14] But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

Revelation 12:9-12 KJV

[9] And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. [10] And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. [11] And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. [12] Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

In these times which we are living we must focus on the Word of God and not the word or rhetoric of man. Especially one who loves to hear the sound of their own voice and always putting themselves above everyone and everything. Taking credit for everything as if they directly had something to do with it. Seriously though the last time this happened that person and their followers were discharged from Heaven. We really have to pulse and examine the effect of that outcome and also what it is doing today. Those that were cast from Heaven with the Deceiver also had their eyes blinded. The tactics are still being deployed today divide and conquer.

But I believe God and His Word only and He will not fail. The Nation needs to put their eyes back in the Word of God and not get caught up in the political nonsense and circus that draws you away from the principles of God. When we stand before God our political system and politicians will not be present we will stand alone. Giving an account for our own decisions and alignments. When we have respect of person and work against the principles of God. We will spiral in a downward trajectory unless we get our face into the Word of God for directions to keep us from missing the mark.

If the Word of God represents truth why would we listen and follow a lie. It because we lack understanding because we have not studied the Word of God and can't even recognize when we have been insulted and are under attack. Way to you think that everything is in chaos? Are you listening to God or are you being lead around and manipulated. Warning comes before destruction and when you ignore the warnings you have a dramatic outcome. Divide and conquer is the tactic. The Word of teaches us in unity there is strength.

You still have time to study to show yourself approved and to remove the scales over your eyes that have blinded you to God's truth and align yourself correctly with principles of God. You and I would hate to hear the words "Depart from me for I know you not ye worker of iniquity..."

For the scriptures proclaim
Matthew 7:21-27 KJV

[21] Not everyone that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven. [22] Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils? and in thy name done many wonderful works? [23] And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work iniquity. [24] Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: [25] and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. [26] And everyone that heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: [27] and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it.

This year one wrong decision will have the greatest impact on a nation and the world. All each of us can do is consider our ways and take every effort to align with God. The time is ticking towards His return. His Word will not return unto Him void.

You have spoken your concerns into the atmosphere, you have even prayed individually and collectively with others. You have cried out because of your fears and desires. Your frustration has been heard and felt by the one who matters most in your deliverance. You have one more important step it is lead by your trust and faith in creating the most important relationship in your life.

Your answer to life is currently knocking at the door of your heart. Go ahead and open it, receive what you have been requesting! Don't wait, receive it NOW! Right NOW!

The Inner Place

Dr. Claude A. Dangerfield II

*There is a place beyond life's challenges
An inner place of peace, love, and joy.*

A place where you can find solitude and strength.

*The great thing is each individual possess a personal key to provide access.
Once inside one gains restoration, transformation strength, and a sound mind,*

with a greater understanding and impactful wisdom that will elevate and put you on the path to your destiny of true intent of who you were created to be.

In the inner place, you will learn to trust one completely and will be shown how to love others correctly, as you yourself are experiencing love from the one that matters.

When in the inner place you will also learn how to communicate effectively and erase all guilt and shame.

In the inner place, you will come to the understanding of true intimacy and what it feels like as well as what it will now mean to you.

The greatest understanding is that it will always as it has been, be accessible to you.

When you use your key and enter into the inner place.

It is not a place of fear, it is a place of love, wrapped in peace, joy, and understanding and each experience will provide you with greater wisdom and tranquility.

*Experience your inner place the world will become a different place for you.
Because your inner will radiate to your outer place.*
