Something New

I think Spring is here to stay well at least through its season.

Flowers are being planted, weeds are being pulled... things are being made beautiful.

If you are considering a new job or career change, knowing what to ask could prove to be vital in the success of landing the new job.

Fun events are always taking place. Find something to attend or just get a good book and enjoy reading it on the porch or at the park.

There are many things that affect our finances. Do you know what is affecting yours?

As you plan your spring events, don't forget the entertainment.

Book Comedienne Carla "The Truth" for your corporate and women events, birthday & anniversary parties, baby showers and more.
